This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at `http://books.google.com/`

NOTE.—Of these churches, some existed under Royal Charter, or otherwise, prior to the first Convention of the Diocese in 1785. This class is denoted by the letter A, placed after the date of admission into union.

A few others seem to have been admitted by the Conventions in which they respectively appeared for the first time by their delegates, although mention of the admission seems to have been omitted in the Journal. Such are designated by the letter B.

The few incorporated under the law of April 13, 1854, are marked by the letter C.

JOURNAL OF THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE CONVENTION.

NEW YORK,
Wednesday, November 10, 1909.

THIS being the day appointed by the Constitution of the Diocese of New York for the meeting of the Annual Convention, a number of the clergy and laity assembled for divine service at 10 o'clock in the Crypt of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, New York City, the place appointed by the Bishop for that purpose.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Rt. Rev. David H. Greer, D.D., Bishop of the Diocese; the Rt. Rev. A. C. A. Hall, D.D., Bishop of Vermont; the Rev. George F. Nelson, D.D., Archdeacon of New York; the Rev. Charles S. Burch, D.D., Archdeacon of Richmond; the Rev. Ernest Voorhis, Ph.D., and the Rev. R. E. Jones, D.D., Canons of the Cathedral. The Archdeacon of New York read the names of the Bishops of the Church and the Clergy and Laity of the Diocese who had died during the year.

DECEASED.

The Right Rev. George De Normandie Gillespie, D.D., Bishop of Western Michigan.

The Right Rev. Edward Jennings Knight, D.D., Bishop of Western Colorado.

CLERGY OF THE DIOCESE.

The Rev. William Reed Huntington, D.D., D.C.L., L.H.D., Deputy to the General Convention; for twenty-five years Rector of Grace Church, New York; Trustee of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, and Chairman of the Committee on the Fabric; Founder and Warden of the New York Training School for Deaconesses; Member of the Board of Missions of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society, and for many years one of the Vice-Presidents of the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society.

The Rev. Thomas R. Harris, D.D., Secretary of the Diocesan Convention since 1887, and Secretary of the Standing Committee since 1895; Trustee of the General Theological Seminary; sometime Rector of St. Paul's Church, Morrisania, and St. Mary's Church, Scarborough, and Warden of St. Stephen's College.

The Rev. William Samuel Coffey, for fifty-five years Rector of St. Paul's Church, East Chester.

The Rev. John T. Patey, Ph.D., for seventeen years Rector of St. Luke's Church, Convent Avenue and 141st Street, New York.

The Rev. Arthur Clifford Kimber, D.D., Vicar of St. Augustine's Chapel, Trinity Parish, New York, since 1872, and Trustee of St. Stephen's College.

The Rev. Edward H. Van Winkle, for fourteen years Rector of St. Clement's Church, New York.

The Rev. William Orne Lamson, D.D., sometime Rector of the American Church at Nice, France.

LAITY.

Mr. Augustus Wiggins, for twenty years Treasurer of Christ Church, Rye, and Vestryman from 1869 to 1877, at which time he was made Church Warden and then served continuously in that capacity, with the exception of the year 1883, when he declined the election, until Easter, 1906, when he asked to be replaced by a younger man; and for many years delegate to the Diocesan Convention and Treasurer of the Archdeaconry of Westchester.

Dr. James H. Canfield, Vestryman of All Souls Church, New York; Treasurer of the Diocesan Board of Missions; Lay Reader, and for many years Librarian of Columbia University.

Mr. Edwin D. Arnold, Treasurer of the Archdeaconry of Richmond and Vestryman of Christ Church, New Brighton.

Mr. Oliver Grant Barton, Senior Vestryman of Calvary Church, New York, and member of the Diocesan Board of Missions.

Mr. John Lawrence Riker, for more than thirty-eight years Vestryman and Warden of the Church of the Incarnation, New York.

Mr. John H. Caswell, for thirty-three years a Vestryman of Trinity Church, New York, and at one time its Senior Warden.

Mr. Clarence Melville Hyde, sometime Vestryman of St. Thomas's Church, New York.

Mr. Thomas Sears Young, a member of the Board of Trustees of the Church of the Holy Communion, New York, since 1897.

Mr. William Brockie, Vestryman of the Church of the Ascension, New York.

Mr. Gordon Norrie, Member of the Board of Managers of St. Luke's Hospital, New York, and for many years its Treasurer until he asked, a few years ago, to be relieved, on account of the infirmities of age.

At the close of the service the Convention assembled in the Synod Hall for the business session.

The Secretary laid before the Convention written proof that a constitutional quorum of both orders was present, and on motion, the calling of the roll was dispensed with in accordance with the provisions of Canon II., Sec. 15.

The President declared the Convention duly organized for business.

Mr. Henry Lewis Morris presented the following report:

Report

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE ESTATE AND PROPERTY OF THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION OF NEW YORK, FOR THE YEAR ENDING NOVEMBER 8, 1909.

The following is a list of the various Trusts:

Diocesan House, 416 Lafayette Street, and an Endowment Fund of $50,000, the income of which is to be expended for its support and maintenance. The real estate is leased to the Archdeacon of New York, and the entire income paid to him.

Land, Church Building, Rectory, Parish House and Schoolhouse at Eighty-ninth Street and Madison Avenue, leased to the Church of the Beloved Disciple. Endowment Fund and securities of the par value of $186,493.03, the income of which is to be applied to the maintenance and preservation of the church and its work, but no income shall be expended for alterations to the church or for a Mission Church.

Land, Burial Plot and Glebe Plot, with Church Building, Parish House and Rectory, near Scarborough, Westchester County, leased to St. Mary's Church, Beechwood. Endowment Fund of $9,206.92; the income to be expended for repairs and conducting services in the church.

Land, Church Buildings and Rectory at Montrose, Westchester County, occupied by the Church of the Divine Love.

Land and Church Buildings at Verplancks, Westchester County, occupied by the Chapel of St. Barnabas.

Land and Church Buildings at Rosendale, Ulster County, occupied by All Saints' Church.

Land and Church Buildings at Yonkers, leased to Christ Church.

Land and Church Buildings at Tuxedo Park, occupied by St. Mary's Church.

Land at Ellenville, Ulster County, with Church Building and Rectory, leased to St. John's Memorial Church.

Land and Church Building at Newburgh, leased to the Church of the Good Shepherd.

Endowment Fund of $5,500; the income to be paid semi-annually to the Pastor, Rector or other head of St. Matthew's Protestant Episcopal Church, in the town of Bedford, Westchester County, in addition to his regular salary.

Under the Will of Mary A. Astor Woodcock $5,000 have been received, the income to be paid semi-annually to the Rector for the time being of St. Matthew's Protestant Episcopal Church, in the town of Bedford, Westchester County in addition to his regular salary as such Rector.

Land and Church Building known as the Worthington Memorial Church of St. Joseph of Arimathea, in the town of Greenburgh. Endowment Fund of $5,000, the income of which is to be applied to the repair and maintenance of the church and grounds.

The title to the land occupied by St. Thomas's Protestant Episcopal Church, of Mamaroneck, Westchester County, is to revert to this corporation upon the failure of the parish, which holds a conditional title, to carry out the terms of the grants of the property.

Endowment Fund for this parish, consisting of bonds of the West Shore Railroad Company, of the par value of $4,500, the income to be applied to the expenses of the parish.

Endowment Fund, All Angels' Church, New York City. This fund is to accumulate until it amounts to $50,000. It amounts at this date to $27,934.18.

Land at Yonkers, New York, with Church Buildings, and a Mission

Chapel at Lincoln Park, leased to St. Andrew's Memorial Church, and also an Endowment Fund of $25,000, to be held as a memorial to William F. Cochran, the income to be paid to the corporation of St. Andrew's Memorial Church.

Loomis Memorial Chapel (known as the Church of St. Luke the Beloved Physician), to be held as a memorial to Dr. Alfred L. Loomis. The property is situated at Liberty, New York, at the Loomis Sanitarium, which agrees to maintain the property and provide necessary services. Endowment Fund of $10,000 for the support of the church.

Property on the south side of East Eighty-eighth Street east of Second Avenue, held by St. James's Church. This corporation holds a reversionary interest in this property in case the Church corporation should fail to comply with the terms of the deed of gift. Endowment Fund of $200,000 to be invested and the income paid over to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of St. James's Church, to be applied to the use, maintenance and support of said property in East Eighty-eighth Street.

Endowment Fund of $89,086.64, the income to be paid to St. James's Church so long as it shall be entitled under the terms of the agreement to receive the same, and afterwards to Trinity Church Corporation of the city of New York.

Land at Harrison, Westchester County, New York, with Church Buildings thereon, known as All Saints' Church, leased to Rev. William W. Kirkby, Frank Garman, James A. Burnham and William H. Beers, who agreed to maintain the property in repair and provide church services. Endowment Fund consisting of three bonds of $1,000 each American Telephone and Telegraph Company four per cent. collateral trust, and $11,364.08 in cash, all to be held and the income paid over for the support of the Church.

Church of the Holy Apostles, Borough of Manhattan, Endowment Fund. This fund was commenced in 1901, and the sums received, with accumulated interest, now amount to $20,000, and the income is paid to the Treasurer, to be used for general expenses of the Church.

Also two bonds of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway for $1,000 each, bearing five per cent. interest, the income to be paid to the Rector of the Church of the Holy Apostles, to be used for the Fresh Air Work of the parish, and a $1,000 bond of the City of New York, the income to be applied for the benefit of the Sunday-school of the parish, the fund to be known as the "John P. Collard Fund."

Another fund was commenced in 1907. The income received is to be added to principal sums until $30,000 is accumulated, after which the income is to be paid to the Treasurer for the general expenses of the Church. This fund at the present time, with accumulations of income, amounts to $24,849.16.

Fund of $5,000, held under the will of Elizabeth D. Eaton, the income to be paid to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of St. Clement's Church, New York, to be used to provide fitting and proper burial of the poor connected with that parish.

Fund of $10,000, received under the will of Mary Beach Tousey, the income to be paid to the Rector of St. Clement's Church, New York, to be expended in the employment of a competent and devout woman to care for the poor and sick in the neighborhood of said church.

Endowment Fund for the benefit of St. John's Church, Yonkers, invested in registered bond of the West Shore Railroad Company of the par value of $50,000, the income to be paid to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of St. John's Church in the city of Yonkers.

St. Andrew's Church, at Richmond, Staten Island. Received from Robert Fleming Crooks one three per cent. Northern Pacific general lien bond for $1,000, the income to be paid to the Rector or Treasurer of St. Andrew's Protestant Episcopal Church at Richmond, Staten Island, to be by him expended for the special care of the burial plot belonging to Robert Fleming Crooks in the churchyard and for the benefit of the church, with the hope that the Cross, Memorial Window and Tablet will be cared for in years to come.

St. Stephen's Church in the City of New York. Endowment Fund amounting to $87,500, the income to be paid to St. Stephen's Church, and in case that corporation shall cease to exist, then the Fund is to revert to Trinity Church Corporation.

The term of office of two of the Trustees, John T. Atterbury and William Bayard Cutting, have expired October 1, 1909, and two persons should be elected by the Convention for the term of four years to succeed them.

The Treasurer's report, submitted herewith, shows in his charge securities and cash of the estimated value of $833,879.47.

Gross income collected, $36,374.65.

The Treasurer's accounts have been examined and found correct by the Executive Committee, consisting of J. Pierpont Morgan and J. T. Atterbury.

Dated New York, November 8, 1909.

HENRY LEWIS MORRIS,
Secretary.

EDMUND L. BAYLIES, Treasurer.

NEW YORK, October 31, 1909.

The undersigned have examined the foregoing accounts and have found them correct, and have found the securities and cash as called for.

J. PIERPONT MORGAN,
J. T. ATTERBURY,
Auditing Committee.

NEW YORK, November 5, 1909.

Mr. John T. Atterbury and Mr. William Bayard Cutting were nominated as Trustees to succeed themselves and were duly elected.

The Rt. Rev. Frederick Courtney, D.D., moved that the Rules of Order be suspended to permit the Committee on Canons to present their report, which was adopted.

Bishop Courtney presented the following report of the Committee on Canons:

At the Diocesan Convention of 1908, a motion having been made for the reappointment of the members of the Sunday-school Commission, the Convention voted that the subject of their appointment be referred to the Committee on Canons to decide the status of the Commission.

The question as at first presented to the Committee appeared to be simply whether the members of the Commission should annually be appointed by the Bishop or be elected by the Convention. The Committee reported on the following day that they had learned that the Commission had been incorporated under the Membership Corporations Law of the State of New York, but had not made any provision by its by-laws or otherwise for the constitution of its membership by appointment by the Bishop or election by the Convention or otherwise to fix its relations to the Convention. Under the circumstances the Committee recommended that, as the Convention theretofore had elected the members of the Committee, it should do so that year. The Committee also suggested that they be instructed to prepare a new canon, fully defining the status of the Sunday-school Commission and its relations to the Convention and to report to the next Convention. This suggestion was adopted by the Convention.

The Committee on Canons have given careful consideration to the subject referred to them, and have been furnished with information by the Sunday-school Commission, including copies of canons in relation to Sunday-school Commissions, or to similar bodies known by other names, which have been adopted in several dioceses. They have examined the certificate of incorporation of "The New York Sunday-school Commission" and its constitution and by-laws. They find that it was incorporated under the laws of the State of New York in the year 1907, and that its objects as set forth are in substance the development and propaganda of modern methods of teaching as applied to the Sunday-school; the establishment and maintenance of schools for the training of teachers; the preparation and publication of books and periodicals; the maintenance of an exhibit and museum and of a library and of stores for the sale and distribution of Sunday-school supplies, books, pamphlets, Bibles, models, pictures, etc. It is provided that all profits from the sale of such articles shall be applied to philanthropic, charitable and religious purposes. The Sunday-school Commission does a large business in the sale of its supplies, publications, books, charts, etc., in this diocese and elsewhere throughout the United States.

The constitution of the New York Sunday-school Commission provides that its membership shall be composed of persons who are members of the Diocesan Convention and of persons who are not members of the Convention; and there is no limit as to the number of persons who may be members. The only references in the constitution to any association or connection with the Church in this diocese or elsewhere are provisions that the exhibit and museum shall be maintained in the diocese of New York, that the directors shall be members of the Diocesan Convention, and that the annual meeting of the corporation shall be held at the Diocesan House. A by-law provides that an annual report shall be presented to the Convention. The by-laws may be amended at any stated meeting of the directors. The corporation is entirely independent of any control upon the part of this Convention or of the ecclesiastical authority of this diocese; and it was organized without the knowledge or sanction of the Convention. It having been incorporated under the law of New York, the manner of electing directors and the control of the corporation are fixed by that law. Any canon, therefore, which might be adopted by the Convention, undertaking to govern the Sunday-school Commission, or in any way to control its proceedings, or even to provide for the appointment or election of its members, would be of no legal force, for the Convention has no authority over the corporation and its canon would carry no legal weight and have no binding effect.

The Committee have examined the canons adopted by other dioceses in relation to Sunday-school Commissions or similar bodies by whatever names known. In every instance the canons clearly show that these bodies derive their existence and powers solely from the action of the church in their respective dioceses and are in some manner under the direction of the Bishop or other ecclesiastical authority or the Diocesan Convention, or at least are organized under a plan set forth in the canon and susceptible of amendment or even of termination in the same manner. Consequently, however similar their purposes and work may be to those of the New York Sunday-school Commission, their status in relation to the Church in their respective dioceses is entirely different from that of the New York Sunday-school Commission.

The actual relation of this Convention to the New York Sunday-school Commission is one of great sympathy and interest, and naturally may from time to time be one of suggestion and assistance; but, in the opinion of the Committee, the New York Sunday-school Commission bears no such relation to the Convention as can be considered to be suitably or appropriately the subject of special definition by a canon, and there would be no advantage in undertaking to make such a definition.

In view of the action of various dioceses in making canonical provision for Sunday-school Commissions and of the wide range of the work of the New York Sunday-school Commission, far beyond the limits of the diocese of New York, it has occurred to the members of the Committee that it might be wise that a canonical provision upon this subject should be adopted by the General Convention, and they respectfully suggest this subject to the Deputies to the next General Convention for their consideration.

The Committee, in conclusion, recommend, in view of the foregoing, that hereafter the members of the New York Sunday-school Commission shall not be appointed by the Bishop nor be elected by the Convention, but that, in view of the great importance to the church in this diocese of the purposes and work of the Commission and of the great interest and sympathy of the Convention in them, the names of the members of the Sunday-school

Commission shall continue to be printed in the annual journal of the Convention and shall appear therein after the list of Special Committees; that an annual report shall, as heretofore, be received by the Convention, as provided by the rules of order; and that the Committee be discharged from further consideration of the subject.

Bishop Courtney moved the recommendations contained in the report, which were adopted.

Bishop Courtney presented for the Committee on Canons a report on the amendment to Canon IV.

Mr Charles H. Russell moved that the proposed amendment to Canon IV. be referred to the Committee on Canons, which was adopted.

The Secretary presented the following report:

Mr. Robert L. Harrison offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That Canon XIX., Sec. 5, be amended so that the surplus income from the Fund for the Relief of Aged and Infirm Clergymen may be applied to the needs of widows and orphans of clergymen and that the subject be referred to the Committee on Canons.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. George R. Van De Water, D.D,, moved that the Rules of Order be suspended to permit the report of the Special Committee on Parochial Obligations to be presented, which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Van De Water then presented the following report:

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON PAROCHIAL OBLIGATIONS.

Your Committee begs leave respectfully to report as follows:

The resolution under which it was appointed and which defines the scope of its duties is as follows:

Resolved, That a Committee of two clergymen and five laymen be appointed to consider the whole question of the financial obligations of this Diocese, and the most business-like method of distributing the same among the parishes and to report at the next Convention.

A. THE FACTS.

The financial obligations of the Diocese which are to be distributed among the parishes are of four kinds.

First: Those imposed by the General Canons of the Church.
Second: Those imposed by the Canons of the Diocese.

Third: Those imposed by Resolutions of the Diocesan Convention.

Fourth: Those which represent a moral claim upon the Church generally or locally, for the support of such Societies and objects of a religious or charitable nature as have been commended to the care of the Church or are commonly recognized as Institutions of the Church.

First: The one obligation specifically imposed by the General Canons of the Church is as follows:

Sec. 3 of Article VIII. of Canon 52—Of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society—reads thus: "Every Parish and Congregation of this Church shall make at least one annual offering for the missionary work of the Church conducted by the Board of Missions, and it shall be the duty of every minister in charge of a Parish or Congregation to inform himself and his Congregation of the needs of the work, as officially set forth."

Second: The obligations imposed by the Canons of the Diocese are as follows:

(1) Canon XV.—Of the Episcopal Fund—reads: "It shall be the duty of every Rector or Minister having charge of a Congregation in this Diocese to cause an annual collection or contribution to be made by said Congregation in aid of the fund for the support of the Episcopate. The payment of such annual assessment as shall be made under the authority of the Convention for supplying the deficiency therein shall be considered as in lieu of the collection enjoined."

(2) Canon XVI.—Of the Diocesan Fund—reads: "Every congregation of the Diocese shall pay to the Treasurer of the Convention, on or before the day of its annual meeting, such a per cent. on the amount of its current expenses as shall have been ordered by the preceding Convention, to provide for necessary expenses."

(3) Canon XVII.—Of Contributions for Church Objects—reads in Sec. 1: "In every Parish of the Diocese provision shall be made whereby its members may make offerings, by collections and otherwise, as often as the needs of the Church shall require, for the support of its objects, particularly its missionary work at home and abroad, the education of young men for the sacred Ministry, and those other religious and charitable objects which have been commended to the care of the Church by the General Convention, or by the Convention of the Diocese; and it shall be the duty of the Clergyman in charge to give due notice to the congregation of the time and purpose of such offerings, and also to call their attention to the importance and claims of the respective objects to which the offerings are to be applied." And in Sec. 3: "So far as relates to the offerings or contributions of Parishes within the City of New York, it is hereby declared that the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society and the Seamen's Church Institute of New York are to be reckoned among the Church charities for which provision is to be made, so that each Congregation in the City of New York shall make annual contributions to one of these societies.''

(4) Canon XVIII.—Of the Diocesan Missionary Society—provides in Sec. 3, Paragraph II., for an apportionment among the several Parishes, of the amount necessary to be raised for Missions in the Diocese, and in Sec. 4, Paragraph II., for a Schedule of Assessments upon the several Parishes, for the same purpose.

(5) Canon XIX.—Of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy—reads: "A collection shall be made annually in every congregation in this Diocese, on the annual Thanksgiving Day, or on Christmas Day, or on the Sunday next before or next following either of those days.''

Third: The obligations imposed by Resolutions of the Diocesan Convention include provision for the following:

The Sunday-school Commission.
The Social Service Commission.
The Fund for Inadequate Clerical Salaries.

Fourth: Societies and objects of a religious and Charitable nature which have been commended to the care of the Church by the General Convention are:

The General Clergy Relief Fund.
The American Church Building Fund.
The Church Temperance Society.
The American Church Institute for Negroes.
The Five Million Dollars Fund for Pensions.
And such others as may have received similar commendation.

Institutions within the Diocese which have a moral claim upon the Church, generally or locally, for support, are:

St. Luke's Home for Aged Women.
The Home for Old Men and Aged Couples.
The Home for Incurables.
The Sheltering Arms.
The House of Mercy.
The Hospital Saturday and Sunday Association.
And such others as may have an equal claim.

We have thus named the objects which impose upon the Church a financial obligation, either canonical or commendatory.

When we come to consider the methods of distributing these among the Parishes and to set forth some scheme by conforming to which a Parish will at least approach the fulfilment of its duty in this respect, the task is much more difficult. Few Parishes can do all that is required and expected. We believe that all are ready to do what they can.

Before proceeding to specific recommendations we venture to offer the following:

B. OBSERVATIONS.

First: Your Committee calls attention to the provisions of Canon XVII., Sec. 2, whereby "The Business of distributing all funds that may be raised under this canon for the Education of young men for Holy Orders is committed to the incorporated Society styled The Protestant Episcopal Society for Promoting Religion and Learning in the State of New York, which shall make a full annual report to the Convention of the applications of all moneys paid into its treasury under the provisions of this Canon, or by the Treasurer of the Convention from any source," and to the fact that there is no evidence that the provision of the Canon requiring contributions by the Parishes to this object is generally observed.

Second: Your Committee in its investigations has been impressed by the confusing situation which exists in respect to the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy of this Diocese, the offerings for which have for some time been used to provide for the relief of the Widows and Orphans of the Clergy. In spite of the fact that contributions for Aged and Infirm Clergy are not needed, it still remains a matter of canonical obligation to make them. Meanwhile the recommendation of the General Convention for contribution to the General Clergy Relief suffers by neglect.

Your Committee desires to call the attention of the Convention to these facts without making any recommendation.

Third: Your Committee respectfully calls the attention of the Convention to its creation some years since of a Sunday-school Commission, and an appropriation of a sum from the Treasury of the Diocese for its expenses and to the fact that subsequently the Convention, acting upon the statement of its Treasurer that such appropriation was not legal, the Diocesan Fund being applicable only to Canonical appropriations, declined to make further appropriation to the Commission; and that, despite this precedent, it last year appropriated by resolution some of the Diocesan Fund for the expenses of its newly-created Social Service Commission.

Your Committee has taken due note of the fact that by a resolution presented by the Rev. Dr. Carstensen and recorded on page 142 of the Journal of the last Diocesan Convention, it was requested to take into consideration the work of the Sunday-school Commission and to designate what sum, if any, should be appropriated to that cause, and to report to this Convention. In view, however, of the fact that by a resolution recorded on page 107 of the Journal of the last Diocesan Convention the Committee on Canons was instructed to prepare a new Canon fully defining the status of the Sunday-school Commission, and its relations to the Convention, your Committee feels that it should be relieved from taking any action under the resolution of the Rev. Dr. Carstensen.

Fourth: Your Committee calls attention to the fact that in the case of four of the above-mentioned objects, viz.: Domestic and Foreign Missions, the Episcopal Fund, the Diocesan Fund, and Diocesan Missions, the method of apportionment or assessment on the Parishes has been adopted, and is now in effect.

There is a radical distinction to be observed between an offering in which the amount to be given is left to the conscience and generosity of the givers and an apportionment or assessment in which the amount to be given is definitely prescribed.

Though there may be a theoretical distinction between an assessment and an apportionment, the effect of the present higher ideals of missionary obligation and of the present exigencies of missionary work has been practically to obliterate this distinction. In this connection, it may be further noted that in Canon XVII. of this Diocese, quoted above, the words apportionment and assessment are used interchangeably.

In any case, the amount of moral pressure now being exerted on the Parishes to meet their apportionments has made of the apportionment, to all intents and purposes, an assessment.

Your Committee is not prepared to recommend a change in this method, but is impressed with the necessity for the exercise of the greatest caution in encouraging any further extension of it, and urges the most careful attention of the Committee on Apportionment to the securing of the maximum degree of equity in the Parochial apportionments, with due regard in every case to the situation of a Parish in respect to debt or endowment.

The sense of an inequitable distribution of the burden, together with the urgency of the demand that the full sum apportioned to each Parish shall be given, tends, in some cases at least, to produce irritation and to decrease rather than increase the total offering.

Fifth: Your Committee is impressed by the fact that there is much confusion of mind among the Clergy and the people of the Diocese regarding the financial relations between the respective Archdeaconries and the Diocesan Board of Managers, also regarding the financial relations between the Archdeaconry of New York and the City Mission Society, and also regarding the financial obligations of the Parishes to these bodies.

Your Committee has no specific recommendation to make on this matter, but urges upon the Convention that some steps be taken to clarify this situation.

C. Recommendations.

First: In the interest of simplicity, your Committee recommends that the Assessments for the Episcopal Fund and the Diocesan Fund be consolidated, so that a single assessment upon each Parish annually shall cover both; and further, that this assessment be based on the current expenses of the Parish, as the same are defined by the resolution of Dr. Manning adopted at the last Convention and recorded on page 138 of the Journal; and, further, that in levying this assessment on the respective Parishes, a sliding scale be adopted similar to that heretofore used in making the Missionary Apportionments.

Second: Your Committee recommends that there be appointed by the Bishop a Standing Committee on Finance consisting of two clergymen and three laymen, whose duties shall be:

(1) To maintain general supervision of the financial affairs of the Convention, and to secure simplicity in the collection and disbursement of all funds, and co-operation in all financial affairs between the various Trusts and Boards of the Convention.

(2) To apportion among the Parishes of the Diocese (a) the amounts required to be raised for the Episcopal Fund and the Diocesan Fund; (b) the apportionment of the Diocese for Domestic and Foreign Missions; (c) the amount required to be raised for Diocesan Missions.

In making these apportionments the Committee shall adopt annually, at a specific time, a classification of the Parishes on the basis of their current expenses as defined by the Convention, with a sliding scale of percentages. Before this classification and the apportionments made under it shall be final, an opportunity shall be offered for the presentation by any Parish, within thirty days, of a protest or a request for the adjustment of its apportionment, and a time and place shall be announced for the hearing of such protests or requests. (3) To consider and report on every motion or resolution which calls for a contribution by or an assessment upon Parishes before final action upon the same is taken by the Convention.

Third: To the end that every Rector or Minister of a Parish may intelligently comprehend his duty, and, after taking counsel with his Vestry, may instruct his people what to do to fulfil their obligations, your Committee recommends that there be printed on the inside page of the cover of the Journal of the Convention the following list of objects in the order of their relative importance, under the caption:

OBJECTS FOR ANNUAL CONTRIBUTIONS FROM CHURCHES IN THE DIOCESE.

I. For All Parishes.

1. The Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society.
2. The Episcopal Fund.
3. The Diocesan Fund.
4. Diocesan Missions.
5. The Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund.
6. The Society for Promoting Religion and Learning.
7. The Fund for Inadequate Clerical Salaries.
8. The General Clergy Relief Fund.
9. The American Church Building Fund.
10. The American Church Institute for Negroes.
11. The Church Temperance Society.

II. Additional for New York City Parishes.

1. The City Mission Society.
2. The Seamen's Church Institute.

D. RESOLUTIONS.

Your Committee presents the following resolutions:

Number I. Resolved, That the first and second of the above recommendations be referred to the Committee on Canons with instructions to report a Canon or Rule of Order providing for the appointment of such a Standing Committee on Finance, and defining its duties, and to report such further Canonical changes and legislative action as may be necessary to carry the recommendations into effect.

Number II. Resolved, That the Secretary of the Diocese be instructed to carry out the third of the above recommendations.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE R. VAN DE WATER, GEORGE ALEXANDER STRONG,
CHARLES F. HOFFMAN, HOWARD TOWNSEND,
CLEMENT A. GRISCOM, JR., FRANCIS G. LANDON, AARON S. THOMAS.

The Rev. Dr. Van De Water moved the appended resolutions.

The Rev. J. Lewis Parks, D.D., moved as a substitute for the first resolution that the Report be referred to the Committee on Canons, which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Van De Water moved the second resolution, which was adopted.

CLERICAL VOTE FOR SECRETARY OF CONVENTION.

Rev. R. B. Kimber	95
Rev. R. V. K. Harris	73

C. A. ASHMEAD, JOHN P. FAURE, } Inspectors.

LAY VOTE.

Rev. R. B. Kimber	52
Rev. R. V. K. Harris	43

R. M. BERKELEY, E. L. E. PHIPPS, } Inspectors.

And the Chair announced that the Rev. Mr. Kimber, having received a concurrent majority of both orders, was duly elected Secretary of Convention.

The Rev. H. P. Nichols, D.D., moved that the elections be made the special order of business after the report of the New York City Mission Society, which was adopted.

The Rev. Homer F. Taylor moved that a vote of thanks be extended to the Rev. R. V. K. Harris for his services as acting Secretary, which was adopted.

The Rev. James E. Freeman moved that a Committee be appointed to prepare a proper minute on the death of the Rev. Thomas R. Harris, D.D., which was adopted.

The Chair appointed as such Committee:

The Rev. James E. Freeman.
The Rev. G. A. Carstensen, Ph.D.
The Rev. Henry M. Barbour.

MINUTE.

The Rev. Thomas R. Harris, D.D., was for over a quarter of a century the efficient secretary of this Diocese, and his death removes one of the ablest and most conscientious officers the Church has enlisted in her service. A man of profound learning, with an extensive knowledge of the Church's canons, and with a punctilious regard for the niceties of the duties of his important office, he discharged its obligations with singular fidelity and ability. The Diocese of New York, in recognition of his remarkable service, places upon record its deep sense of loss and extends to his wife and family its tender and deep sympathy in their great sorrow.

JAMES E. FREEMAN.
GUSTAV A. CARSTENSEN.
HENRY M. BARBOUR.

On motion, a recess for one hour was taken.

The Convention reassembled at half past two o'clock.

The Rev. Dr. J. Lewis Parks, D.D., offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Convention of the Diocese of New York that the adoption of the amendment to Article II. of the Constitution of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States of America, by the addition of a section permitting the Consecration of Suffragan Bishops, which amendment was proposed in the General Convention of 1907, and by a resolve thereof has been made known to the Convention of this Diocese, would be to the advantage of the Church and the promotion of her interests.

Resolved, That the Deputies of the General Convention of 1910 be, and they hereby are, requested to lay the foregoing resolutions before that Convention.

and moved that they be made the special order of business as soon as the elections are begun, which was adopted.

The Rev. H. R. Hulse moved that that portion of the Bishop's address which referred to the Cathedral be referred to a special Committee of three clergymen and three laymen to report to-morrow, which was adopted.

The Chair appointed as such Committee:

The Rev. E. M. Stires, D.D.	Charles V. Hoffman.
The Rev. John P. Peters, D.D.	Mr. George Zabriskie.
The Rev. H. R. Hulse.	Mr. R. Fulton Cutting.

The Secretary announced that he had appointed as Assistant Secretaries:

The Rev. H. R. Hulse.

The Rev. H. R. Fell.	The Rev. F. H. Church.

The Rev. R. B. Kimber presented the Report of the City Mission Society.

THE SEVENTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE NEW YORK PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CITY MISSION SOCIETY.

The year just closing, the seventy-eighth of the Society's ministry to the city, is marked by a more earnest purpose to bring Christ to the afflicted souls of our people, as the remedy for their ills, their sorrows and their sins, as their very present help in time of trouble.

Our staff has numbered 23 clergymen, 3 deaconesses, 2 lay readers and 34 lay workers, besides a dozen others filling minor salaried positions.

In our large field of our own institutions, and the institutions of the city and State within our borders, these faithful ones have ministered with the following results, as far as such work can be tabulated, during the Convention year of November 1, 1908, to November 1, 1909.

Number of Places where Services are Held	36
Number of Services	3,914
Holy Communion (Public, 1,204; Private, 2,563)	3,767
Communions Made	12,591
Communicants Registered	1,320
Baptisms (Infants, 1,420; Adults, 598)	2,018
Confirmed	102
Marriages	106
Burials	6,001
Sunday-school Teachers	56
" Pupils	1,160
Industrial School Teachers	23
" Pupils	370
Visits made by the Staff	336,994

This is a larger number of official acts than we have ever reported for a similar period. The number of baptisms, which may be taken as the best measure of the work, though it expresses but few phases of it, is larger by twenty per cent. than for the same period last year, and is exceeded by only four dioceses, New York, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and Long Island, and approximately equalled by but three others in the whole Church. It is one-third of the number reported by this diocese last year, and one-thirtieth of those reported by the Church in America.

No Society has a more faithful staff of workers, and it is not only my privilege, but my duty, to make this public acknowledgment of their devotion, their readiness " in season and out of season," their entire forgetfulness of self in their interest in the work. It is not the usual clerical round of duty, where Sunday with its many services is the chief day of the week, but as the figures I have read you show, " the trivial round, the common task," is from Sunday morning to Saturday night, to minister to the dying, the sick and the sinning, visiting, counselling, baptizing and administering the Holy Communion to those who look to us for comfort and help.

The Treasurer's books show the Society's income to have been as follows, for the year ending October 15, 1909:

Income applicable to General Expenses	$51,661 72
Fresh Air Fund	9,025 55
Festival Fund	2,920 00
Special Objects	2,319 05
Mission News, Subscriptions, etc	366 62
	$66,292 94

This compares most favorably with the contributions of former years, being in excess of the amounts previously reported.

Our Chapel work has prospered. At the Chapel of the Messiah special emphasis has been laid upon the proper instruction of the very young, of whom there are great numbers in the neighborhood, and the kindergarten and primary departments of the Sunday-school are overcrowded, and promise well for the future.

The Italian work at San Salvatore has taken a new start. The congregations are larger, the Sunday-school the largest we have had, and a daily kindergarten has been provided by the ladies who are interested in our work there.

St. Cyprian's, for the colored people, has not ceased to grow in numbers and influence since the day the first session of the Sunday-school was held in a tenement room, with scarcely a dozen children.

St. Barnabas' House, after two score years of service, still has its doors open at any hour of the day or night, for the woman and her child who, regardless of race, creed or color, need the shelter and the help the House can give, while the daughter house, God's Providence, ministers in its day work, by nursery and otherwise, to the children of many nations dwelling in the polyglot neighborhood in which it is situated.

The Fresh Air Fund the past summer was nearly eighteen hundred dollars more than it has ever been, and we have cared for, at the Sarah Schermerhorn House, and Camp Bleecker, at Milford, Connecticut, 1,156 boys and girls, mothers and babies, giving them 17,913 days' board during the recent season, at an approximate cost of forty-five cents per day per individual.

It is our privilege to again acknowledge the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hull Browning, who have, for the sixteenth successive year, placed the Bethmore Home, at Tenafly, New Jersey, at our disposal for the little children, meeting the entire expense of its maintenance, as well as adding many improvements and comforts.

The unique work of the Society is done in the public institutions, from the meeting of the immigrant at Ellis Island to the burial of the unclaimed dead in the Potter's Field at Hart's Island in the Sound.

In no other city we know are the Church's clergy officially received in every institution as the sole ministers to the Protestant inmates, and where, as in our case, these clergy are all chaplains of one central Society, the work can be systematized and time and labor saved as in no other way. The institutions have gladly recognized the efficiency of this service, materially as well as spiritually, for the chaplain fills a place taken by no other official. It is he who seeks out and notifies the friends and relatives of the patient, who makes the arrangements for his burial, provides the grave and reads the service. It is he who reunites families, and restores the prodigal, as in a recent case bringing a brother from England to assure the erring one of forgiveness and the aged mother's love before he passed away.

There are two great problems facing us, for which we ask your attention and help. Several years ago the Bishop, in his address to this Convention, spoke of the need of a Chapel building at the Metropolitan Hospital, the largest in this country. Because of the great number of tubercular patients there who are not confined to their wards it is possible to gather at the daily services a larger attendance than in similar institutions. The Chapel was not provided, and the opportunity is lost, for the scheme of new buildings has been made, many of them are under construction, and no available site is left. This should be a lesson well remembered, as I present to you the problem of an increase of our plant. The Manhattan State Hospital on Ward's Island, with its more than 4,000 insane, is served by our chaplain. The Roman Catholics have a suitable church building—we worship in the Amusement Hall. Here, as nowhere else, should a proper sanctuary be provided, that these people of disordered mind may not be confused by a service of Holy Communion and a minstrel show being held on the same platform on succeeding days.

At Hart's Island, with its Branch Workhouse and the Reformatory for first offenders, our services are held in any room that may be at our disposal. A small fund is in hand for a church, the site has been provided, the plans drawn, the foundations laid—and we have had to stop.

The work of St. Cyprian's Chapel on 63d Street is being markedly handicapped because the buildings have not grown with the work. You have been told of the purchase of the land, and the erection of the first story and basement of a Parish House, the beginning of a plant that contemplates a well-equipped parish building connected with the church to be built beside it. It has been suggested that parishes or individuals might make themselves responsible for one floor of the building, while a larger gift would provide the church edifice; but we are still waiting for such donors, and as we wait the work is imperilled.

The other problem is the increasing need of greater support for the carrying on of the work not only as it is, but as it ought to be, growing as the city grows.

To-day's work, large as it is, and broad as it is, is but a minimum, and is no measure of this Church's opportunity or ability.

A year ago I told you that the annual difference between income and expenditure was alarming us, and that unless larger contributions were made we should have to curtail beyond what had been done. Some months ago a consecrated layman, "May his tribe increase!" gave, through the Bishop of the diocese, $20,000, the amount estimated as the deficit for the coming year, on the condition that the work be not decreased in any way, and that the gift should be anonymous.

If your contributions are normal we can work through the coming year with an easy mind, but what of the future? Will others come forward, year by year, to bear this larger burden?

Do you, as churchmen, looking with greater minds beyond your parish bounds, appreciate the privilege the Church alone has in this field—that here as nowhere else she is making good her claim to be the American Church? Is your love of humanity, for whom the Christ gave His life, so deep that you cannot see the ministry to these thousands without the fold take one backward step, refuse one call for such service in His name?

If you answer "yes," as you must answer if worthy of the name we bear, we can be well assured of your increased interest, prayers and gifts, and with renewed courage take up again the task before us, and go on "from strength to strength."

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT B. KIMBER,
Superintendent.

NEW YORK, November 9, 1909.

The Rev. F. M. Clendenin, D.D., offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That this Convention has listened with deep interest and sympathy to the Report of the City Mission Society, as presented by Canon Kimber, and hereby pledges its continued support of this sacred work.

Which was adopted.

Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, In view of the burdens imposed upon our honored Bishop, and in view of the fact that no adequate relief can be had for the period of at least one year; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Bishop of the Diocese is requested by this Convention to seek for and obtain such assistance from his brethren of the American Church as he may from time to time deem desirable.

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Diocesan Fund be directed to pay the expense of such assistance from the said fund.

Which was adopted.

The Convention took a recess.

The Chair announced the polls closed, and the Convention reassembled at 4.15 o'clock.

The Rev. J. Lewis Parks, D.D., called for the special order of business, the consideration of the resolutions on Suffragan Bishops.

The Rev. Charles Mercer Hall moved to lay the resolution on the table, which was not adopted.

The Rt. Rev. Dr. Courtney moved that the Convention adjourn, which was not adopted.

The Rev. George H. Toop offered the following substitute resolution:

Resolved, That a committee be appointed to consider the whole matter of that part of the Bishop's Address which relates to the division of the Diocese. This committee to consider the lines of severance, the matter of endowment for that part to be cut off, and such other matters as pertain thereto, and to report to a special Convention to be called by the Bishop.

Which was not adopted.

The Rev. Dr. J. Lewis Parks offered the first of the original resolutions, which was adopted.

He then offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Secretary of this Convention send a copy of the foregoing resolution to the Secretary of the House of Deputies of the General Convention of 1910.

Which was adopted.

The Convention received the following reports of inspectors of election:

And the Chair announced that the following persons, having received a concurrent majority of both orders, were duly elected Provisional Deputies to the General Convention.

The Rev. Leighton Parks, D.D.	Mr. Stephen Baker.
The Rev. E. M. Stires, D.D.	Mr. Everett P. Wheeler.
	Mr. A. C. Zabriskie.

The Rev. W. M. Grosvenor, D.D., offered the following resolution:

"WHEREAS, in a Diocese as large as New York, it is desirable that there be a wide distribution of official positions, so that as many as possible of the clergy and laity shall have a responsible share in the conduct of Diocesan affairs, therefore, be it

Resolved, That a Committee of six clergymen and five laymen be appointed by the Bishop to consider this whole question and to report to the next Diocesan Convention.

Which was adopted.

The Chair appointed as such Committee:

Rev. J. Lewis Parks, D.D.	Mr. Seth Low.
Rev. L. W. Batten, D.D.	Mr. Lewis S. Chanler.
Rev. Hugh Birckhead.	Mr. John K. Seague.
Rev. C. E. Brugler.	Mr. C. H. Russell.
Rev. F. B. Van Kleeck, D.D.	Mr. Joseph Baldwin.
Rev. A. G. Cummins, Litt.D.

The Rev. M. H. Gates moved that a recess be taken while the ballots were being cast, which was adopted.

The Rev. Leighton Parks, D.D., moved that the Rules of Order be suspended to permit the report of the Committee on Inadequate Salaries of Clergymen to be presented, which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Leighton Parks presented the following report:

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON INADEQUATE SALARIES OF THE CLERGY.

The Committee on Inadequate Salaries of the Clergy begs leave respectfully to report as follows:

In response to the resolution passed by the Diocesan Convention of 1908, 108 churches contributed to the Sustentation Fund. As a consequence, there was received $6,560, which, with interest on same, enabled the Trustees of the Parochial Fund to distribute a total of $6,563, leaving on hand a balance of $44.

Twenty of the clergy were assisted with sums ranging from $134 to $600, and the amount collected enabled the Committee to comply with all demands after discarding applications which did not come within the scope of the Convention's resolutions.

For example, there seemed to be a widespread impression that parishes might apply to the Trustees of the Parochial Fund for aid; but the resolution provided that only a parish which was prepared to increase the salary of its minister by one-third could receive aid from this fund. Whether that was a wise provision and whether the scope of the work should be enlarged is for the Convention to decide. But in the opinion of your Committee this would establish a precedent which might lead to serious complications. In the meantime the Committee rejoices in the response of the Church to this urgent and pathetic appeal and urges upon the parishes to continue the good work so well begun.

LEIGHTON PARKS.
HUGH BIRCKHEAD.
CHAS. F. HOFFMAN.

The Rev. Dr. Leighton Parks moved that the Committee be continued, which was adopted.

Mr. Andrew C. Zabriskie moved that the Rules of Order be suspended to permit the report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund to be presented.

Mr. Andrew C. Zabriskie presented the following report:

Report

OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE PAROCHIAL FUND OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE DIOCESE OF NEW YORK.

The Trustees of the Parochial Fund respectfully report that during the conventional year 1908-09 they have held six meetings.

The receipts from investments at their disposal have enabled them to help nine faithful clergymen of this diocese, who are settled in parochial work and doing their duty with all diligence and zeal, but whose incomes derived from their parishes are inadequate for a decent support. It gives much pleasure to the members of the Board to be able to report to the Convention that during the past year they have been able to pass favorably upon every application received by them for assistance from the income of the funds at their disposal.

From the accumulated interest in the hands of the Board $6,000 has been appropriated for the payments on and the cancelling of mortgages on rectories within the city limits of New York.

A committee appointed by the Board of Trustees made a distribution of the Sustentation Fund in accordance with the term of the resolution adopted by the Convention of a year ago. The Board of Trustees of the Parochial Fund most urgently ask the parishes to meet their obligations to the diocese by making the annual offering for this purpose. In many instances the salaries of Rectors and Missionaries are below the standard determined upon by the Diocesan Convention. The Committee has made as equitable a distribution of the fund as was within their power under the wording of the resolution passed by the Convention of a year ago.

The annual report of the Treasurer is herewith appended.

The terms of office of Mr. Andrew C. Zabriskie and Mr. William Pierson Hamilton expired October 1, 1909.

There is a vacancy in the Board of Trustees, Mr. Anson R. Flower having died during the conventional year.

The Trustees suggest that the Secretary of the Convention be instructed to cast a ballot for these gentlemen to succeed themselves, and also a ballot for Mr. R. Fulton Cutting to fill the unexpired term of the late A. R. Flower.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM JAY,
President.

WALTER THOMPSON, Secretary.

NEW YORK, October 15, 1909.

GEORGE A. CROCKER, JR, Treas.

Mr. Andrew C. Zabriskie and Mr. William Pierson Hamilton were elected Trustees to succeed themselves, and Mr. R. Fulton Cutting was elected a Trustee to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Anson R. Flower; the Secretary casting one ballot on motion of the Convention.

The Rt. Rev. Frederick Courtney, D.D., moved that the Rules of Order be suspended to permit the Report of the Committee on Canons to be presented, which was adopted.

Bishop Courtney presented the following Report:

At the Convention of 1908 the following resolution was offered and referred to the Committee on Canons:

Resolved, That Canon IV. be amended by adding a section, Sec. 4, as follows: "No Church shall be admitted into union with the Church in this Diocese which is not self-supporting."

The Committee, having considered the proposed amendment, reported to the Convention that they approved of the principle embodied in it, but considered that the term "self-supporting" required definition, and therefore proposed certain other amendments to the Canon.

In the interval, however, between the introduction of the above resolution and the report of the Committee, the Convention had adopted a resolution, offered by the Committee on Inadequate Clerical Salaries, to the effect that in the opinion of the Convention the minimum salary of a Rector or Minister-in-charge of a church or chapel should be $1,500, or $1,200 and a suitable residence, for a married clergyman; and $1,200 for an unmarried clergyman.

Upon the presentation of the Committee's report a further amendment was proposed, and the matter was recommitted to the Committee on Canons to report later; and subsequently the Convention further

Resolved, That in view of the report and recommendation of the Committee on Inadequate Salaries of the Clergy, the resolution amending the Canon on the subject of the admission of Parishes into union with the Convention be recommitted to the Committee on Canons for consideration and report at the next Convention.

The Committee on Canons having further considered the subject, now offer the following amendments to the Canons, and move their reference to the Committee, viz.:

That Canon IV. ("Of the Admission of a Church as a Parish into Union with the Church in this Diocese and Maintaining such Union") be amended as follows:

(a) In Section 1, first paragraph, after the words "and all the rules, orders and regulations of the Convention" insert the following: "and to pay to its rector, so long as it shall remain in union with the Convention, in regular monthly or quarterly instalments, a salary of not less than $1,500 per annum, or a salary of not less than $1,200 per annum, and to provide for him a suitable residence or a reasonable allowance in lieu thereof."

(b) In Section 1, second paragraph, at the end add the following: "and also by a certificate executed by authority of the Vestry or of the meeting, under the hand of the Clerk of the Vestry or of the Secretary of the meeting, authenticated by the seal of the corporation, to the effect that such church or congregation is willing and able among its own members to raise at least $1,500 per annum for the salary of its rector, or to raise at least $1,200 per annum for his salary and to provide for him a suitable residence or a reasonable allowance in lieu thereof."

The two recommendations amending Canon IV. were adopted.

The Rt. Rev. Frederick Courtney, D.D., presented the following Report of the Committee on Canons:

November 6, 1909.

To the Committee on Canons of the Diocesan Convention.

Sirs: The undersigned have been appointed a Committee by the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York, to confer with your Honorable Committee with reference to the proposed change in Section 5 of Canon XIX., relating to the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen.

In its report to the Diocesan Convention in the year 1907, the corporation made the following statement and recommendation:

"The Trustees further report that while there is a surplus of income from the Fund for the Relief of Aged and Infirm Clergymen, many applications made for relief for widows and children are of necessity denied, for the reason that the annual collection devoted to this purpose, and other income received on account of this fund, are insufficient to meet the proper demands upon it. During the past year the income of the Widows' and Children's Fund was insufficient to pay their stipends, and the Trustees transferred the sum of $1,700 from the income account of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund to the Widows' and Children's Fund, as is shown by this report. The Trustees respectfully request the Convention to ratify and approve this transfer. As conditions which made this transfer necessary will again arise, the Trustees respectfully urge that Section 5 of Canon XIX. be amended as indicated in the following resolution:

"'Resolved, That Section 5 of Canon XIX., entitled 'Of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy,' be, and the same hereby is, amended by striking out the period after the last word of said section, and adding the following words: 'Except that the Trustees may at any time in their discretion apply the surplus income from the Fund for the Relief of Aged and Infirm Clergymen to the needs of the beneficiaries of the Fund for the Widows and Children of Deceased Clergymen of the Diocese.'"

This resolution was referred to your Committee, which reported as follows:

"Your Committee having carefully considered the resolution referred to them relating to the Funds for the Relief of Aged and Infirm Clergymen, and for Widows and Children of Deceased Clergymen of the Diocese, and that suggesting a change of name for the former of these funds. The Committee are not ready to report to this Convention upon these matters, for the reason that they wish first to be informed as to the Trusts in which these funds are held, and therefore request that the subjects be left in their hands to inquire and report regarding them at the next meeting of the Convention."

The questions were recommitted to your Committee to report the following year.

In the report of the Corporation for the year 1908, presented at the last Diocesan Convention, the Trustees again recommended the adoption of the proposed amendments, but no action was taken. In compliance with your wish for further information we make the following statement relating to our Charter and the objects for which the Corporation was formed:

The Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York is a corporation incorporated by the Act of the Legislature of the State of New York in the year 1853 (Chapter 560 of the Laws of 1853). Section 2 of said Act is as follows:

"The objects of the said Corporation shall be the management and care of the fund now provided, together with that which may hereafter be contributed or acquired, and any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof for the relief of Aged and Infirm Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York and the appropriation of the same to that purpose according to the directions to be from time to time given by the Convention of said Church in said Diocese."

In the year 1887 this Act was amended by Chapter 15 of the Laws of that year. There was added to the foregoing section two other subdivisions as follows:

"Second. The management and care of a fund to be hereafter contributed or acquired, and of any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof, to be used for the relief of widows and children of deceased clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York, and the appropriation of the same to that purpose according to the directions to be from time to time given by the convention of said church in said diocese."

"Third. The management and care of a fund to be hereafter contributed or acquired and of any accumulation arising from the investment thereof, to be used to facilitate the effecting of life insurance by clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York, and the appropriation of the same to that purpose according to the directions to be from time to time given by the convention of said church in said diocese."

The Act was again amended in the year 1899 by Chapter 561 of the Laws of 1899 by striking out that part of Section 2 which provided for the fund for facilitating the effecting of life insurance by clergymen. The objects of the corporation are now, therefore, the management and care of two funds, one for the relief of Aged and Infirm Clergymen (hereafter called the Clergymen's Fund) and one for the relief of Widows and Children of Deceased Clergymen (hereafter called the Widows' Fund).

By the Canon which was adopted after the amendment in the year 1887, the Treasurer was directed to keep a separate account of each of the Funds, and all moneys not wanted for current use were directed to be invested and held in trust by the Trustees.

Pursuant to the Canon as it now stands, all donations and legacies received by the Corporation in the absence of special designation are equally divided between the two funds, and the annual collection, in the absence of any special designation, is applied to the Fund for Widows and Children of Deceased Clergymen. So far as we are aware, all donations and bequests to the corporation have been unrestricted, excepting a legacy of $10,000, as to which the interest only could be used for current needs.

The accumulated capital of the Widows' Fund is only $13,800, while that of the Clergymen's Fund is $245,000. The Widows' Fund capital has been of necessity drawn upon to pay stipends, while the Clergymen's Fund capital has grown, in part through investment of surplus income, which the Trustees could not use for the widows of clergymen even to continue stipends of deceased clergymen who had been beneficiaries, to their widows. This has worked hardship in several instances. At present eighteen benficiaries of the Clergymen's Fund are receiving an average of $350 a year, and forty beneficiaries of the Widows' Fund $200.

Assuming that church collections for the Fund will at least be maintained (which is essential), the annual surplus income of the Clergymen's Fund ($3,600 average for three years past) would suffice to enable the Trustees to restore the stipends of the Widows' Fund beneficiaries to the full amounts originally voted. For many years these beneficiaries have been receiving only seventy-five per cent. of their allowances. Furthermore, the surplus income of the Clergymen's Fund might suffice to aid certain applicants (some of them in great need) who are now asking help from the Widows' Fund.

We submit to your Honorable Committee that the question of the disposal of the surplus income of the Clergymen's Fund is entirely within the power of the Convention, and the disposition here recommended would not contravene the terms of the act incorporating the Trustees.

After the passage of the Act of 1887 it was plainly within the authority of the Convention to direct that all legacies and donations, in the absence of any direction to the contrary, be added to the Widows' Fund. Instead of doing this, it directed that they be equally divided between the Funds. The fact that the Convention has directed a separation of the Funds has not affected either with a trust so as to deprive the Convention of complete control over them. We believe, therefore, that the Convention has ample power in the matter, that the facts show that the proposed amendment is expedient, and we respectfully urge your Honorable Committee to advocate the amendment of the Canon as indicated by the proposed resolution.

Respectfully submitted,
ROBERT B. DODSON,
ROBERT W. B. ELLIOTT, Committee.

FUND FOR AGED AND INFIRM CLERGYMEN.

Under the Act of Incorporation as amended by Chapter 561 of the Laws of 1899, the objects of the Corporation are declared to be the management and care of two funds "now provided, together with that which may hereafter be contributed or acquired, and of any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof." One of them " for the relief of aged and infirm clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York and the appropriation of the same to that purpose,'' and the other '' for the relief of widows and children of deceased clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York, and the appropriation of the same to that purpose,'' and in each case the appropriation is directed to be made '' according to the directions to be from time to time given by the Convention of said church in said diocese.''

The act does not authorize the diversion either of the capital or of the income of either fund from its specific object to the object intended to be promoted by the other fund, and the convention of the diocese has no power to authorize a diversion which in substance appears to be forbidden by the law. The power of the Convention with regard to both funds is to give directions from time to time how each fund shall be appropriated to the purpose for which it is limited.

It is stated in the memorial of the trustees of the fund that, so far as they are aware, all donations and bequests to the corporation have been unrestricted, excepting a legacy of $10,000, as to which the interest only could be used for current needs.

With respect to donations and legacies received by the treasurer in the absence of the special designation of one or other of the said funds, the Convention has directed in Canon XIX., Section 5, that they shall be equally divided between the two funds. This direction may at any time be altered by the Convention. In view of the situation disclosed by the memorial it would be competent for the Convention now to take such order that all donations and legacies hereafter received by the treasurer, without special designation, might, in the discretion of the trustees, be added to the fund for the relief of widows and children of deceased clergymen, but it would also be prudent to reserve to the Convention the right to make a different appropriation of any particular undesignated gift or legacy.

The Committee on Canons recommend that the third sentence of Canon XIX., Section 5, be amended so as to read as follows: '' All donations and legacies received by said treasurer shall, in the absence of the special designation of one or other of the said funds, be applied as the trustees in their discretion may determine, subject, however, to any other or different appropriation by the Convention of any particular gift or legacy.''

On motion of Bishop Courtney the recommendation amending Canon XIX. was adopted.

With respect to the proposed Canon, introduced by the Rev. James E. Freeman, for the appointment of a Chancellor who shall be the legal advisor of the Bishop and of the Convention, the Committee received the proposed Canon so late that they have not been able to give to the matter such deliberate consideration as would enable them at this time to advise the Convention to adopt it.

The Committee request time for further consideration.

Which was granted.

The Committee have been unable for lack of time and of sufficient data to report on the recommendation of the Committee on Parochial Obligations, and request that the subject be recommitted to them to report at the next Convention.

Which was granted.

Bishop Courtney offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That a Special Committee, consisting of two Clergymen and four Laymen, to be known as the Committee of Finance, be appointed by the Bishop, to maintain general supervision of the financial affairs of the Convention, and to endeavor to secure simplicity in the collection and disbursement of all funds and co-operation in all financial affairs between the various Trusts and Boards of the Convention; and to this end to formulate a financial plan for the administration of all funds which are subject to the action of the Convention and to confer with the Committee on Canons upon the subject, and to report their recommendations to the next Convention.

Which was adopted.

The Chair appointed as such Committee:

Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan.
Mr. Francis Lynde Stetson.
Mr. Henry Lewis Morris.
Mr. Stephen Baker.
Rev. Geo. R. Van De Water, D.D.
Rev. Geo. Alex. Strong.

The Rev. H. R. Hulse moved that the Report of the Committee on the Cathedral be made the special order of business for 3 P.M. to-day, which was adopted.

The Rev. M. H. Gates presented the following report:

Report

OF THE NEW YORK TRAINING SCHOOL FOR DEACONESSES.

The report of the New York Training School for Deaconesses for the year 1909 could open in but one way—with an expression of profound sorrow for the loss of its beloved Founder and Warden.

The Rev. Dr. Huntington, whose efforts for the revival of the Order of Deaconesses led him to found the school, maintained an unfailing interest in its welfare until the very close of his life on earth. It will be the constant aim of the Trustees and Faculty of the School to maintain the standard and cherish the ideal which he established.

The school has begun its year with an interesting and promising body of students, twenty-eight in all, on its roll. Many of these young women are preparing for parish and domestic mission work, while others are hoping to go to the Orient.

The Bishops of Shanghai, Tokyo and Kyoto have each sent candidates to be trained for their work, and we hope there are among the other students those who will heed the urgent call from Hankow and volunteer for that field.

We regret to report the following resignations from the Faculty: The Rev. H. M. Hopkins, Ph.D., The Rev. M. Bowyer Stewart and Miss Laura G. Marsh. We welcome the return of the Rev. Reginald Heber Starr, D.D., to the Faculty. The Rev. Arthur Prince Hunt, The Rev. W. H. P. Hatch, Ph.D., and the Rev. Thomas Davies, of the General Theological Seminary Faculty, have also become members of this faculty. Of these new instructors the Rev. Messrs. Hunt and Davies were appointed in the spring by our late Warden. The Rev. Dr. Hatch has kindly undertaken, at the last moment, to fill a post unexpectedly left vacant.

Two new courses entered upon experimentally last year—i.e., the course of lectures and clinic experience provided through the great generosity of the physicians of St. Bartholomew's Clinic—and the course at the School of Philanthropy in methods of dealing with the problems of the poor, have proved to be most desirable, they are this year made permanent features of our course.

Eleven women were graduated last year—of this numbr seven have been set apart to the Office of Deaconess and have gone to the following fields: Two to Tokyo, one to the mountain people of Virginia, one to St. John's Parish, Troy, N. Y., the remaining three are in New York City. Of the four who have not been set apart two are detained at home, one is engaged in work among miners in the Diocese of Springfield, and one is in St. John's Parish, Waterbury, Conn. Two students who entered the school last year for partial training have gone, one to Hankow and one to Valle Crucis, N. C.

Graduate Deaconesses of the school recently have received important appointments. The Training Schools for Native Women Missionaries in the three districts of Shanghai, Hankow and Tokyo are now in the hands of Deaconesses who were trained in the New York School. No stronger statement could be made of the high standard of intellectual work always required by Dr. Huntington than the above appointments. In these days of awakening in the Orient, women as well as men are demanding thorough training there. The Year-book of the School at Sendai, Tokyo, reports courses in Theology, Liturgies, Church History and Bible study modelled upon the New York course.

The School has prospered during its short past. With the opening of the new Training House now being built in the Cathedral Close, fresh opportunities and fresh responsibilities will come. We desire earnestly to request the interest and the prayers of the clergy and laity of the Diocese that all which shall be undertaken within its walls may be for the glory of God and the honor of its revered founder.

The Rev. Mr. Gates offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That in receiving the Annual Report of the New York Training School for Deaconesses, the Convention desires also to record its appreciation of the great service which Dr. Huntington rendered to the whole Church by his efforts for the restoration of the Order of Deaconesses and his work in founding this school for their training.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. Karl Reiland offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Chair appoint a committee of three to prepare and transmit a message of affectionate greeting from the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York to the Central Conference of American Rabbis now in session in this city, rejoicing in the heritage of Him who hath made of one blood all men for to dwell on the face of the whole earth, and in a common faith in the God of Abraham, of Isaac and of Jacob.

Which was adopted.

The Chair appointed as such Committee:

Rev. Karl Reiland.
Rev. George R. Van De Water, D.D. Rev. H. R. Hulse.

The Chair announced a recess for one hour.

The Convention reassembled at 2.45 P.M.

Mr. George Macculloch Miller moved that the Rules of Order be suspended to permit the Report on the Episcopal Fund to be presented, which was adopted.

Mr. Miller presented the following report:

Report

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE EPISCOPAL FUND.

The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund of the Diocese of New York report that the capital of the General Fund in their hands is two hundred and fourteen thousand four hundred and eighty-four dollars and eleven cents ($214,484.11).

The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund again respectfully call the attention of the Convention to the deficiency existing in the Residence Fund, and ask such action by the Convention as will enable the Trustees to pay this debt.

The receipts from investments during the year will be insufficient to meet the deficiency in the income of the fund for the Bishop's salary, and no addition having been made to the capital of the fund during the year, an assessment will be necessary for the deficiency of income for the year ending November, 1910, and the Trustees, therefore, recommend to the Convention the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund be, and they are, hereby authorized to assess the parishes of the Diocese at the rate of 3½ per cent. upon the salaries paid to the clergy, for the purposes of raising moneys needed for the Episcopal Fund, in lieu of the collection provided for by canon.

The statement of the investment and income of the funds in the hands of the Trustees is as follows:

NEW YORK, November 8, 1909.

Mr. Miller moved the resolution contained in the report, which was adopted.

The Rev. A. R. Mansfield presented the following report:

Report

OF THE SEAMEN'S CHURCH INSTITUTE OF NEW YORK.

Now practically ends the sixty-fifth year of this Society, with an ever-increasing opportunity for useful and friendly work among the seafarers of this Port, and there is none in which one can engage that is more eminently a labor of faith and love.

In 1844 the Convention committed to this Society so much of the Missionary concerns of the Diocese as relates to seamen in the City and Port of New York, and the same Convention, by an amendment of canon, made it optional with the congregations of the city to contribute annually to the City Mission Society or the Seamen's Church Institute.

No other city on this continent is as much indebted to seamen as that which glories in the name of the "Metropolis of the Western World."

The field of work of this kind here in New York among seamen is very large, and we may frankly say our ability to occupy it is limited, for want of the necessary means to defray its expenses. Your Society for Seamen, therefore, gentlemen of the Convention, again begins by appealing to you, clergy and laity, to help us, canonically or uncanonically, in the prosecution of this so eminently proper work, for the Church to be engaged in, in this great commercial city of the United States, and a work, the results of which, we may well believe, are likely to be far greater in proportion than any other of similar character in which you can engage, reaching, as they must, through the agency of those who are thereby brought under the influence of the practical Gospel, to the very ends of the earth.

What do we do for the money? We give religious privileges, rational entertainment and friendly greeting, police and social protection, and aid in the legal protection of seamen. Our reading rooms and our banking department encourage them to write to their families and to supply them with funds, which they have deposited with us for safekeeping and for transmission to the extent of $116,665.57 this year, and to the aggregate amount of $530,137.09 in the last five years.

Appropriate action has been taken on 291 claims of seamen whom we have referred to the Legal Aid Society, to which we have for several years made an annual contribution of $250 in recognition of such service. Five thousand seven hundred and forty-one have attended our entertainments, and 22,449 have been present at our religious services during the current year.

The success of the "Home" or hotel in Brooklyn, "The Breakwater" as it is known over the world, has exceeded our expectations. It is located at the corner of Furman Street and Atlantic Avenue, and has been adequately equipped for the accommodation of 100 men who seek a wholesome and safe lodging.

The usefulness of such seamen's homes or hotels, in furthering the object of the Seamen's Missionary enterprise, can not be questioned, and their contrast with the dens of sin that usually receive the seaman on his reaching port is gladdening to every man who feels for his fellow-man, or who has any sympathy with the seaman in the wrongs and outrages he is made to suffer from the mercenary and licentious men who control him.

As early as 1848 Chaplain D. V. M. Johnson suggested that a sailors' home be provided. In 1850 the "Mariner's Home" in Greenwich Street was established as a private enterprise of the Chaplain and a few members of the Board of Managers associated with him, but it did not come within the office or duties of the Society itself.

In order to give more effect to this branch of Christian intervention for seamen, the Society in 1854 procured the passage of a law authorizing it to establish and maintain "Homes for Seamen," and the Constitution of the Society was so amended as to include this additional work. The Board made choice of a house on Franklin Square, 338 Pearl Street, and the "New Sailors' Home," as it was named, was opened in October, 1854, and the former "Mariner's Home" closed at the same time.

On May 1, 1893, an advantageous offer having been made for the Pearl Street property, this house was sold and the New Sailors' Home at 52 Market Street was occupied by the Society on January 2, 1894.

In furtherance of plans for extension and consolidation the Market Street building was disposed of in December, 1907, and in January, 1908, the Breakwater, our present "Home," was opened. This building must serve the purpose until the proposed new sailors' home in South Street is completed, when we expect to furnish room and board to 500 seamen.

As we said last year: "This is a problem and a responsibility greater than has ever before been assumed by your Society; but it is the natural and logical development of the work. It is not too much to hope that New York will set an example to other ports. The commercial, maritime and civic interests of this magnificent metropolis, which leads the world in its generous and humane interest in men who labor and suffer on land, will not fail to complete this monumental work in aid of those who are interested in this plan for the welfare of the sailor to send their subscription in aid of the new building to the Chairman of the Building Committee, Edmund L. Baylies, 54 Wall Street, New York City.

Owing to the unexpected delay in obtaining the needed funds during the period of financial depression, we shall not be able for another year to consolidate our scattered stations in the new building, and must, therefore, renew our lease for the premises known as the Battery Station at Nos. 1 and 2 State Street.

We are disappointed and somewhat disheartened at being obliged to again report proposed (I almost hate the word), and not completed building.

"To be or not to be?" is the burning question with us this fall. "To be" would come the quick and generous response if a few of the people of this Port could be compelled to listen to the Board's splendid and comprehensive proposition, and learn to realize how much needed is this building and what a many-sided blessing a fully equipped Institute and Home such as we have in view would be to the merchant seaman.

"An officer of the British Mercantile Marine using the Missions to Seamen Institute at Poplar, London, read an appeal for an 'additional £2,000 a year urgently needed.' He asked, what is to happen if this additional sum is not obtained? It was replied, that some seaports with flourishing sailor work will have to be half-starved by reductions of experienced workers; or some Seamen's Institutes like this will have to be closed.

"'What a shame!' said the officer. 'I don't think many good people ashore know that this godlike work exists, or what real blessing these institutes are to us sailors all round the world. What they have been to me, in many voyages, across the seas even more than at home! Can't rich people be told of all this?'"

If some of the people of this port could be infused with the spirit and fervent zeal that burns in the hearts of many of the members of this Diocesan Seamen's Board, they would be inflamed with a benevolent passion to make this work go as never before, and the Diocesan House for seamen would be, and would stand on our water front as a monumental proof of the desire of the Church in this Diocese to do its utmost for the improvement of conduct and character, for the increase of happiness, for the moral and religious good will to the merchant seaman.

Our Free Shipping Bureau.

The number of seamen shipped without payment of illegal shipping fees and bonuses during the year from our Battery Station was 2,001, and from our North River Station 377, making a total of 2,378, while the Battery Station provided employment on ships to 952 men and the North River station to 277 more, making a grand total of 1,229. By our protection and hospitality extended to the sailor on shore, we have constantly lessened the criminal traffic in human beings by the crimps and sailors' boarding-house keepers. An estimated 203,653 visits have been made to our reading rooms and Sailors' Home, and many of these men desired shipment. This has been availed of to an increasing extent by many companies wanting crews, and the department supplies several of the United States Marine Departments, which now ship their men in this port wholly from our Battery station.

Strongest letters of commendation of the work of the shipping department have been received from a number of both American and British owners. Their opinion of the work can be expressed in the following, received from a representative of one of the largest shipping companies in the world. He said: "I am firmly convinced that your enterprise has been beneficial to every one concerned, owners and men alike, and that its peculiar value arises from the fact that neither side is exploited at the expense of the other. To-day the business of shipping men through your Society is clean; owners get what they pay for and need to pay no more; the men are not mulcted in any way; this is a mutual benefit."

"No one who compares the conditions existing to-day with those which existed up to a couple of years ago would hesitate to appreciate the work your Society has done. Its influence has given the self-respecting sailor a chance and the conditions of his life have bettered, whilst the owner gets better service at less expense than formerly."

"I have nothing but praise for what your Society has accomplished, and I would like to see all owners and agents support you. I unhesitatingly recommend them to do so."

Institute Boat and Harbor Service.

Our harbor boat "Sentinel" continues to add greatly to the efficiency of our Institute work by the transportation of 2,001 seamen, from ship to shore, from the harbor to hospitals, and for religious services at our floating church. It has made 399 trips and has visited 1,157 ships during the current year.

The Seamen's Benefit Society continues to aid us in keeping the vessel in commission by its sympathy and by its contribution this year of $600 toward its annual cost of $5,855.89.

The amount of $2,000 has been received for the Mary LeRoy King Boat Endowment Fund from Mrs. Louis B. McCagg, a sister of the late Miss King.

Legislation.

Our Committee on Legislation has been successful in promoting protection for men employed on scows and barges and revision of our navigation laws so as to secure the general use of life-saving appliances on all classes of vessels, and particularly in shortening the dangerous lengths of tow lines in the harbors and waters of the United States.

In Memoriam.

The death of the Right Rev. Henry C. Potter, D.D., LL.D., has deprived our Society of its greatly beloved President at a time when his loss cannot be sufficiently deplored. During his long connection with the Society and its Board of Managers his unflagging sympathy and never failing interest in our work will cause his memory to be cherished while the Society endures.

We have also suffered an irreparable loss by the death of one of our Vice-Presidents, Rev. Morgan Dix, D.D., S.T.D., D.C.L. Although unable to attend the meetings of the Board and of the Society, he showed his great interest in our work by his counsel and sympathy, and by the annual stipend of $1,000 granted by the Trinity Church Corporation which has been and is a constant source of encouragement and support. His long-continued membership in our Society was ever a cause for gratitude.

Legacy.

The Society has been encouraged this year by a legacy of $5,000 from the estate of the late Winfield Tucker, and of $1,000 from the estate of the late Johanna H. H. Ten Broeck.

Finance.

We have expended in 1908, $34,289.46. We have received from donations and contributions in the same year, $25,747.17.

How shall we cover the deficit?

We have been compelled to draw again from our trust funds, $6,075.25.

We have faith to believe that this work for seamen will find new friends in each generation while the need exists. We have nailed our flag to the mast, and we shall man the pumps so long as we can keep above water.

Canon XVII.

The attention of the clergy is respectfully called to Canon XVII., which provides that the Seamen's Church Institute of New York is to be reckoned among the church charities for which provision is to be made.

The Board of Managers regret to say that there are yet a number of parishes in the city and diocese from whom no contributions are received. Only about one-fourth in the city and one-eighth in the Diocese of all the churches render the Society any financial aid. The Board cannot but feel that this mission has one of the strongest claims upon their bounty which can be presented, and they trust that in the future they may not ask in vain for aid from them.

Does it not behoove all those whom God has blest with abundance and whose hearts we know are so warmly in sympathy with the missionary efforts of our Church to respond liberally to the appeal in behalf of seamen, whose humble lives are so beset with temptations, and to see that no stinted means supply the hands of those your representatives who are striving to lead them at the last to the "haven of eternal rest"?

Superintending Chaplain.

The Rev. Dr. Stires presented the following report of the Committee on that portion of the Bishop's Address relating to the Cathedral.

Report

OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON THE CATHEDRAL.

The remarks of the Bishop in reference to the Cathedral suggest three points: the relation of the Cathedral to the Diocese; its relation to the neighborhood in which it stands; the ways and means for the maintenance of its work. Your Committee have considered the subject in these three aspects:

1. The Relation of the Cathedral to the Diocese.

The Cathedral is the Bishop's Church. As he is the general pastor of the whole flock in the Diocese, so his Church is the general church of the whole flock. He discharges the duties of his office through the parochial clergy and those portions of his flock which are connected with parishes have for their particular pastors the rectors of their respective parishes and for their particular churches the churches of their respective parishes. In a special sense the Bishop is the peculiar pastor of all those who are not associated with parishes; and he performs his office with respect to these through the agency of his archdeacons and other missionaries. As he is specially the pastor of those who are not attached to parishes, so his church is in a special sense their Church, and the Cathedral is thus the chief seat and source of the missionary activity of the Diocese. The missionary work of the Bishop is, however, the concern of the whole body; for the Church itself, and not the Bishop only, is bound by the command of our Lord to preach the Gospel and to minister the Grace of God. It, therefore, is incumbent upon the Church in the Diocese to support its chief pastor in the performance of this duty, and among other things to use and to maintain his Cathedral Church. To the end that the Cathedral may be usefully employed and the work of which it is the seat may be suitably supported, it is requisite that the intelligent and sympathetic interest of the Diocese should be fostered; for though it were abundantly supplied with money it would not prosper if it were isolated from the vital current of the corporate life of the Church of the Diocese. Intelligent interest requires knowledge of what actually is done, and of the opportunities for enlarged usefulness; sympathetic interest involves a common ideal in the Diocese and in the Cathedral body. Besides this interest, intelligent and sympathetic co-operation is necessary: a working together for the attainment of the object in view. One important line of co-operation is the furnishing of funds for carrying on the work. If the Diocese be under obligations to cherish this interest and to manifest it by co-operation, the Diocese is also justly entitled to express in some effective manner its own sentiments with regard to the management of the Cathedral.

The Cathedral itself, with the grounds in which it stands, as property, belong to a corporation organized by the Legislature of this State in 1873. They are empowered to build and maintain the Church, and to provide religious services in connection with it and to carry on appropriate religious and charitable works. The act of incorporation authorizes them to determine by a constitution how their corporate succession shall be carried on by the introduction of new members, and to provide by statutes for the regulation of their other affairs. The Bishop is ex-officio President of the Corporation.

For the performance of its religious work a body of clergy, a choir and various officials are required. It devolves upon the trustees of the Cathedral to provide and administer the funds for the support of this work, as well as for the erection and maintenance of the fabric of the Church and of such other buildings as may be needed, and to regulate the duties of the officials thus employed in carrying out the objects of the incorporation.

Having regard to these conditions, your Committee are impressed with the importance of maintaining in the administration of the Cathedral a reasonable measure of autonomy, a continuity of policy, and a vital connection with the Diocese. They believe that these objects may in part be attained by suitable arrangements for the appointment of the trustees. Such arrangements must, under their charter, be made by the trustees themselves. The Convention of the Diocese has no power to make regulations on the subject; but it may in furtherance of the objects for which the Cathedral exists recommend to the consideration of the trustees such measures as it deems suitable.

Your Committee propose to the Convention that it recommend to the trustees of the Cathedral to consider whether it would be beneficial:

(a) To adopt by Constitutional enactment a scheme in which a certain number of trustees should be elected.

(b) To provide by statute that the trustees of the Cathedral should report to the Convention, for its information, such of their proceedings and such a statement of the religious work of the Cathedral as they shall deem to be of interest to the Diocese.

2. The relation of the Cathedral to the neighborhood in which it stands.

The Cathedral has a special responsibility for its own immediate neighborhood. There are no other Episcopal Churches from St. Michael's at 99th Street to St. Mary's at 128th Street. Of Protestant Churches there are none from 107th Street and Broadway to 140th Street and St. Nicholas Avenue.

During the past few years a large number of apartment houses have been erected in the immediate neighborhood of the Cathedral. There are now, as indicated by the registration, over twenty thousand people within a few blocks. Large building operations now going on will bring as many more in a few years. These people should be shepherded and gathered into the Church's fold, not as casual worshippers, but as integral parts of the Church: members entitled to all the rights and privileges and bound by all the obligations and responsibilities of membership. The children should be looked after, gathered into Sunday-school and brought under influences which will lead to confirmation. Therefore, the Committee recommends:

That the Convention request the authorities of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine to inaugurate definite pastoral work for the people of the immediate neighborhood as soon as their income will permit.

3. The ways and means for the maintenance of the Cathedral's work.

Coming to the third point which the Committee has considered, that of ways and means for enabling the Cathedral to fufil the purposes for which it is being erected, the Committee offer the following:

WHEREAS, the choir and crossing of the Cathedral are nearly completed, seating about three thousand persons, and

WHEREAS, it is impossible fully to utilize this greatest addition to our missionary equipment until a sufficient income to maintain the work is obtainable, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Convention recommend that one million dollars be added to the present endowment fund and that the Bishop be requested to appoint a committee to co-operate with the Cathedral trustees for this purpose.

The Rev. Dr. Stires moved the resolution appended to the report, which was adopted.

The Chair appointed as such Committee:

Rt. Rev. F. Courtney, D.D.	Mr. James C. Fargo.
Rev. H. R. Hulse.	Mr. Gustav H. Schwab.
Mr. W. Bayard Cutting.	Mr. John Claflin.

The Rev. William C. Rogers, D.D., presented the following report:

Report

OF ST. STEPHEN'S COLLEGE.

The Trustees of St. Stephen's College beg to present their annual report to the Convention of the Diocese of New York. At Commencement, June 17th, the Rev. William C. Rodgers became Warden, or, as the head of the College is now called, President. The College opened September 15th. There are now fifty-three students, of whom twenty-one are new. We have room for only two more. We could have had one hundred if the College had been equipped with sufficient buildings and a large enough income to take all the men who applied for admission during the summer. Forty-two are studying for the seminary, eleven for various secular professions and callings.

The Rev. Ernest C. Saunders has resigned his position as Professor of Chemistry. For many years Mr. Saunders has spent time, energy and skill upon his department, and his work has been of the utmost value to the College. Professor Robert C. Robb has added Chemistry to his other subjects in the Mathematical and Scientific Departments.

Mr. Irville F. Davidson has returned after a year's leave of absence, restored to health, and has taken his place as Instructor in Greek and Latin and as Bursar of the College. Mr. Edward S. Hale, who came to St. Stephen's from Harvard and graduated last June, returned in September and offered us his services gratuitously, with the result that he became Instructor in History and English. We have now at St. Stephen's a broad and thorough curriculum, well adapted to the purposes of those young men who are anxious to get a thoroughly sound education as a foundation for their life work whether in the Church or in other callings.

We propose to send out well-equipped Christian men to do Twentieth Century work under Twentieth Century conditions. The Faculty of St. Stephen's College is composed of men from various universities and colleges, of sound learning, long experience and entire devotion to the College. They are old enough to be the advisers and young enough to be the friends of the students. The work of the students is entirely satisfactory. They are fine, manly college lads. There are in St. Stephen's possibilities for usefulness both to the Church and to the State, which, to say the least, it would be short-sighted to disregard. The picturesque surroundings, the healthy life, the sound academic traditions, the enthusiastic loyalty of everybody concerned, are most valuable and highly important assets. I presume the Convention is tired of hearing the cry of St. Stephen's for money, but its requirements are really very small as college requirements go in these days. The trouble is that we are travelling in a vicious circle. Wealthy people tell us that we are not a large enough institution for them to give their money to, but we cannot be a large institution until we get some more money. We challenge anyone who will make a thorough and impartial inquiry and who will come right up to Annandale and see the College at work, to escape from the conclusion that it will be well worth while not merely to keep St. Stephen's alive, but to render such willing assistance as will make it a permanent and successful institution of Religion and Learning of which this Diocese, and indeed this whole Church, may well be proud. We desire to call attention to the fact that St. Stephen's is in no sense a Theological Seminary. It is a college, small, thorough and inexpensive. There are special advantages for young men who intend to enter the Seminary, and we desire here to emphasize our obligation to the Society for the Promotion of Religion and Learning, without whose help the College could not have done its work. Our doors are open to all who desire a college education under Christian influences, but who may not be going into the Ministry. About one-quarter of those now in residence are studying for the law, or medicine, or commercial pursuits.

We appeal, gentlemen, to your sense of justice and your generosity. This is the Jubilee Year of St. Stephen's. It has fought its way successfully for fifty years. Will you not make it possible for the College to look forward to a glorious future of permanent usefulness to the Church and to the Commonwealth.

Respectfully submitted,

November 10, 1909. WILLIAM C. RODGERS, President.

Mr. George Zabriskie offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to appoint a Committee of this Convention, consisting of three clergymen and three laymen, to confer with the Trustees of St. Stephen's College as to its possibilities, and to formulate some plans with a view to enlisting the interest of the Diocese and placing the institution on a permanent footing.

Which was adopted.

The Chair appointed as such Committee:

Rev. William M. Grosvenor, D.D.	Mr. Robert B. Dodson.
Rev. Herbert Shipman.	Mr. J. Van Vechten Olcott.
Rev. Percy S. Grant.	Mr. Francis Lynde Stetson.

The Rev. W. T. Manning, D.D., offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Convention be given to the distinguished speakers at the Bishop's meeting at Carnegie Hall on the evening of Tuesday before Convention, and also to the various choirs and choirmasters of the churches in this city who so notably contributed to the success of that great meeting.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. F. B. Van Kleeck, D.D., presented the following report:

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON APPORTIONMENT.

The Committee on the Diocesan Apportionment for General Mission reports:

That the amount asked of this Diocese by the Board of Missions for the year beginning September 1, 1909, is $133,160.25.

That the specific apportionment will be assigned to the various congregations after this Convention.

That the total contributed on last year's apportionment was $133,216.05.

That a comparison of the results of last year with previous efforts is, on the whole, encouraging, particularly in the number of parishes which gave in excess of their apportionment; but that a large number of congregations which do not show the results of even an effort to participate is still a matter of grave concern.

We would recommend that any apparent injustice or error be referred to a Sub-committee on Correction and Adjustment.

This Committee would record its sense of severe loss in the death of Dr. James H. Canfield, who contributed largely to the systematic method of our work. We also regret the removal of our Secretary, the Rev. Octavius Applegate, to another diocese, depriving us of an efficient and painstaking member of the Committee charged with this most important business.

Your Committee cannot close its report without congratulating the Convention that for the first time the Diocese has met, more than met, its apportionment; and this result was reached by the splendid service of our Bishop, who spent his vacation this summer in bringing it about.

Respectfully submitted,

F. B. VAN KLEECK.

The Rev. Pascal Harrower presented the following report:

Report

OF THE NEW YORK SUNDAY-SCHOOL COMMISSION.

In making its tenth annual report, the Sunday-school Commission begs first to submit a brief statement of the work of the Supply Department for the past year.

I. The Supply Department: We have now as capital in stock, including Lesson Manuals, pictures, books, lantern slides and office fixtures, over $8,000. The sale of the Commission series of subject-graded Lessons reaches, at the present time, about 20,000 copies a week. Over 2,000,000 copies have thus far been sold. Translations of some of these have been made for use among the Japanese, and a demand has arisen for them in the Spanish and Swedish languages.

The number of graded Sunday-schools is constantly growing, and it is believed that over one-half of all our schools are using our Lessons, either wholly or in part. The new catalogue, compiled by the Secretary of the Commission, is, without doubt, the most complete and suggestive work of the kind to be found. It is more than a bare catalogue, and is of the highest value to Sunday-school workers everywhere, irrespective of denomination.

The Supply Department forms, indeed, one of the most important and needed centers of information and practical helpfulness yet established in our American Church, under the singularly able management of the Secretary, the Rev. Dr. Smith. It will be a matter of interest to all to know that his book on Religious Education, published within the last year, has been made a text-book for canonical examination in four dioceses.

It should be here noted that the donation of parishes are set apart to provide so far as they go the salary of the Secretary and amount already to $1,200, but one thousand ($1,000) more is needed for this purpose.

The profits of the Supply Department, according to our Treasurer, Mr. H. H. Pike, ought to be applied to the development of the business.

III. Some considerations bearing on the work of the Sunday-school:

1. The Field of Work. In the United States there are 24,000,000 children of school age (5-18 years). The Sunday-schools of the United States, 140,000 in number, enroll thirteen million five hundred thousand members. Of this number, 1,500,000 are teachers, and the vast bulk of the remaining twelve million are boys and girls. Our Sunday-schools, therefore, contain about one-half of the school population. Various causes may be assigned to explain the absence of the remaining twelve million, such as religious indifference, the lack of efficiency in the school itself, the natural dropping out of children at about the fifteenth year.

Note another fact of interest at this point. In 1899 there were 439,777 children in our Church Sunday-schools, with a communicant list of 700,500. The almanacs (for 1908) give 446,565 scholars, an increase of about 7,000, and 833,938 communicants, a growth of 133,400. New York Diocese in 1890 reported 51,655 communicants, 37,594 Sunday-school scholars, and 22,431 families and parts of families. In 1900, 70,245 communicants, a growth of 20,000; 44,584 scholars, a growth of 7,000; and 30,913 families, a growth of 8,000. The Almanac for this current year reports 87,248 communicants, 38,054 scholars, and 37,117 families, or a gain of 17,000 communicants, 6,000 families, and a loss of 6,000 scholars. In 1890 there were two Sunday-school children to every family; in 1908 only one.

In 1898 the number of pupils in the Sunday-schools of the City of New York was 32,185; and in 1908 there were in our city Sunday-school scholars to the number of 26,790, a loss of 4,397. Yet within this decade there were established new Sunday-schools in which were enrolled almost 2,000 pupils. Some of these may have come from other Church schools, but certainly all did not do so.

One thing is apparent, however we may explain it, that either we have not the children to draw from or we are losing from our schools those who ought to be there. The leakage from our Sunday-schools becomes acute at the age of fourteen. This is not, be it remembered, peculiar to the Sunday-school. The Public Schools, with all their advantages of authority and equipment, show a similar falling off. How do they propose to prevent this? They are arranging to make these critical years especially helpful. Courses in Manual Training and other allied subjects are being developed. Face to face with this same tendency and restiveness, what shall the Sunday-school do? To say that the Church has no vital ministry in the educational field for the child of fourteen is a confession of weakness not one of us to-day would dare to make.

It must at once be allowed that the Public Schools of America are neither godless nor without moral ideals. They distinctly recognize the supreme authority and value of those great truths which are essential to religion in its broadest aspect. But on the other hand, the best educational thought of the day holds the Church not less, but more than ever, responsible for her large share in the upbuilding of youth. We cannot, therefore, too strongly insist upon the fact that the Church and the Public School are in reality partners in the complete education of an American youth. This forces the educational problem upon the Church.

It is not within the province of this report to enter into any theoretical discussion of education. But it is undeniably true that the full education of our young people will in the last analysis depend upon what we do. We are, of course, gathered here as a religious body, a Convention of the Church, but we are as truly a Convention of educators as is the national Educational Association. Every layman here to-day is virtually as much a director in an institution of learning as is any member of a Public School Board, and every rector here is virtually the Head Master of a school. And it is also true that no Head Master anywhere is so heavily handicapped as he is in meeting the educational demand.

2. These facts force to the front the whole question of the Sunday-schools, and, if we interpret them correctly, we may claim that there is no single problem before which the rector of any parish stands with such humiliating sense of weakness, and such puzzled mind, as he does before that of the proper education of his parish youth. It is here the teacher enters. But notice the feature of special significance. If, for example, our Sunday-schools had the most competent teachers and satisfactory lessons for scholars up to the age of thirteen, and then failed to keep pace with them in their growth from that point on, we should find ourselves miserably disappointed. The years from thirteen to eighteen are most critical in the formation of character. Yet it is precisely here in the Main Department that our Sunday-schools are lamentably undermanned.

The same thing is relatively true of our Public Schools. The acute problem in both cases is not found in the Primary grades, but in the Grammar and High School grades. Just where our youth need most, they now get the least. The Church finds her great challenge not in the little boy and girl problem, but in the youth problem. And modern life is only making the challenge a harder one to meet.

Beyond all doubt, the most critical need of the Church to-day, educationally, ethically and spiritually, is for wise leadership for our youth from thirteen to eighteen years of age. We have repeated the old saying, "Give me the child till he is ten years, and you may have him afterwards," until we are in danger of not knowing what to do with him when he is thrown upon our hands. This is our foremost educational problem. After the Primary Department—what?

This is the point where we need trained teachers, teachers competent by virtue of their knowledge, their sympathy with youth, their enthusiasm, their personal power and devotion, to do what Dr. Arnold of Rugby set before himself and his masters, namely, "through teaching and example and, above all, unwearied zeal, to create moral thoughtfulness in every boy and girl."

Teacher training does not mean cramming with a mass of technical knowledge, but the much more important work of producing teachers of the Dr. Arnold type. It goes without saying that we ought to press this sort of teacher training as it never yet has been pressed in the Diocese.

IV. The Sunday-school Association: The Commission believes that the outlook for this Diocese is brighter than it has been in recent years. Steps have been taken in the Sunday-school Association for securing a more efficient work in the several Archdeaconries. Committees have been changed and enlarged; plans are in shape for broader and more aggressive effort. We confidently look for corresponding growth. If we can have the co-operation of the clergy, and through them of their teachers, the work will not fail.

This Commission sets no value whatever on what is purely doctrinnaire. We are dealing with a subject altogether too serious and vital to the life existence of the Church to admit of abstract discussion. There is a work to do or there is not. Either the Church is holding her youth and building them up into Christian citizens or she is not doing this so effectively as she should. We are not pessimists in this question, neither are we happy-go-lucky optimists that discuss the whole thing as a matter of talk. The serious question after all before the whole American Church is how we shall quicken our interest and concern in the question of religious education, and with all possible efficiency help to educate some twelve million children in this broad land—who already attend Christian Sunday-schools, and all, too often, because teachers and methods are inefficient—look up and are not fed.

The Rev. Mr. Harrower offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That this Convention, recognizing the excellent work of its Sunday-school Commission, and noting also the generous donation already made by churches and individuals in its behalf, cordially recommends to all churches in this Diocese that they make some annual contribution to the furtherance and support of the work of this Commission.

Which was adopted.

and the appended resolution was adopted.

The Rev. John W. Buckmaster offered the following, to be referred to the Committee on Canons to report at the next Convention:

Proposed Amendment of Canon XVIII., Section 3, Sub-section 3. Change so as to read:

"The Archdeacon of each Archdeaconry shall be nominated by the Archdeaconry, and appointed by the Bishop, and shall continue in office," for a period of four years.

The Rev. F. S. Smithers, Jr., offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on Finance be requested to carry into effect the resolution passed by the Convention of 1908, which is printed on page 133 of the Journal, and reads as follows:

"Resolved, That the whole sum needed for the missionary work of the Diocese be apportioned upon the Parishes of the Diocese."

The Rev. George H. Toop offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Board of Managers of Missions be requested to hold its annual meeting on the afternoon before the Convention.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. L. T. Cole, D.D., presented the following report on the General Theological Seminary:

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF NEW YORK ON THE GENERAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

NOVEMBER, 1909.

The Committee begs leave to report that, in accordance with the resolutions passed by the Convention last year, it has sent to the authorities of all the Dioceses having the right to elect Trustees of the General Theological Seminary a copy of the last year's report of this Committee to the Convention, with the resolutions appended, together with a request that they take action on the proposal that all the Dioceses that have the right to elect Trustees of the General Theological Seminary signify their willingness to surrender that privilege if such surrender is called for by the action of the next General Convention. One diocese (New Jersey) refused to pass the resolution. Five dioceses (Long Island, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Maryland and North Carolina) passed resolutions identical or agreeing with that passed by this Convention last year. Western New York and Central New York referred the proposal to committees to obtain further information. The Diocese of Albany will consider the question at its Convention this month, and the Dioceses of Newark and South Carolina have not made any reply to the Committee. Your Committee hopes that before the meeting of the General Convention all of these dioceses, with possibly one exception, will signify their agreement with the action of this Diocese.

Your Committee has conferred with the Joint Committee of the General Convention through its Chairman, but has no special report on the conference to make at this time except to note that the Joint Committee is preparing a full and exhaustive report to the General Convention, on the outcome of which it is hoped that the action of this Convention will have some influence.

Your Committee begs leave to make the following nominations for Trustees of the General Theological Seminary to represent the Diocese of New York for the ensuing year:

The Rev. William M. Grosvenor, D.D.	Mr. W. Bayard Cutting.
The Rev. J. Lewis Parks, D.D.	Mr. James J. Goodwin.
The Rev. William T. Manning, D.D.	Mr. John A. Beall.
The Rev. Leighton Parks, D.D.	Mr. Charles F. Hoffman.
The Rev. William C. Rodgers, D.D.	Mr. Hermann H. Camman.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

[Signed by the Committee.]

The Rev. Dr. Cole nominated the existing Trustees, substituting the Rev. W. C. Rodgers, D.D., for the Rev. Thomas R. Harris, D.D., deceased, and moved that the Secretary be empowered to cast one ballot for them, which was adopted.

The Chair declared that they were duly elected.

Mr. John K. Sague moved that a committee be appointed to submit to the next Convention a plan to expedite the voting, which was adopted.

The Chair appointed as such Committee:

Mr. John K. Sague,
Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan, Rev. H. R. Hulse.

The Rev. Pascal Harrower offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed on arrangements for Convention.

Which was adopted.

The Chair appointed as such Committee:

Rev. Pascal Harrower,
Rev. Geo. Alex. Strong, Mr. John P. Faure.

The Rev. F. B. Van Kleeck, D.D., moved that the Convention now sit as a Board of Missions, which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Van Kleeck moved that the reading of the report of the Archdeacons be dispensed with, which was adopted.

Report

OF THE ARCHDEACON OF ORANGE.

On Ash Wednesday, February 24, 1909, the Rev. Henry Barker, M.A., Rector and Missionary at Rosendale, and Missionary at Rifton and Bloomington, Ulster County, departed this life. Faithfulness and devotion to duty were his characteristics, and the whole community of which he was the beloved minister mourned his departure. The Archdeacon and many of the clergy attended his funeral, and the parish church at Rosendale was thronged by his own people and by representatives of every religious body in the village, including the two Roman Catholic priests, so general was the respect felt for him. Mr. Barker's successor is the Rev. Thomas McClintock, who took charge in March.

The vacancy at Liberty, caused by the removal of the Rev. W. O. Jarvis to Scarsdale, Westchester County, has been filled by the appointment of the Rev. Julius G. Shultz as Missionary-in-charge.

The new Rectory at Callicoon, Sullivan County, has been completed, and it is hoped that by next spring a resident clergyman may be secured. In the meantime, the Rev. Uriah Symonds of Port Jervis gives monthly ministrations; and the Sunday-school is efficiently maintained by weekly sessions.

St. John's, Ellenville, under the Rev. Hugh P. Hobson, continues its prosperous and efficient career, and the same may be said of St. Andrew's, Walden, with its chapel at Montgomery, under the Rev. Thomas G. Losee.

The Church of the Good Shepherd, Greenwood Lake, has had a good year. The summer open-air vesper services on the shore of the Lake, with the gathering of boats from many hotels and cottages, as described in the Archdeacon's last report, continued to be a striking feature of the season's service, but besides this, the regular Church ministrations, with the celebration of Holy Communion at stated intervals and the sessions of the Sunday-school each Lord's Day, went on without interruption.

The Rev. William Saunders is in charge of the Mission for the autumn and winter.

The joint missions at New Paltz and Highland are well administered by the Rev. Eli D. Sutcliffe. The Normal School at New Paltz has reopened with a fair attendance. Some communicants of the Church are among the new pupils and teachers, and it is a great satisfaction to know that our Church is on the spot, ready and glad to minister to her children.

Contributions for the new church are earnestly solicited.

If from members of this Convention five hundred dollars could be secured and added to the building fund already in hand, it would be a great help towards accomplishing the work in hand. The foundation of the new church has just been completed.

The village of Monticello, Sullivan County, met with a severe calamity in the month of August last, by a terrible conflagration, which destroyed its business portion. The Church and Rectory, though very near the zone of danger, escaped without injury; and the people generally, with rare energy and courage, have begun to rebuild, and hope in due time to have better buildings and larger business than before.

St. John's Church, Monticello, under the Rev. Walter Irving Stecher, wields a strong influence in the community and adjacent country. The Mission at Thompsonville is maintained in connection with this church.

The summer services at Mead's Mount, Catskill Mountains, were maintained by the Rev. Frank H. Church, of the Chapel of the Messiah, New York. For ten Sundays services were held at St. Bartholomew's, Big Indian, by the Rev. C. M. Hall.

The Rev. W. J. C. Agnew continues his faithful and excellent work at Stone Ridge and High Falls. At the latter place the influx of foreign laborers and the Sunday work in connection with the New York additional water supply have rather checked church attendance and demoralized the former quiet village habits and manners, but all services have been maintained, and the Church, through the "changes and chances of this mortal life," continues to bear her witness to the Truth and good morals.

The Rector has permitted the temporary use of his Rectory as an emergency hospital to meet the pressing needs of laborers and employees of the various contractors who in their dangerous occupations are subject to injury and accident. A monthly rental is paid for this privilege, but it scarcely compensates for the great inconvenience to which the Rector and his family are subjected.

The Rector of Marlborough serves as Missionary to Milton, and the Rector of Arden, with the assistance of a lay reader, ministers to Monroe. Both of these places hold their own, but from their limited population not much increase can be looked for in the immediate future. The church buildings are kept in good repair, and each year sees some needed improvement attended to.

A list of missionaries and stations is herewith appended.

Report

OF THE ARCHDEACON OF WESTCHESTER.

The Archdeaconry of Westchester would report that the vacancies on our mission staff have been efficiently filled by the appointment of Rev. Walter Nicolas Clapp to serve as Priest-in-charge of the Church of St. Joseph of Arimathea, Elmsford; the Rev. Albert T. Keane as locum tenens and in charge of St. Paul's, Spring Valley, St. John's, New City, and St. Stephen's, Pearl River, Rockland County, and the Rev. J. F. Milbank, D.D., to serve at St. John's, Lewisboro, and St. Paul's, South Salem.

Early in the year the Rev. Charles M. Selleck, who has served our Archdeaconry for nearly a quarter of a century, passed away. He was a benediction to all the countryside where he labored, and has built up a strong work at Lewisboro, and South Salem.

From the latter church there have come a number of influential church people, who have a mind to work and desire generous things for the parish. Dr. Milbank is just entering upon this field, with a warm welcome and a bright prospect of efficient service. Rev. Mr. Keane, in the Missions of Rockland County, has quite enthused and inspired our meetings this year with his good reports of his work and the fine spirit of doing it. At Pleasantville, Westchester County, after many years of faithful ministry, Mr. Holmes is reaping his reward, by the zeal and generosity of his people, who have acquired a desirable lot and are planning in the near future a new stone church, which will be a credit to the Archdeaconry and Diocese.

A mission has been started at Hartsdale, between Scarsdale and White Plains, under the supervision of the Archdeacon, and the Rev. Mr. Jarvis, the Rector of St. James, Scarsdale, is taking the services. It bids fair to meet a want in that vicinity. Nepera Park, near Yonkers, by closing a rectory, and removal of many church people, caused the closing for a time of St. Paul's Chapel. There is a change for the better. Other families are coming in, and the people are earnestly asking for a renewal of Sunday-school and services.

The mission work in North Yonkers, formerly conducted in Grace Chapel, is under the charge of Rev. Mr. Lyon of Christ Church in that city, and he reports interest and growth. In all of our churches and missions aided by the Archdeaconry the clergy and missionaries hold the regular services, foster their Sunday-schools and minister diligently to their scattered flocks. Theirs is an isolated life. It has little romance in it, or the charm and inspiration of larger fields or far distant missionary enterprise, Foreign or Domestic. But they do a real, earnest, self-denying service, stand in their lot, and make no complaints.

We have to report the death of two clergymen who quite recently were called of God: Rev. William Hansen Bean, for some time Rector of St. John's, Wilmot, and the Rev. Samuel Thomas Graham, many years Rector of Trinity Church, Mount Vernon, both places in Westchester County.

Each of these was called to bear a heavy cross of suffering, and in their death found release. Both were earnest and devoted, and will be gratefully remembered by those they served in their ministry.

We would append the list of Missions and Missionaries as the Canon directs.

Westchester County.

Elmsford, Church of St. Joseph of Arimathea, Rev. Walter N. Clapp.
Lewisboro, St. John's, Rev. T. F. Milbank, D.D.

Report

OF THE ARCHDEACON OF DUTCHESS.

The Archdeacon of Dutchess, in his annual report to the Convention of the Diocese of New York, makes mention in the first place of the death of the Rev. R. E. Grueber, for many years Missionary at Hopewell Junction. His death occurred in July in Germany, whither he had gone to visit his mother. His ministry in this Archdeaconry was characterized by a faithful discharge of every duty imposed upon him.

This place has been temporarily filled by Mr. Clifford W. French of the General Theological Seminary—a Lay Reader licensed by the Bishop of the Diocese—under the direction of the Archdeacon. His report shows a most gratifying condition of the Mission.

Amenia Union. Services were conducted at this place during the summer by the Rev. John Pickells. This is one of the older churches of the Diocese, and very little progress can be made, because of the abandonment of some of the farms and the death or removal of the people. Mr. Pickells reports an average attendance at the services of forty. There have been four baptisms and two marriages.

West Pawling, Mr. A. C. Burdick in charge. Mr. Burdick has continued his work among the children and mountaineers of the region with marked success. There is a regular attendance of some twenty children at the school and large congregations meet in the Neighborhood House on Sundays for worship and instruction, and on other occasions for social purposes. He acts as missionary, teacher and doctor. And his work consists of the many little helps to humanity, and then, by sympathy in need, many are drawn within the influence of the Church, and so nearer to God.

Dover Plains, A. C. Burdick, Lay Reader. There is an increased interest manifested in the Church and her services. All current expenses have been met. There has been one baptism, besides the regular Sunday service. One hundred and fifty dollars has been paid on the Church debt since last autumn, and there is now but $250 remaining unpaid.

Pleasant Valley, Rev. R. R. Upjohn, Missionary. Aggressive work has characterized this Mission. Mr. Upjohn has been in charge now for six years. And in that time he has baptized as many candidates as in the forty or fifty previous years of the history of the Parish. A mission was held during the early part of autumn, which continued for two weeks, and was attended by large congregations. There has been a complete renovation of the Church and Rectory. The corner-stone of a building to be used for a village library was laid early in October. The success of this undertaking is largely due to the efforts of the Missionary.

At Pine Plains, the Rev. Thomas Burrows, Missionary, the field is limited, and results must necessarily be in moderate degree, but there are indications of spiritual benefits to the people of the community.

Lithgow, the Rev. C. K. Gilbert in charge. This parish is more than 100 years old. It is a farming community and situated many miles from the railroad. Services have been regularly maintained, with an average attendance of twenty-seven. The work continues under conditions which promise no change for better or worse. The few people are devoted to the Church. The finances of the Parish are in good condition. All obligations have been promptly met—among others the apportionment for General Missions.

The Archdeaconry of Dutchess has no great results to report. But let it be remembered that large statistics and attendance at church services are not the only indications of the influence of the missionary in his field of labor, and of his hold upon the people of a community. It is the steady, quiet pastoral labor which builds up a church in a community and the religious life in the soul of man; and results are not always seen following the efforts put forth. It is my firm belief that every village needs the presence of a clergyman in its midst, and as Bishop Horatio Potter once expressed himself to this Convention: "It is the Church's duty to minister to her children, wherever they may be found, at any reasonable cost."

The following plan has been suggested in this Archdeaconry, which is now under consideration: That an Itinerant Missionary be appointed by the Bishop, and that there be associated with him three young men, who shall give to the Missions now existing one Sunday service every week and constant pastoral supervision, and it was further suggested that the Bishop follow the same plan of keeping the mission field of the Diocese supplied which has been so successful in the Bronx Church House—namely, to pledge certain of his candidates in the General Theological Seminary or other seminaries to a year's service during their Diaconate in the missionary work of this Diocese.

I have further to report that the Archdeaconry has been organized on the lines laid down by Mr. Stetson in the resolution printed on page 111 of the Journal of 1908, as a branch or auxiliary of the Commission on Social Service.

The Treasurer's report is appended.

Respectfully submitted,

A. T. ASHTON,
Archdeacon.

ARCHDEACONRY OF DUTCHESS.

Summary of Treasurer's Report for the Year Ending October 1, 1909.

Cash on hand October 1, 1908.....$000 00

Income from October 1, 1908, to Oct. 1, 1909:

Chelsea.....	.....	52 90

In addition to the $100 salary paid to the missionary at Stone House, the Archdeaconry pays the rent and for a portion of the fuel.

During the year the Archdeaconry has borrowed constantly, and there has never been a time since the date of the last report that the Archdeaconry has been out of debt. This has been caused entirely by the failure of the diocese and the parishes in the Archdeaconry to meet their apportionments.

The question of the apportionment made by the diocesan committee should be taken up with that body vigorously at the next meeting of the Convention. A definite understanding should be arrived at as to whether we are to receive the money appropriated or not. If not, the work in the County of Dutchess should be curtailed to meet the new conditions, or else the apportionments on the parishes in the County of Dutchess must be raised. It is useless to attempt to run the financial end of the Archdeaconry on the present basis of expenditure unless we have our income assured.

The thanks of the Archdeaconry are particularly due to Zion Church, Wappingers Falls, for their most generous voluntary contribution in excess of their apportionment.

Respectfully submitted,

HARRY C. BARKER,
Treasurer.

Report

OF THE ARCHDEACON OF NEW YORK.

In reviewing the Missionary work above the Harlem River during the past year we recognize with renewed thankfulness the great help which has come to it from the Bronx Church House. This spacious and finely equipped building may well be called the headquarters of our forward movement up there. It is a great object lesson of the value of such an Auxiliary, and it is maintained on a scale of usefulness large enough to be felt throughout the whole Borough. Its ministry of service is not confined to its own walls. Its resident clergy, together with the Deaconesses who live in the adjoining building, are, by their wise and loving co-operation, daily helping on the progress of neighboring Parishes and Missions. Our own work has been attended by steady encouragement from the people for whose benefit it has been carried on. Without reciting details at this time, it may be said, first of all, that every one of our congregations in the Bronx pays its own expenses, with the exception of the stipend of the Missionary in charge. Furthermore, the attendance at the religious services and at the Sunday-schools has been a constant evidence of healthy growth.

Our principal Missionary helpers are as follows:

The Rev. Percival McIntire, St. Stephen's Church, Woodlawn.
The Rev. Arthur Ketchum, St. George's Church, Williamsbridge.
The Rev. C. C. Clifton, St. David's Chapel (for colored people).
The Rev. Kenneth A. Bray, Chapel of the Holy Spirit.
The Rev. Wm. Victor Mori, Chapel of the Atonement.
The Rev. Duncan H. Browne, St. Martha's Chapel.

The Rev. John Goodman (of Grace Parish), Emmanuel Mission.
The Rev. James A. Skinner, General Missionary.
The Rev. Carmelo Di Sano, St. Ambrose Italian Mission.
Mr. Herbert McCallion, Mission of the Good Shepherd.

For funds for salaries we are largely indebted to the Bishop through the Church House Foundation.

The Rev. Richard H. Wevill, Deacon, who until recently has had charge of the Mission of the Holy Spirit, has made an excellent record by his faithfulness and won from the people their grateful and affectionate esteem.

The Rev. George E. Talmage, of Grace Parish, finished his work at Emmanuel Mission on November 1st, after an earnest and fruitful service.

The Rev. Stanley Brown-Serman has also withdrawn from the Bronx for duty elsewhere, leaving behind him, at the Chapel of the Atonement, a flock that cherishes the memory of his ministry.

The Mission of the Good Shepherd at Wakefield was opened last spring with a little band of worshippers in a rented room, in imitation of the five self-supporting parishes which, some years ago, began their existence as small Missions, under Lay Readers, in similar quarters. Wakefield, which lies between Williamsbridge and Mount Vernon, is more and more drawing from the stream of population that is pouring northward from the lower part of the city, and the outlook there is full of promise.

A most inviting field for Missionary enterprise has been found at Hunt's Point, where the population is rapidly growing, but we have not yet been able to occupy the ground.

During the summer months five hundred and sixty-five beneficiaries, mostly women and children, were sent to Fresh Air Homes in the country for one or two weeks' rest and refreshment, and the usual number of excursions were provided for Sunday-school children.

We are grateful for the contributions of money reported by the Treasurer, and also for the following gifts:

One large Bible for St. George's Church, Williamsbridge; 202 new garments for men, women and children, also second-hand garments, the total value being $122.71, from the Women's Auxiliary of the Church of the Holy Communion, New York; 100 articles of clothing, etc., from the New York Branch of the Needlework Guild; 10 dresses from the Wilson Industrial School for Girls.

An officer of the Diocesan Auxiliary to the Cathedral, who is also connected with the New York Branch of the Women's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions, has generously fitted up one of the rooms at the Diocesan House as a chapel in memory of Bishop Potter.

In the effort to make the Diocesan House as useful as possible, two young men's clubs, one Japanese and the other Italian, have been maintained there for some months, and with good results.

It is well known that success has attended the Church's work among Italians in this city, notably at the Church of San Salvatore in Broome Street; at Grace Chapel, near which German families are fast giving place to Italians; and lastly in "Little Italy," where St. Ambrose Italian Mission began a few years ago with a small Sunday-school in a rented storeroom, and now has its own chapel, parish house and roof garden, with over two hundred communicants. And all this is a strong reminder of the manner in which sons and daughters of Italy, outside of the Roman Obedience, welcome the spiritual homes in which we offer them the Gospel in their own tongue.

We are told that about three-fourths of the inhabitants of Greater New York are either immigrants or the children of immigrants. Well, what are we doing to reach them? What are we doing to leaven with righteousness the multitudes of adopted citizens who are as sheep having no shepherd? What are we doing to help to discipline and lead the army of unlettered adults who do not speak our language and never will speak it, because they live in colonies and work for the most part side by side with their compatriots?

We have a few Missions for Italians, but of the 500,000 of that nationality in this city large numbers are still churchless. We have no Missions for tens of thousands of men and women of other strange tongues who are ignorant of our language, and groping in the dark for a better understanding of better ideals. We rejoice to know that heathen strongholds in other lands are going down before the storming columns of the Church Militant; but is it not time for us to awake to the importance of bearing our share of the task of winning victories of the faith over strongholds of heathenism close to our doors?

It costs many millions of dollars to provide this city with water. Fortunately it is not possible to say that such an expenditure of money is simply to set a full stream pressing at the faucets of one-third or one-half of the city's homes, while the rest of the homes are as destitute of such a supply as tents on an arid desert. It ought to be equally impossible to say that the Church is spending great sums in carrying the water of life to a favored minority of the city's population while most of the inhabitants are neglected. It is a gracious and merciful charity that ministers to the wrecks of manhood and womanhood that are found stranded on the islands in East River, but the wisest and best mercy that can animate the Church's service for humanity is to help her tempest-tossed children to weather life's storms. The Archdeaconry of New York is ready to undertake a large work among the multitudes brought hither out of many kindreds and tongues. Is the Church ready to provide the funds?

The Diocesan Convention of last year, sitting as the Board of Missions, appropriated $10,000 for this Archdeaconry's entire Mission work. But of this sum we received during the past year from the Fund for Diocesan Missions only $2,699.35. The offerings throughout the Diocese, and particularly in this city, for that Fund fell so far short of the total amount appropriated for the five Archdeaconries that our share, like that of the fields outside of Manhattan and the Bronx, fell short accordingly. Fortunately, however, help from other sources amounting to $5,427.15 has enabled us to go ahead.

And we are still going ahead, in the confidence that we shall be enabled by the friends of Church Extension to make good use of some, if not of all, of our opportunities in the coming year, even if we may not hope for any further share of the offerings in this city for Diocesan Missions.

Respectfully submitted,

Report

OF THE ARCHDEACON OF RICHMOND.

A statement of the work accomplished during the past year and a report on the present status of affairs in the Archdeaconry of Richmond must begin with a record of the great loss sustained in the death of Mr. Edwin B. Arnold, who for eight years was the ever active and efficient treasurer of the Archdeaconry, and who entered into eternal rest in May last. Too much credit cannot be given to our late treasurer for the successful management of the finances of the Archdeaconry during years of no little stress, when constant alertness and the true missionary spirit were called for in matters financial.

Many times when the Treasury was empty Mr. Arnold kept a knowledge of the fact from his co-workers and quietly cared for the stipends of the missionaries out of his own resources that the work should not be hindered or stopped.

A noble Christian character, a genial and gentle temperament combined with a vigorous manhood and a consecrated affection for the Church have made a lasting impression on those who have been associated with him in advancing the Church's work on Staten Island.

Mr. Ralph McKee was chosen to succeed Mr. Arnold, and has already shown such an intelligent and devoted interest in the affairs of the Archdeaconry as promise well for our future.

St. Simon's Mission, Concord, the Rev. Wm. G. Thompson, Priest-in-charge, continues to show growth in every direction, and will no doubt soon apply to the Convention for admission as an organized parish. Among other improvements during the year, a new pipe organ has been successfully installed. Mr. Thompson continues to minister to the spiritual needs of the Mariner's Family Asylum, as in the past.

Trinity Church, New Dorp, made vacant by the resignation of the Rector, the Rev. Wood Stewart, in January last, was, at the request of the Vestry, placed by the Bishop under the immediate supervision of the Archdeacon. The work was continued by supply ministrations until October, when the Rev. David Bowen was appointed minister-in-charge. Mr. Bowen has already infused new life into the parish, has revived all the parochial activities, and his tactful, earnest leadership promises well for the future of a work limited by many unfavorable conditions. Mr. Bowen, with the assistance of the Archdeacon and a lay reader, Mr. Lienhardt, continues his charge of the Church of the Holy Comforter, Eltingville, which during the year has increased its active communicant list, added to its Parish House, made several improvements in the Church building, and is to-day out of debt, with Church, Rectory and Parish House all in excellent condition.

All Saints' Church, Mariner's Harbor, an assisted parish, lost its rector, the Rev. Dr. J. B. Blanchet, who resigned September 1st to become rector of the Church of the Beloved Disciple, Philadelphia. A call was extended last month to the Rev. Wm. W. Mix, of the Diocese of Long Island, who has taken hold of this difficult field with a vigor and zeal that augur well for the growth of the parish. The stoppage of the Steel Mills and other industries in this growing portion of the Island, throwing many out of employment, renders it necessary for the Archdeaconry to give all possible aid to the maintaining of the work.

The Italian Mission at Mariner's Harbor suspended operations June 1st last, and has not as yet been reopened, though a renewal of the work is now under contemplation. The Archdeaconry is fully alive to the need of continuing its missionary effort among the large numbers of Italians residing on Staten Island, but is hampered by lack of funds to prosecute the work successfully, not only in Mariner's Harbor, but in at least two other centres.

St. Stephen's Church, Tottenville, another assisted parish, reports a fairly satisfactory growth under the rectorship of the Rev. Guy A. Jamieson, who now occupies the new rectory built by the parish last year.

The Archdeacon now co-operates with the City Mission Society in ministrations of the City Farm Colony.

The Mill Road Mission, a self-sustaining mission and Sunday-school at New Dorp Beach, continues its most effective labors among the people, and particularly among the children of this quite inaccessible locality.

Services and private ministrations are continued by the Archdeacon at Linoleumville intermittently, but there is pressing need here for the opening of an organized mission, to take spiritual care of the Church families residing in this village. Only lack of funds prevents the more effective prosecution of this work.

Services are continued under the direction of Mr. Arthur A. Michell, the Secretary of the Archdeaconry at the Actors' Home, and the same may be said of the Marine Hospital, where the several Chapters of the St. Andrew's Brotherhood maintain Sunday services, the clergy of the Island making the addresses.

The Social Service Commission has completed its organization in this Archdeaconry and operations have already been begun by the Committee on the child problem under the leadership of A. A. Michell, Esq., Chairman, who is the probation officer for Richmond, and who at the present time has twenty-seven boys on parole under his supervision. The other committees will begin active work in the near future.

Our financial report, while showing a cash balance on hand November 1st amounting to $163.15, also shows that with all debts paid there is a deficit of $146.35. The appropriation for the Archdeaconry of Richmond voted by the Convention last November was $3,600, which, less the amount apportioned to those Staten Island parishes which do not draw from the Archdeaconry funds ($655), would have brought us $2,945. Of this amount we actually received $1,875, or about $1,100 less than was apportioned. Had we received the full amount of the apportionment a considerable portion of the missionary work pressing upon us for attention might have been cared for.

CHARLES S. BURCH,
Archdeacon.

Mr. Henry Lewis Morris offered the following amendment, which was accepted by Archdeacon Thomas:

Resolved, That the amount to be raised for Diocesan Missions be $18,000, and that such amount be distributed among the Archdeaconries outside the Archdeaconry of New York, and that the distribution be left to a Special Committee consisting of the Treasurers of the Archdeaconries outside of New York with the Treasurer of the Board of Missions.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. Charles S. Burch, D.D., moved that the ballot be dispensed with, and that the following persons be elected as members of the Board of Missions:

Rev. W. H. Vibbert, D.D.	Mr. Irving Grinnell.
Rev. Henry M. Barbour.	Mr. Andrew C. Zabriskie.
Rev. J. L. Parks, D.D.	Mr. Albert C. Rust.
Rev. John Huske.	Mr. Henry Lewis Morris.
Rev. George H. Toop.	Mr. H. G. Woodruff.

Which was adopted.

On motion Mr. Henry Lewis Morris was elected Treasurer of the Board of Missions.

On motion the Board of Missions arose and the Convention received the reports of the inspectors of election.

On motion the ballot was dispensed with, and Mr. E. M. Camp was elected a Deputy to the Missionary Council.

The Rev. M. H. Gates moved that the Committee on Revision of Parochial Reports be continued, and that they report at the next Convention, which was adopted.

The Secretary offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, That 1,800 copies of the Journal of the Convention be printed, and distributed under the direction of the Secretary.

Resolved, That 1,500 copies of the address of the Bishop be printed separately for distribution.

Which were adopted.

The Rev. James E. Freeman presented the following report:

Report

OF THE SOCIAL SERVICE COMMISSION OF THE DIOCESE OF NEW YORK.

In accordance with the resolution constituting this Commission, adopted at the last Convention, the Commission was directed "particularly to supervise the organization" of Social Service Boards in the several Archdeaconries, with a view to making those Boards the agencies for practical local work.

The Commission reports that, in accordance with the instructions of the Convention, such Social Service Boards have been organized in the Archdeaconries of New York, Richmond and Westchester, but that such organization has not yet been effected in Dutchess and Orange. The only one of these Social Service Boards which has been in existence a sufficient time to undertake active work is that in the Archdeaconry of New York. (A copy of its programme of work undertaken is attached to this report, and copies have also been distributed to members of Convention for their information.) That Board took steps to secure the preaching of sermons on Social Service topics on Sunday, May 9th, and to arrange communion services at convenient locations for the social workers in the settlements and the parishes.

Following the plan of organization of the Social Service Commission, it has appointed three committees—on the Industrial Problem, the Child Problem, and Excise respectively. Through its Committee on the Industrial Problem it has conducted noon-day services in factories, and it asks the assistance of the clergy of the city to extend that work. It also requests that the churches in the city, through their Girls' Friendly Societies and other organizations containing working men and women, take up the study of the living wage. The Committee on the Child Problem has put itself in touch with the Children's Court and is attempting to secure, through the churches, big brothers—that is, men willing to act as volunteer probation officers, to whom may be assigned by the court delinquent or wayward boys, whom it is not desirable to commit to institutions and who need in reality nothing more than a friend to guide and encourage them in order that they may become good citizens.

As by resolution of the Convention this Commission was further entrusted in general "with jurisdiction of the several matters embraced in its report" to the last Convention; it reports that under this power it has appointed fraternal delegates to the Central Federated Labor Unions in New York and Poughkeepsie. It has also a representation on the Committee on Unemployment in New York City and on the Commission on the Church and Social Service of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

Through its Committee on the Child Problem the Commission conducted a special service in Trinity Chapel; and it desires to call the attention of the Church in New York to the importance of its child problem, and to the need of further activity to remedy existing evil conditions arising from child labor in the tenement houses, where work is now carried on by children from two to six years of age at all hours, and by children from six to fourteen out of school hours into the night and on Saturdays and Sundays.

In general, as a result of its studies and its efforts during the year past, the Commission has become profoundly impressed with the great importance of the work entrusted to it and the necessity of the extension of that work. It is painful to us to see our own Church lag behind in the fulfilment of its Christian obligations. But we have been forced to realize that it is impossible for the Church to live up to its obligation of social service without the appointment in the Church at large (and probably ultimately in this Diocese also) of a special secretary, a paid official who shall devote his whole time and energy to organizing and co-ordinating the social service work of the Church. The rectors of parishes are unable to give the necessary time and attention to schemes and details of organization, and, moreover, as a rule, they are not experts and can not be experts in such work. The Presbyterians have recognized the situation by making Social Service a part of the home mission work of their Church and appointing a special secretary to devote himself to that work. In their central office in New York they are now spending some $30,000 a year for this purpose, and the results are apparent in an awakening of the Presbyterian Churches to their obligations and opportunities in this regard, in closer contact of the churches with the working men and women, and in a redoubled energy in dealing with social problems in general.

In view of this experience the Commission recommends to this Convention that it petition the General Convention of the Church, as it has already recognized social service work as a pressing obligation of the present day, to make that recognition practical and effective by constituting social service an integral part of its mission work, and appointing an efficient secretary to organize and promote social service work in the Church throughout the United States.

The Commission on the Church and Social Service of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, on which body this Commission is represented, has recommended to all churches formally and officially to call attention of the Christian men of this country to certain simple obligations resting upon them in the application of their Christianity to industrial problems. It is not merely a Christian obligation to devote one day out of each seven to rest and devotion; one day's rest in seven is each man's right, and no Christian man or woman employing another may exact from that other labor seven days in the week. Under the conditions of modern industry, certain work must go on Sundays and week-days alike, but that does not necessitate work by any given individual through all seven days. To those to whom a rest day cannot be given on Sunday, it may be given on some other day, and by Christians it must be given as a right.

But it would be a sad thing for the working man if the Church, demanding one day's rest in seven, should thereby lead to the reduction of the wage of those for whom it secured this holiday; and therefore to this declaration of the right of each man to a day of rest on one day in the week, we add further that he is entitled to a rest from labor on one day in the week without a consequent reduction of his wage; that he shall receive, in other words, a living wage for six days' work. It is an obligation of that relation of brotherhood which Christianity professes and expresses that Christian employers should pay their employees a living wage—i.e., a wage which will permit the employee to live in a manner consonant with health, decency and reasonable comfort.

And since, as a necessary condition of decent and healthy living, the hours of labor must not be such as to deprive the employee of the opportunity of rest and recreation, time for home and family life and association with his fellows and of a reasonable opportunity to develop body, mind and soul, and since it is clear that where these conditions are violated working men and women are brutalized and bestialized, driven to intemperance and immorality, disease developed, the death rate increased, and the little children born to them into the world condemned to a condition of degradation, a development downward instead of upward; therefore, it is an obligation of the Christian employer to exact from his employees only reasonable hours of labor.

Following the recommendations of that Commission, we desire to emphasize, therefore, before this Convention, the obligation of employers to see to it that the industries in which they are concerned are so conducted that their employees may receive a living wage for work done; that they shall be employed only during reasonable hours, permitting a daily opportunity for rest, recreation and refreshment; and, above all, so to conduct their industries that every employee therein may receive, without deduction from the living wage, one day of rest in seven; and we submit to you the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That this Convention petition the General Convention, as it has recognized social service as a vital obligation of the Church at the moment, to make this recognition effective by taking such steps as may be necessary to the appointment of an expert secretary or agent to direct and develop social service work in the Church:

2. Resolved, That this Convention call upon members of the Church in this Diocese who are employers of labor, so to organize their labor that all employees may receive one day's rest in seven, without reduction of the weekly compensation.

3. Resolved, That this Convention call upon all employers of industry in the Diocese of New York so to organize their work that their employees may have reasonable hours of labor, with proper opportunity for rest and development of body, mind and soul.

4. Resolved, That this Convention call upon all employers of labor in the Diocese of New York to put in practice the fraternal obligation of our Christian profession by so organizing their industries as to give each employee a living wage.

For the Commission,

JOHN P. PETERS,
Vice-Chairman.

The Rev. Mr. Freeman offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Commission on Social Service be continued, the individual members of the said Commission to be appointed by the Bishop, under the resolution by which the Commission was originally constituted.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. James V. Chalmers offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, By decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States the saloon has been declared a breeding place of crime, a harbor of depraved and criminal classes, and that associated with it are to be found the vices which undermine youth, manhood and womanhood, and

WHEREAS, In the business world the great corporations engaged in manufacturing and transportation discriminate against the man patronizing the saloon, and

WHEREAS, In the social world there are many families rich and poor, which suffer from the evil of the liquor traffic, and

WHEREAS, The progress of the Kingdom of God is greatly hindered by the liquor traffic, be it

Resolved, That this Convention puts itself on record as utterly antagonistic to the liquor traffic, and holds itself ready to join with other Christian bodies in the fight for the abolition of this great evil.

The Rev. J. Lewis Parks moved to lay it on the table, which was adopted.

The Rev. John M. Chew moved that the question of the evils of the liquor traffic be referred to the Social Service Commission, which was adopted.

It was moved that after the reading of the minutes and the usual devotions, the Convention adjourn sine die, which motion was adopted.

The minutes were read and approved.

The devotions were conducted by the Bishop of Vermont.

The Bishop of the Diocese pronounced the Benediction, and declared the Convention adjourned sine die.

DAVID H. GREER, Bishop.

Attest:

ROBERT B. KIMBER,
Secretary of Convention.

APPENDIX A.

BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

BRETHREN OF THE CLERGY AND LAITY:

The record of my official acts during the past Convention Year, and of which I am required by the Canons to make report, has been already printed and distributed among you, and therefore it is not necessary to tax your time and patience with a further recital of them. I simply wish to say that while I am conscious—no one so much as I—of many lacks and failures in the performance of these duties, I have at least tried, with such Divine assistance as has been vouchsafed me, to accomplish and discharge them. I also wish to express my grateful appreciation of the staunch and loyal support which without exception you have so freely given me, and which has done so much to make my burden easy and to make my labors light.

It has been my duty as well as my privilege during the past year to cover and traverse, if not the whole Diocesan field, at least the greater part of it, and to visit almost every Church and mission station in it. This has enabled me to study at first-hand the needs and opportunities as well as the difficulties of the rural part of the diocese, and to become more familiar and better acquainted with it; and in this connection I desire to bear witness to the unwearied and patient fidelity with which for the most part that rural work, in spite of much to hinder the prosecution of it, is conducted and carried on. The rector of a city parish has his problems and his burdens; they are hard and heavy enough, as I know from my own experience; but he also has what his clerical brother in the country church does not have: he has and feels the quickening inspiration of the city life and spirit; he is not so isolated and so lonesome; he is more in touch with people, and the fruits of his labor are usually more abundant and more in evidence to him. And while the demands which are made upon his time and strength are numerous and exacting, his work is, on the whole, a more stimulating work and does not have the same dull monotony in it. But to go steadily on week after week, month after month, year in and year out, in the same worn and trodden path of unrelieved duty, with little or no refreshing change, no novelty of circumstance, no romantic glamor and no variety in it—this is hard work; it is heroism; and this is what I have seen and found in our own diocesan and missionary field, and for which I bespeak your interest and support. You cannot change the conditions; they are what they are, and as such for the most part they will still remain, and those who labor in them make no complaint against them. Patiently and bravely, yes, and cheerfully, they continue in them, faithfully performing the duties which confront them. But this at least you can do—I am speaking now especially to the Clergy and Laity of the parishes of the city and of some of the larger parishes beyond the city limits—you can have the privilege of sharing in the work by making full provision for the maintenance of those who toil and labor in it, and easing thus to some extent the burden of their care. Their stipends are at the most poor and meagre enough, and action was taken at the least Convention looking towards their increase. The Committee having the matter in charge will, I presume, at the proper time report to this Convention to what extent the end desired has been attained and reached, and I will not anticipate their report. I do, however, here and now most earnestly urge upon you the importance of the duty of making full provision for the missionary work that is done in our own diocesan field. Whatever the salaries of the missionaries may be they should be promptly paid; and I ask you, my brethren of the Clergy, to make an earnest appeal to your congregations for large and liberal offerings in behalf of Diocesan Missions.

The present method of handling and distributing the funds for the missionary work of the diocese is not, in my judgment, businesslike. It is too complicated. At present there are six Treasurers for the missionary work of the diocese, one for the Board of Missions and one for each of the five Archdeaconries. They ought to be in some way related to one another. I would suggest, therefore, that all the money collected, whether by the Archdeaconries or by the Board of Missions, should first be sent directly or reported to the Treasurer of the Board of Missions, and then by him sent or credited to the several Archdeaconries, giving or crediting to each Archdeaconry the full amount collected by it, and supplementing that amount, as far as the funds in hand will enable him to do so, with what has been assigned to it by the Board of Missions. Then his books would show at a glance the financial situation. It would also tend to unify and centralize the work, to make it less sporadic and more strictly and thoroughly diocesan, by bringing the different Archdeaconries into touch with one another and through a common fiscal agent. But whatever the plan adopted, whether this or some other, I commend the subject to your consideration.

Leaving this for the present and passing on to the kindred subject of the Church's General Missions, I beg to congratulate you that the Diocese has this year met and paid in full its missionary apportionment. While some of the parishes have not contributed the whole amount assigned to them (and a few of these it should in fairness be said have not been able to do it, because of limited means or because of the heavy burdens of indebtedness which they carry and from which they cannot escape), others very generously have contributed more, and almost every parish and mission station has contributed something, with the happy result that the missionary apportionment has this year, and for the first time, been completely met; thus making the Diocese of New York, as it ought to be, both an example and an inspiration to every other diocese.

But what is this missionary work which the Church is trying to do, not only here but everywhere? What does it mean? It means this, that the religion of Jesus Christ is a religion for human life, and not for any part or section of human life, whether near or far away, Yellow, Black or White. It goes beneath our social and national divisions, our conventional distinctions, our classes and our castes, of every name and rank, and addressing itself to what is essentially human in them, it is heard to say, in the person of its Founder, "I, if I be lifted up, will draw all men unto me!" And why will He if lifted up draw all men to Himself? Not because He is a great or the greatest of all spiritual teachers or of all moral teachers or the greatest of moral examples for us to try to follow, imitate and copy. No, not merely because He is that, but because He also is very much more than that; because He is no less than the incarnation of God. Yes, the incarnation of God, pure, spotless, undefiled, of the Virgin Mary born: God manifest in the flesh. And that, too, is what within our limitations and according to our measure our human life should be. As physical nature reveals Him, so should human nature, our flesh and blood, reveal Him. It, too, should become an incarnation of Him. And that is what Jesus Christ enables it to become. He brings it into touch, into living touch with God, revealing God through it, and causing God more and more to take possession of it, and thus to make Him "both consciously and actively, as He is really, the indwelling presence of our souls and of our lives."

This must be the beginning or this must be the basis, the true and permanent basis, of our reformation, our social reformation or the reformation of the world. Social, civic, industrial and political reforms, institutional agencies, philanthropic schemes—all these are useful, are helpful and essential as factors in the work of human amelioration, and the Church must always recognize their value and their worth. It must not stand apart with an indifferent aloofness from anything that makes for human advance and betterment, but must always try to promote it. This cannot be too strongly emphasized and stressed. Yet at the same time it must not be forgotten that human advance and betterment while involving physical betterment involves something more. For man is something more; every man is more, whether in New York or Tokyo, than simply a physical creature. He has, deeply planted, Eternity within him, and must, therefore, be related to an eternal life; not to a future eternal life, but to a present eternal life, an eternal life that is. He must be related to God. Not to God as distant from and alien to himself and manifest in the stars, but as near and close at hand and manifest in the flesh. He must be related in other words to the eternal Christ. This is the background of our human life on which to inscribe the righteousness of God as in Jesus Christ revealed. Or this is the soil, so to speak, in which the Christian virtues, the distinctively Christian virtues, can be made to grow. Apart from this they may indeed for a time retain their fragrance and their beauty, their blossom and their fruit, but they will not continue to do it, but will gradually more and more shrivel, shrink and fade, and ultimately disappear.

Are there not at present some indications of it? Do we not perceive them? The absence here and there of a clean and high and pure moral standard, or the confusion which exists as to any moral standard. The prevalence of worldliness, avarice and greed; the lack of the sense of sin and the exceeding sinfulness of it; the disposition to regard righteousness and goodness as simply a conformity to social rule and convention, which may be set aside, and which so often is, whenever it interferes with some desired and coveted end, some personal convenience or some immediate pleasure. And then besides all this, and yet connected with it, the earnest and eager search to-day for richer life values, for a larger life content, for something that will satisfy this Eternity in us. All of it going to show that our human life, wherever it is found, in order to bear its best and finest moral fruitage and to continue to bear it, must be related to God, must be related to Jesus Christ, God manifest in the flesh. And the primary duty of the Christian Church is to establish this relation, this vital relation to Him, so that the life of God may more fully flow into the consciousness and conduct and life of the modern world.

For this work of the Christian Church there can be no substitute. We are attaching much importance to education to-day, to secular education, and doing much for it and spending much upon it. And rightly. For all this is good, is very good. And yet it should not be forgotten, what even the Church itself to-day is in danger of forgetting, that the school is not a substitute, cannot be a substitute, whether the public or the university school, for the work of the Christian Church; and that man cannot live, society cannot live, whether in America or Japan, its true and proper life, cannot live its human life by means of bread alone, whether physical or mental.

I do not, therefore, begrudge what to-day is given to secular education, to secular research. It is needed; all of it is needed and worthily bestowed. But it is a purblind policy which, while doing this, does not reinforce with an equally large or larger aid the work of the Christian Church, as the school of God for giving that spiritual education which is equally important, and in its pervasive and permeating influence equally practical with secular education, and which is also needed to regulate and guide or purify and dignify our secular pursuits.

Let the millions then be given to education to-day. Let them be poured freely out upon our colleges and our schools; but let them also be given as freely and as fully to the Church of Jesus Christ. But in order that this may be done, we must first give and consecrate ourselves. Ah, yes, my brethren, ourselves, each of us and all of us, clergymen and laymen; not to the worn and faded simulacrum of a dead and absent Christ, but to an ever present and ever living Christ. This in my judgment is the fundamental need of the Christian Church to-day. Without it all our canonical and legislative enactments, our ecclesiastical machinery, however wisely framed, will not work, or will not work well. But with that life of Jesus Christ, God manifest in the flesh, energizing in it, the machinery will work and will work well. Diocesan missions, domestic missions, missions world wide, will then receive a glad and generous support. Nor will the immediate parish work be hindered or impaired. It will, on the contrary, be lifted up to a higher plane and more effectively done. Our moral service, our social service, our service to the world, with all its sin and suffering and misery and want, will be a more devoted and beneficial service. The Church of Jesus Christ will be in this and every land the mighty power of God working in and through it.

Let us then continue to teach and to preach and in ourselves to show this living Jesus Christ. If this is not the Gospel I do not know what is, or whether there be any Gospel. Let us keep and hold it and not refine it away. It conquered the world once, and it and it alone can conquer the world again. And it is nothing less than the conquest of the world that constitutes the purpose of the Church of Jesus Christ. In keeping with this purpose we are trying to build in this metropolitan and heterogeneous city our great Cathedral Church. Not for vainglory, not for civic pride or ecclesiastical pride, are we trying to build it, but for the Christian conquest of a city where so many tribes and tongues and different races meet, and which is destined soon to become, as another has expressed it, the Clearing House of the world. Whatever, therefore, helps to win New York City for Christ will in no little measure help to win the world for Christ. That is the opportunity which, situated as it is in this cosmopolitan centre, our Cathedral has, and which perhaps no other Church, whether a Cathedral Church or a parish Church, nor missionary centre on the face of the earth possesses. Here upon this eminence in one of the world's great centres will our Cathedral stand, as a training school of God, touching with its Christian touch and with its Christian service not only the people here, but through the people gathered and coming and going here, the people everywhere; thus making our Cathedral a great central Christian force or Christian factor in the making of the world. Let us try to interpret its mission and its work in that larger way. And with that vision before us of what it can be and do, let us go on and build the remaining parts of the structure. It surely can be done by this Church of ours; then let us do it. In the meanwhile, let us not forget that one of its parts is even now approaching its completion and will soon be ready for use. Shall it be used when it is ready? That is a question which the people of this city and this diocese must answer, and which if answered affirmatively will enable the Cathedral to begin at once its missionary work and to make its contribution towards that Victory of the Faith of which we have already heard in connection with this Convention, and which I trust will make this Annual Convention the beginning of a new era of missionary work in the Diocese of New York, not only for the diocese but for the country and the world.

I have but little more to add. I said in my last Convention address that if, as the result of a year's experience, I found the burden too heavy I would tell you. Well, I have had the experience and have found the burden heavy at times and the life at times strenuous. But then so is yours. So is that of nearly every man to-day, whether clergyman or layman, who is trying to do his whole duty in the world. And if you wish me still to go on as I am going on, I will gladly and cheerfully do so. At the same time, I must very frankly tell you that it is impossible for me to do any more than I am already doing. But there is a more important question than what would be most helpful to me; it is what would be most helpful to the diocese; for it is the good of the diocese I have at heart and which I wish to promote. If, then, you feel that the diocese should receive more Episcopal care than I or any one Bishop, however well disposed, is able to give and render, there are three possible ways which at once suggest themselves for obtaining such a result. One is to divide the diocese, subject to the approval of the next General Convention. In order, however, to do this, it will be necessary first to determine what the dividing lines shall be, and also to provide some financial endowment for the diocese to be set off. And if this be thought desirable, a committee should be appointed during the present Convention with a view to ascertaining whether these preliminary requirements could be met; and if it was found that they could be, I would then call in the spring, or shortly after Easter, a special session of this Convention, and thus give ample time for the approval of the division by the General Convention when it meets next October. Another course is the election of a Bishop Coadjutor on the ground of extent of diocesan work, and after the General Convention had consented to such an election, or at an earlier day, as the Canon permits, after the consent of a majority of the Bishops and the several Standing Committees, which course could be taken at any time during the recess of the General Convention and without waiting for it to meet. The election, however, of a Coadjutor would necessitate or involve such a fixed division beforehand of Episcopal act and duty that the Bishop Coadjutor could not be assigned, except with his consent, to any other duties than those which had been assigned him before he was elected. And this, in my judgment, would not meet in the most effective manner the constantly varying and changing needs of a diocese such as this, and is not a desirable course if it can be avoided. Still another is the election of a Suffragan Bishop, if the next Convention shall ratify the constitutional amendment proposed at and approved by the last General Convention providing for Suffragan Bishops. And if that be thought desirable, then there is nothing to do at present but to wait and see what the General Convention will do.

And now, if after having named the three possible ways of securing in the diocese an increased Episcopal efficiency, you ask me for my preference, I would say, first, that I do not prefer, for the reasons which I have mentioned, a Bishop Coadjutor; not because he would not be helpful to me—I am leaving that out of the question—but because I am satisfied, after a year's experience in studying the needs of the work, such a course would not be for the best interests of this diocese. If, however, you wish for a Suffragan Bishop, in case the General Convention shall finally approve and ratify the Suffragan amendment, I will give my consent, because I believe, if we are to have another Bishop, a Suffragan rather than a Coadjutor would more effectively meet those constantly changing conditions and exigencies of the work in a diocese such as this, and which cannot possibly be anticipated or designated beforehand. Or if you wish a division of the diocese on the ground of diocesan work, I will give my consent. If you wish such a division to take place now, then, as I have said, a committee should be appointed now to take the first steps towards carrying out your wish and to be ready to make report to a special session of this Convention some time in the spring, and before the meeting of the next General Convention.

And now, having stated the case and indicated my preferences, either for a Suffragan Bishop or a division of the diocese, I leave it in your hands to take such action in the premises as you think will best promote the welfare of the Church. Praying that the blessing of God may rest upon the work which has been entrusted to us, and that we may be moved to give ourselves to Him Who in the living Jesus Christ gives himself to us, I commend you to His guidance and His care.

DETAILED ACCOUNT OF VISITATIONS AND ACTS.

This report is for the period since the beginning of my incumbency—20th June, 1909, to November 1, 1909. Previous to this time, since the resignation of the Rev. J. O. Davis, no records have been kept. Sunday-school, however, was maintained without interruption, and Morning Service, with a monthly celebration of the Holy Communion, was held regularly with one or two exceptions.

The financial exhibit is not presented for reasons already submitted to the Secretary of Convention. It should be said, however, that my salary has been regularly paid, and all other parochial obligations satisfied, or about to be, and, further, that the fiscal year closes with an asset balance of about $200 and a contingent fund of $385.

During the past year the Parish has acquired the property No. 236 East Thirty-first Street, the house immediately west of the Chapel of the Incarnation. This is being altered so as to be convenient as the home of the Vicar and his Curate. It is the generous gift of Mr. James McLean.

The Parish mourns the death of John L. Riker, Esq., for nearly forty years a member of the Vestry and at his decease the Senior Warden.

According to Federation Census, the Protestant population of Harlem has decreased 26 per cent. in five years. It is now but 27 per cent. of the entire population. Meanwhile the Hebrew percentage has increased 15 per cent., and is now of the total population a full 45 per cent. People of means are removing from this section in large numbers. Protestants coming here are people of moderate incomes. Such conditions confront. People in Harlem can support churches freed from debt. This is plainly stated to throw light upon the state of the Parish and in the prayerful hope that the eyes of the generous may see it in this light.

In the absence of canonical direction, the Rector of St. Andrew's reports some three hundred names of communicants, still on books, yet unknown; or, if known, have declined to ask for a letter of transfer. Something ought to be done to make church statistics more accurate.

Since the last report a very beautiful Mortuary Chapel has been built to the glory of God and in memory of the first Rector, who was the founder of the Parish. In this Chapel asylum is given, absolutely without expense, to the mortal remains of any one, of any creed, from the hour of death to the hour of burial. The exterior of the Chapel is in brick; the interior in mahogany wainscot to the height of 15 feet from the floor, and from that point the ceiling begins, arching to the height of 25 feet from the floor. The ceiling is covered with paintings on canvas by Italian artists: "The Last Judgment," of Fra Angelico, and also his "Glory in Paradise"; also Giovani's "Agony of Christ," and the "Resurrection," by Doyle Penrose. The lighting, besides the five rich stained glass windows, is from hanging lamps. The Chapel has been reared upon a close study of what the Resurrection means to immortal souls—its symbols, emblems and embellishments give to the contemplative uplifting thoughts and aspirations.

Religious work in Crotonville was begun by the Rev. George W. Ferguson, Rector of Trinity Church, Ossining, who for many years conducted services in the district schoolhouse and ministered to the people. In 1897 Miss Martha Potter, Miss Blanche Potter, Mrs. Walter Geer and Mr. Frederick Potter erected on the Potter estate, and in memory of their father, O. B. Potter, the building called "Grace Hall," to be a home for the developing of spiritual, charitable and educational work. This building, with about an acre of land, has now been deeded to the Church House Foundation, of which the Bishop of the Diocese is president; and the sum of $25,000 from the estate of the late Martha Potter has been given as an endowment, half the income being for the maintenance of Church services and half for the support of charitable and industrial work.

In July regular Sunday services were begun in the Hartsdale Fire Company's House, Hartsdale, Town of Greenburgh, Westchester County. At the first service the Venerable the Archdeacon of Westchester was present with the Rector of this parish, and preached.

Since then the Rector of this parish has held service at four, with a sermon (this parish sending supplies during the Rector's vacation), and has administered the Holy Communion once, to eighteen communicants, and has taken charge of the pastoral work. The people have met their expenses, which have been small. A Woman's Guild is organized and working, but as yet no definite step has been taken towards parochial organization.

The steam plant for heating the Church and Parish House, mentioned in my report last year, has been installed and is giving excellent satisfaction.

A stained glass memorial window has been given since my last report, making in all thirteen very fine memorial windows presented to the Parish during the last four years.

We have now but a little over fifty dollars to raise in order to cancel the debt on the Rectory, which was $800. This we expect to do by January 1, 1910.

An alms box and two alms basins were presented in memory of Leonard Tompkins.

APPENDIX D.

CLERICAL REPORTS.

The Bishop of the Diocese has also received reports, according to the Canon, from the following clergymen of the Diocese, not having parochial or missionary charge:

The Rev. August Ahrens.

"During the second year of my Diaconate I have assisted the Rector of Grace Church, Nyack, the Rev. Franklin Babbitt, at 106 services, and at 15 celebrations. I have officiated at services outside the parish, by request, 5 times. Preached 16 sermons; baptisms, in the absence of the Rector, 2; funerals, 5; presented to the Rector 10 candidates for Confirmation; prepared for the Rector 35 candidates for Confirmation; Sunday visitations to the Nyack Hospital, 26; to the sick in the Parish, 55. Made 242 calls on the poor and needy and taught a class in the Sunday-school."

The Rev. Sturgis Allen,

Superior O.H.C.

"During the past year my residence has been at Holy Cross, West Park, New York. I have said Morning and Evening Prayer daily, and, with but few exceptions, I have celebrated the Holy Eucharist every day.

"While the Rectorship of Ascension Parish was vacant Sunday-school and Evening Service were held in a building near the railway station at West Park. On February 2, 1909, at the request of the Diocesan, the Bishop of Salina held a Confirmation there, and four persons were confirmed."

The Rev. W. Brown-Serman

The Rev. David A. Bonnar

"Respectfully reports that during the convention year he has continued the duties of Chaplain to St. Michael's Home, Mamaroneck, the Home of the Midnight Mission. He has baptized 10, and presented 13 for Confirmation. The Bishop of Pittsburgh very kindly officiated at the Confirmation, in the absence of the Diocesan.

"He also reports that he has, from time to time, assisted in various ways his brethren of the Clergy, and especially at the Church of the Transfiguration during July and August, where he baptized 4 adults and 1 infant and solemnized 22 marriages."

THE REV. P. K. CADY, D.D.

"Respectfully reports to the Bishop of New York that during the past year he has preached twice, and celebrated the Holy Communion every Lord's day during seven months of the year."

THE REV. HENRY A. DOWS

"Respectfully reports that during the convention year he has officiated as Chaplain of the House of the Annunciation, New York."

THE REV. ARTHUR WENTWORTH H. EATON

"Respectfully reports that he is still engaged with historical research and writing in Boston, and that with license from the Bishop of Massachusetts he is continually taking services on Sundays under the direction of the Archdeaconry."

THE REV. E. H. C. GOODWIN.

"Since my last report I have been attending All Saints' Church, Rustenstown, in which parish Glyndon is situated. Until the last few months, I have assisted in all the services when present, celebrating about monthly. Now I am not able to move freely about the Chancel."

THE REV. RANDALL C. HALL, D.D.

"During the past year I have assisted in the Church of St. Mary the Virgin, New York, and have served as Chaplain of the House of the Holy Comforter, New York City. In the latter Institution there have been 4 funerals. For three months, in vacation, I conducted service in the Chapel on Money Island, off Stony Creek, Connecticut."

THE REV. J. GOTTFRIED HAMMERSKÖLD

"Respectfully reports that during the past year he has held services at twenty-six different places in the States of Connecticut, Colorado, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania and Rhode Island. He has conducted 224 services, taken part in 80, preached 165 sermons, delivered 64 addresses, administered the Holy Communion 32 times, baptized 23 children, solemnized 10 marriages and officiated at 20 funerals."

THE REV. ALONZO NORTON HENSHAW

"Reports that he has frequently officiated during the year just ended."

THE REV. HARWOOD HUNTINGTON, PH.D.,

"Respectfully reports that during the past year he has visited many of our Missions in Japan, Corea and China. He has done missionary work in the Diocese of Southern Florida for four months, and has preached, lectured or assisted whenever opportunity offered."

THE REV. JAMES O. S. HUNTINGTON, O.H.C.,

"Reports that as Chaplain of St. Faith's Home, Tarrytown, there have been, between October 1, 1908, and October 1, 1909, Celebrations of the Holy Communion, 30; Baptisms: adults, 5; infants, 4; Funerals, 3."

THE REV. GEORGE H. HOOPER

"Reports that he is no longer on the staff of the Church of St. Mary the Virgin, having left at the expiration of the rectorship of the Rev. George M. Christian, D.D., on March 1, 1909. He is living in Brooklyn, occupied partly in teaching and in taking occasional services. He has thus officiated once at the Church of the Holy Trinity and once at the Church of the Redeemer, both in Brooklyn."

THE REV. JOHN VAUGHAN LEWIS, D.D.,

"Reports that he is still wholly disabled from duty."

THE REV. WILLIAM G. W. LEWIS

"Reports that during the past year his health has been, for the most part, good. He has been able to preach about seven times, and to administer, or assist in, the Holy Communion on nine occasions, and to marry one couple. For all which he has been, and is, truly thankful."

THE REV. JOHN A. MCCAUSLAND

"Respectfully reports that under the mandate of the neurologists attending him he has been inhibited from any active work, which he is assured he may resume in the fall of 1910."

THE REV. W. MCGLATHERY

"Reports that, because of impaired health, he has been unable to do the work of the ministry during the past year."

THE REV. T. GARDINER LITTELL, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports that during the past year, after recovery from an illness, he assisted the Rev. John M. Ericsson, Rector of St. John's Church, Yonkers, in services and visiting. He baptized one infant and officiated at burials. He also continued his mission work of the last fifteen summers at Jefferson, N. H., holding services and performing the usual duties."

THE REV. D. PARKER MORGAN, D.D.,

Rector Emeritus of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, New York City,

"Respectfully reports that during the past year he has officiated at the Church of the Heavenly Rest, and elsewhere in the Diocese of New York. Since September 1, 1908, he has officiated as minister-in-charge of Christ Church, Sharon, Conn., under a license from the Bishop of that Diocese."

THE REV. G. L. NICHOLAS, M.D.,

"Reports that during the past year he has ministered daily at the altar, and on occasions has preached and administered the Sacraments of Holy Baptism and Penance."

THE REV. J. NEWTON PERKINS

"Respectfully reports that he has been engaged the past year in his duties as Secretary of the American Church Building Fund Commission. Also, as occasion has offered, he has officiated on Sundays for his clerical brethren. Since his last report to the Diocesan Convention he has baptized four infants, married two couples and officiated at two funerals."

THE REV. WILFORD L. ROBBINS, D.D.

"In accordance with the canonical requirements, I hereby beg leave to report that during the past year I have been occupied with my duties as Dean of the General Theological Seminary, in preaching at various schools and colleges and in parochial Churches, as opportunity offered."

THE REV. WILLIAM J. SEABURY, D.D.,

Professor of Ecclesiastical Polity and Law in the General Theological Seminary,

"Respectfully reports that he has during the past year discharged the duties of his professorship in the Seminary, and has officiated in the services of the ministry as opportunity offered, having celebrated the Holy Eucharist 24 times, said Morning or Evening Prayer 87 times, preached twice, taking part in 4 funeral services and rendering casual assistance 5 times."

THE REV. C. THEODORE SEIBT, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports that owing to continued ill health he has been able during the year to officiate only a few times in the Missionary District of Southern Florida."

THE REV. J. NEVETT STEELE, Mus. Doc.,

"Reports that during the year he has officiated in the Diocese of New York, Long Island, and Newark, as occasion required, and that he is at present living in South Orange, N. J."

THE REV. ANSON PHELPS STOKES, JR.

"I still retain the positions of Secretary of Yale University and of Assistant Minister at St. Paul's Church, New Haven. My religious duties are as follows:

1. My work at St. Paul's Church consists of preaching once a month at the Sunday morning service, of assisting ordinarily on the first Sunday of the month at the early Communion and of helping in various minor ways in the parish.

2. I preach about two Sundays a month away from New Haven, almost always at some college or school.

3. I continue to conduct the morning prayers in the College Chapel for a month each year and serve as the representative of the Committee on the Supply of the College in arranging for the Sunday preachers.

4. I have conducted this year, as usual, a series of religious conferences for seniors in the college, taking up mainly the difficulties that appear to bulk the largest in the student mind in matters connected with Christianity."

THE REV. J. FREDERICK TALCOTT

"Reports that during the past year he has carried on his mission work in New York City as heretofore, and has officiated at regular intervals and occasionally, as opportunity offered. St. George's Parish, Rumson, in the Diocese of New Jersey, over which I have presided, has called a Rector."

THE REV. WALTER THOMPSON, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports that during the convention year 1907-1908 he resided abroad and officiated in the English Church at Lucerne, Switzerland. Since his return to America, and for the convention year 1908-1909, he has officiated in the services of the Church 27 times, 1 marriage, 5 funerals and 14 celebrations of the Holy Communion."

RULES OF ORDER OF THE CONVENTION 350

THE

As Adopted October 11, 1796; and Amended October 17, 1827; October 2, 1834; October 4, 1839; September 29, 1848; September 26, 1850; September 28, 1860; September 28, 1882; September 26, 1889; September 14, 1902; September 28, 1905; November 15, 1906; November 14, 1907; November 12, 1908.

ARTICLE I.

There shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese in each year. It shall be held at the Cathedral on the second Wednesday in November, unless the Bishop, with the consent of the Standing Committee, or, in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, unless the Standing Committee shall appoint another place or time.

ARTICLE II.

The Bishop shall have power to call Special Conventions, when he may judge it conducive to the good of the Church; and shall do so when applied to for that purpose by the Standing Committee; and in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee shall have power to call a Special Convention.

ARTICLE III.

The Convention shall consist of the Bishop and the Bishop-Coadjutor (if there be one) of the Diocese and of Clerical and Lay Members.

The Clerical Members shall be those Clergymen canonically resident within the Diocese not less than six months immediately preceding the meeting of the Convention, who shall be either Archdeacons of the Diocese, or settled in some Church in union with the Convention, or in the Cathedral, or employed as Missionaries under the direction of the Convention, or engaged within the Diocese as Professors or Instructors in any incorporated institution of learning, or as Superintendents or Chaplains in any incorporated charitable institution, or Clergymen who, having attained the age of sixty-five years, shall have retired from the active work of the Ministry after holding for not less than ten years one or more of the positions hereinbefore named.

The Lay Members shall be male Delegates from the several Churches in union with the Convention, not exceeding three from each Church, chosen by the Vestry or Congregation.

ARTICLE IV.

Every Convention shall be opened with such services as shall be approved by the Bishop, or in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

ARTICLE V.

The Bishop shall preside in the Convention; but in case of a vacancy, or necessary absence, the members shall elect a President from among the Clergy.

ARTICLE VI.

A Secretary shall be chosen, upon the assembling of the Annual Convention, from among the members thereof, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Convention. His duty shall be to take minutes of their proceedings, to preserve their journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, and faithfully to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers, relative to the concerns of the Convention, which may be in his possession. It shall also be his duty to give due notice to each Minister and Vestry of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

In all matters which shall come before the Convention, the Clergy and the Laity shall deliberate in one body. In voting each clerical member shall be entitled to one vote, the Bishop and the Bishop Coadjutor having the right to vote with the clergy. When votes are taken by orders the lay delegates of each Church shall be entitled to one vote, except that when more than one Church or Chapel shall be united under one Vestry, and shall have been so united and recognized by the Convention prior to the last Wednesday in September in the year of our Lord 1859; the delegates of such Vestry only shall be entitled to one vote for each Church or Chapel.

Except in cases where a vote by orders is required, the concurrence of a majority of the Clerical and Lay Members voting shall constitute a vote; but in any case a vote by orders may be required by five members. When a vote by orders is taken the concurrence of a majority of the members of each order voting shall constitute a vote. In the election of a Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor the two orders shall always vote separately.

ARTICLE VIII.

Wherever in the Constitution or Canons of this Diocese provision is made for action by the Bishop, such action shall, in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, devolve upon the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, and shall devolve upon the Standing Committee, in cases where provision is made for their action in the place of the Bishop, only in the event of the absence or disability both of the Bishop and of the Bishop Coadjutor, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate.

ARTICLE IX.

The mode of altering this Constitution shall be as follows: A proposition for an amendment shall be introduced in writing and considered in the Convention; and, if approved of, shall lie over to the next Convention, and, if again approved of in such next Convention, by a majority of the two orders voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

Adopted October 2, 1834; and amended October 4, 1839; October 1, 1841; September 30, 1842; September 29, 1843; September 27, 1844; September 26 and 30, 1845; September 29, 1848; September 26, 1851; October 1, 1852; September 29, 1859; September 28, 1860; October 2, 1863; September 27, 1866; November 15, 1867; September 29, 1870; September 28, 1872; September 25, 1873; September 28, 1877; September 26, 1884; October 1, 1885; September 30 and October 1, 1886; September 29, 1887; September 27, 1888; September 26, 1889; September 25, 1890; and October 1, 1891; September 27 and 28, 1893; September 27, 1894; September 26, 1895; October 1, 1896; September 30, 1897; September 29, 1898; September 27, 1900; September 26, 1901; September 24 and 25, 1902; November 15, 1906; November 14, 1907; November 12, 1908; November 12, 1909.

CANON I.

A List to be made of Ministers in the Diocese.

Within one week before the meeting of every Convention of this Diocese, the Bishop, or in case there be no Bishop, or of his inability or disability to act, then the Standing Committee of the Diocese, shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list of all the Ministers of the Protestant Episcopal Church canonically resident in this Diocese, annexing the names of their respective Cures or Parishes, or Stations as Missionaries, or of the Colleges, Academies, or other Seminaries or incorporated Charitable Institutions in which they are engaged; or, in regard to those who are not engaged in Parishes, Missions, or Institutions of learning, as above, their places of residence only; but no Clergyman while suspended from the Ministry shall have a place on the said list. Such list shall be recorded by the Secretary of the Convention in a book to be kept for that purpose, and be prefixed to the Journal.

CANON II.

Of the Members of the Convention and the Evidence of their Rights to Seats.

SEC. 1. A list of the names of all Clergymen entitled to seats in the Convention, under Article III. of the Constitution, shall be prepared by the Bishop, or in case there be no Bishop, or of his inability or disability to act, then by the Standing Committee. Said list shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of meeting, and shall be presumptive evidence of a right to a seat of all those whose names appear thereon.

SEC. 2. In case the right of any Clergyman of this Diocese to a seat in the Convention shall be disputed or claimed, it shall be determined according to the provision of the third Article of the Constitution by the Convention itself.

SEC. 3. The Secretary of the Convention shall record in a book, to be provided by him, and kept in accordance with the Canon of the General Convention, entitled "Of the Filling of Vacant Cures," all certificates that shall be transmitted to him in accordance with said Canon.

In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of any Clergyman who shall have been elected to any Church or Parish in this Diocese, after the passage of this Canon, the evidence of settlement shall consist in the said record; or in the production to the Convention of the certificate required by this Section, to be recorded as aforesaid, together with a certificate of the Bishop or of the Standing Committee, of his or their being satisfied that the person so chosen is a qualified Minister of this Church.

SEC. 4. Every Minister who may be received into this Diocese shall procure from the Bishop, or, in case of his disability or inability to act, from a majority of the clerical members of the Standing Committee, duly convened, a certificate that he has been received into this Diocese in compliance with the Canon of the General Convention. And before he shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, he shall transmit such certificate to the Secretary, to be recorded in the book mentioned in the preceding Section. And in case of the contested right to a seat in the Convention of any Minister who may be received into this Diocese, the production of such record, or of such certificate, or of the Secretary's written acknowledgment of his receipt of the same, shall be presumptive evidence of regular admission, and the certificate, if not previously recorded, shall thereupon be recorded by the Secretary in the said book.

SEC. 5. In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of a Clergyman claiming such right by virtue of his being employed as a Missionary under the direction of this Convention, the evidence of such employment shall consist in the written certificate of the Bishop; or, in case of a vacancy of the Episcopate, or of the inability or disability of the Bishop, in the written certificate of the Chairman of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.

SEC. 6. In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of a Clergyman claiming such right by virtue of his being engaged as a Professor or Instructor of Youth in a College, Academy, or General Seminary of Learning, duly incorporated, the evidence of his connection with such College, Academy, or Seminary shall consist in the written certificate of the President or Secretary of such Corporation that he is so employed.

SEC. 7. (I.) Lay Delegates from Churches having Vestries shall be appointed by the Vestry, at a regular meeting, held according to law.

(II.) The evidence of the appointment of a Lay Delegate from a Church having a Vestry shall be a certificate signed by the Rector of the Church and by the Clerk of the Vestry. If there be no Rector, or if the appointment shall have been made at any legal Vestry meeting held in his absence, then such certificate shall state that fact, and shall be signed by the Warden who presides at the meeting at which such Delegate is appointed, and also by the Clerk of the Vestry. The certificate must show upon its face that the appointment has been made in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons, and shall certify that the Delegate is a Lay member, entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

(III.) The evidence of appointment of a Lay Delegate from a Church having no Vestry shall be a certificate signed by the Minister of such Church, or by the officer who presides at the meeting of the congregation by which he was appointed, and also by the Clerk or Secretary of such meeting. The certificate shall state the time and place of the election, and shall certify that the person appointed has been duly chosen by such Church or Congregation as a Lay Delegate; that he is a Lay member of such Church or Congregation, and has been such member for at least twelve months next preceding the time of his appointment, and that the election was held in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons.

(IV.) No other certificate or evidence of appointment of any Lay Delegate than such as is above required shall be allowed or received.

SEC. 8. No Lay Delegate from a Church having a Vestry shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, unless he be entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

SEC. 9. A copy of the seventh and eighth sections of this Canon shall be transmitted annually by the Secretary of the Convention to every Church in this Diocese in union with the Convention, together with a blank printed form of certificate of appointment of Lay Delegates, and the notice which he is required by the Constitution to give of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

SEC. 10. It shall be the duty of the Clerks of the Vestries of the Parishes which have been admitted into union with this Convention, immediately after the appointment of the Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Convention, to certify their election to the Secretary of the Convention in the form prescribed by Sections 7 and 8 of this Canon. From the certificates thus received, the Secretary shall prepare a list of Lay Delegates for use in the organization of the Convention.

SEC. 11. The presence of at least fifty Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least forty congregations, shall be necessary to the transaction of business—except that a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

SEC. 12. If the President ex officio of the Convention is not present at its opening, the Secretary of the Convention shall call to order the members present, when the senior presbyter present entitled to a seat in the Convention shall take the chair, and shall preside until a President be elected, as provided by Article V. of the Constitution.

SEC. 13. The Secretary of the Convention, under the direction of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, under the direction of the Standing Committee, shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

SEC. 14. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified to him, in pursuance of Section 10 of this Canon. The President shall then appoint a committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

SEC. 15. The calling of the names of the Clergy entitled to seats and of the Lay Delegates may be dispensed with by a unanimous vote of the members of the Convention present, provided that evidence satisfactory to the Convention of the presence of a canonical quorum of each order be laid before the Convention by the Secretary. In such case the Secretary shall take means to secure a correct list of the Clergy entitled to seats and of the Lay Delegates who are present at the Convention.

SEC. 16. A quorum, which shall consist of thirty Clergymen and Delegates from thirty Congregations, being present, the President, ex officio, if present, shall declare the Convention duly organized. If he be absent, or unable to act, the temporary President shall direct that the members proceed to vote for a President, as provided in Article V. of the Constitution, which election shall be by ballot, unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present. The President, being elected, shall declare the Convention organized for business.

SEC. 17. The Convention shall then proceed to the election of a Secretary and Treasurer of the Convention, by ballot, unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present. The Secretary shall appoint two assistants, and announce their names to the Convention.

SEC. 18. The existing Rules of Order, so far as they are applicable to the preliminary proceedings for the organization of the Convention, shall be deemed in force for that purpose; and the said Rules of Order, except such of them as prescribe the mode of altering the same, shall regulate the proceedings after the organization, until altered by the Convention.

CANON III.

Of the Call of the Convention.

Unless it be otherwise directed by the Convention, the mode of giving notice of the meeting of any Convention shall be by an advertisement of the time and place of such meeting, signed by the Secretary, and published in three of the public papers, or Church journals, printed in the Diocese of New York. Whenever, under the provisions of the Constitution, a Special Convention is called for any particular purpose, it shall be the duty of the Secretary, in the notice thereof, to specify such purpose.

CANON IV.

Of the Admission of a Church as a Parish into Union with the Church in this Diocese and Maintaining such Union.

SEC. 1. Every Church or Congregation desiring admission as a Parish into union with the Church in this Diocese shall present a written application therefor to the Convention, together with a copy of the Resolution of the Vestry or of the Congregation authorizing such application; in which resolution the said Church, by its Vestry or Congregation, shall agree to abide by, and conform to and observe all the Canons of the Church, and all the rules, orders, and regulations of the Convention, and to pay its Rector, so long as it shall remain in union with the Convention, in regular monthly or quarterly installments, a salary of not less than $1,500 per annum, or a salary of not less than $1,200 per annum and to provide for him a suitable residence, or a reasonable allowance in lieu thereof; which copy shall be duly certified by the presiding officer of the Vestry, or of the meeting of the Congregation at which the resolution was adopted, and also by the Clerk of the Vestry or Secretary of the meeting; and shall be authenticated by the seal of the corporation.

The said application shall also be accompanied by the Certificate of Incorporation of the Church, duly recorded, or a copy thereof, certified by the officer whose duty it may be to record or to file the same; and also by a Certificate of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence, or of his inability or disability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, of the Standing Committee, that he or they approve of the Incorporation of said Church, and that such Church, in his or their judgment, is duly established; and also, by a certificate executed by the authority of the Vestry or of the meeting, authenticated by the seal of the corporation, to the effect that such Church or Congregation is willing and able among its own members to raise at least $1,500 per annum for the salary of its Rector, or to raise at least $1,200 for his salary and to provide for him a suitable residence or a reasonable allowance in lieu thereof.

Every Church or Congregation applying for admission shall produce satisfactory evidence that not less than twenty-five persons, members of such Church, have habitually, for at least one year preceding such application, attended divine service in such Church or Congregation.

The Certificate of Incorporation of every Church incorporated under any Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, save the General Act of April 5, 1813, and the Amendments thereto, shall declare upon its face that the Church or Congregation is a Protestant Episcopal Church, and that it is forever to continue such, in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of New York; and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention to prepare and furnish blanks for the Certificate of Incorporation of Parishes, which shall embody the above provision.

SEC. 2. (I.) No application for the admission of a Parish into union with the Church in this Diocese shall be considered or acted upon at any meeting of the Convention, unless the same has been transmitted to the Secretary of the Convention at least forty days before the meeting of the Convention.

(II.) It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention, at least thirty days before the meeting of the Convention, to deliver to a Committee, to be annually appointed (to be called the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches), all applications for admission into union which shall have been received by him, to be by such Committee examined, considered, and reported upon to the Convention.

SEC. 3. Whenever any Parish in union with this Convention shall neglect for three years in succession to make a Parochial Report, no missionary report being made on its behalf, and shall not, during the same period, have employed a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor requested of the ecclesiastical authority to have the services of a Missionary, such Parish shall be regarded as having forfeited its connection with the Convention, and shall no longer have a right to send a Delegate or Delegates to the same.

The Bishop shall report such Parish to the Convention in his Annual Address.

Such Parish, however, may be re-admitted, upon application to the Convention, accompanied by a report of its condition, and on such terms as shall appear just; such re-admission to take effect from and after the rising of the Convention consenting to such admission.

CANON V.

Of the Secretary of the Convention.

SEC. 1. In addition to the constitutional provisions concerning the Secretary, it is hereby declared that this officer shall be chosen by ballot after viva voce nominations of the Candidates, and shall continue in office until a new election is made.

SEC. 2. He shall transmit annually to each of the Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and to the Secretary of the last House of Clerical and Lay Deputies in the General Convention, and to the Secretary of every Diocesan Convention, a copy of the Journal of the Convention ; and shall request the last to send copies of their respective Journals in exchange.

SEC. 3. He shall also transmit to every General Convention, in addition to the documents mentioned in the Canons of the General Convention, a certificate, to be signed by himself, containing a list of the Clergymen in this Diocese, and the amount of funds paid or secured to be paid (distinguishing them) to the General Theological Seminary, together with the nomination of Trustees of that Seminary ; and also a like certificate of the appointment of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

SEC. 4. Any expense incurred by a compliance with the third section of this Canon shall be paid out of the Diocesan Fund.

SEC. 5. Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of Secretary of the Convention, the duties thereof shall devolve upon one of the Assistant Secretaries in the order of their appointment, if there be one ; if not, upon the Secretary of the Standing Committee.

CANON VI.

Of the Treasurer of the Convention.

SEC. 1. At every stated Convention there shall be chosen by ballot a Treasurer of the Convention, who shall remain in office until the next stated Convention, and until a successor is appointed. It shall be his duty to receive and disburse all moneys collected under the authority of the Convention, and of which the collection and distribution shall not be otherwise regulated.

SEC. 2. His accounts shall be rendered annually to the Convention, and shall be examined by a Committee acting under its authority.

SEC. 3. In case of a vacancy in the office of Treasurer, it shall be supplied by an appointment to be made by the Standing Committee ; and the person so appointed shall continue to act until an appointment is made by the Convention.

CANON VII.

Of Parish Registers and Parochial Reports.

SEC. 1. Every Minister in charge of a Parish in this Diocese shall keep a Register of Baptisms, Confirmations, Communicants, Marriages, and Funerals within his Cure.

SEC. 2. The record shall specify the name and time of birth of each child baptized, with the names of the parents and sponsors; the name of each adult baptized ; the name of each person confirmed; the names of the parties married, with the names of the witness or witnesses required by the civil law; the name of each person buried; and also the time when each rite was performed. These Registers shall be kept by the Minister in a book to be provided for that purpose, belonging to the Vestry of each Church: which book shall be the Parish Register, and shall be preserved by the Vestry as a part of the records of the Church.

The list of Communicants shall embrace all within his Cure as nearly as can be ascertained, and he shall also keep a list of the families and adult persons in his Cure, as far as practicable.

SEC. 3. Every Minister of this Church shall present, or cause to be delivered, on or before the first day of every annual Convention, to the Bishop of the Diocese, or, when there is no Bishop, to the President of the Convention, a statement of the number of Baptisms, Confirmations, Marriages, and Funerals; and of the number of Communicants in his Parish or Church, and of all other matters that may throw light on the state of the same.

SEC. 4. In every case where a Parish is without a Minister, the Register contemplated by this Canon shall be kept by some person appointed by the Vestry for that purpose; and the annual Parochial Reports shall be presented or forwarded to the Bishop by the Wardens of the Parish.

SEC. 5. The Register contemplated by this Canon shall at all times be subject to inspection by the Bishop or by such person as he may appoint.

SEC. 6. Upon the dissolution of a Parish the Register, provided for by this Canon, shall immediately become the property of the Diocese, and the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan Convention shall cause the said Register to be deposited with the Bishop, to be under his care for the legitimate purposes thereof.

CANON VIII.

Of Preparing a Report on the State of the Church.

A Committee of the Convention of this Diocese shall be appointed at the stated meeting of the same next before every stated meeting of the General Convention, in accordance with the Canon * thereof, to assist the Bishop in preparing a report of the state of the Church in this Diocese, and a list of the Clergy, to be presented to the General Convention.

* Canon 47, § 2.

Concerning Elections.

SEC. 1. Elections by ballot, when required by these Canons, may be dispensed with by a unanimous vote of the Convention. And when an election is by ballot, a majority of the votes in each order shall be necessary to a valid election: provided that if in any election a greater number of persons than the number of offices to be filled shall receive a canonical majority of the votes cast, those who up to the number of offices to be filled receive the largest canonical majorities in both orders shall be declared elected.

SEC. 2. The mode of conducting the nominations and elections of the Standing Committee, the Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, Deputies to the Federate Council, and Deputies to the Missionary Council of the Second Department, shall be as follows:

Any member of the Convention may place in the hands of the Secretary, in writing, on or before the Monday preceding the first day of the meeting thereof, nominations, signed by himself, for the Standing Committee, for Clerical and Lay Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, for members of the Federate Council and Deputies to the Missionary Council of the Second Department. All names so sent in shall be reported to the Convention by the Secretary, at the beginning of the first day's session, in the form of a ballot, on which the names shall be arranged in alphabetical order. After each list of nominations as many blank spaces shall be left as there are vacancies to be filled. These blanks may be filled by any voter. The voter shall mark an X at the right of the name of each person for whom he votes. On the first ballot these ballots only shall be used, and also in all subsequent ballots, except when otherwise ordered by the Convention. No ballot shall be counted on which more names are marked than there are vacancies to be filled, and the number of vacancies to be filled shall be printed on each ballot.

The Secretary shall provide a board, to be hung up in a conspicuous place, near the entrance to the Convention, on which shall be posted the nominations so received, and also the names of the present members of the Standing Committee, Deputies and Provisional Deputies to General Convention, and Deputies to the Federate Council; and these names shall also be printed on the back of the ballot provided by the Secretary.

CANON X.

Of Deputies to the General Convention.

SEC. 1. The Convention shall, at the regular annual meeting next preceding a stated meeting of the General Convention, elect by ballot four Clergymen and four Laymen to act as Deputies from this Diocese to the General Convention. It shall also elect by ballot four Clergymen and four Laymen, as Provisional Deputies, to act in the case hereinafter mentioned; which Deputies and Provisional Deputies shall hold their respective stations until successors are appointed, and shall be Deputies, or Provisional Deputies, for any General Convention which may be held during their continuance in office.

SEC. 2. Should a vacancy occur by resignation, removal from the Diocese, death, or otherwise, among the Deputies or Provisional Deputies, between the stated times of election, the vacancy shall be supplied by any Convention, during or prior to which such vacancy shall occur.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the Deputies elect to signify to the Bishop, at least two days before the meeting of the General Convention, their acceptance of the appointment, and their intention to perform its duties; in default of which the Bishop shall designate, from the list of Provisional Deputies, so many as may be necessary to insure, as far as practicable, a full representation of the Diocese. The Bishop, also, from time to time shall designate one of the Provisional Deputies to supply, either temporarily or permanently, any vacancy caused by the death, absence or inability of any Deputy. During such period as shall be stated in the certificate issued to him by the Bishop, the Provisional Deputy so designated shall possess, and shall be entitled to exercise, the power and authority of the Deputy in place of whom he shall have been designated.

SEC. 4. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability of the Bishop to act, the power conferred upon the Bishop by this Canon shall be exercised by the Standing Committee.

CANON XI.

Of Deputies to the Federate Council.

At every stated Convention there shall be an election by ballot of eight Clergymen and eight Laymen to serve as Deputies at any meeting of the Federate Council that may be held before the next Annual Convention of the Diocese. And in case of a vacancy by death or otherwise among the Deputies so elected, such vacancy shall be filled by the Bishop.

CANON XII.

Of the Standing Committee.

SEC. 1. At every stated Convention a Standing Committee shall be elected by ballot, to consist of four Clergymen and four Laymen. Vacancies in said Committee, occurring by death or otherwise, shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the Clerical members and Lay members of the Committee.

SEC. 2. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability or disability of the Bishop, the powers and duties to be performed by the Bishop in matters of discipline shall be performed by the Standing Committee, except in those cases where such powers and duties are or may be specially delegated to, or enjoined upon, the Clerical members of said Committee; in which cases such powers and duties shall be exercised by said Clerical members alone; provided, that no sentence shall be pronounced on a Clergyman but by a Bishop.

SEC. 3. The record of all proceedings upon a presentment of a Clergyman shall be preserved by the Standing Committee, and for that purpose shall, after a final decision, be delivered to their Secretary.

SEC. 4. Should a stated Convention, from any cause, not be held at the appointed time, or if such Convention should be held, but no election be made, pursuant to Section 1 of this Canon, then the last Standing Committee elected shall continue to perform the duties of the office until a new election takes place.

SEC. 5. Whenever application shall be made to the Standing Committee for their consent to an application to a Court for leave to sell or mortgage real property, which at the time of such application is used by a congregation for regular religious services, the Standing Committee shall not give their consent until it shall have been made to appear to their satisfaction that notice of the application has been given to the congregation.

CANON XIII.

Of Vacant Parishes, and Clergymen without Cure.

SEC. 1. Whenever a Parish becomes vacant by the resignation or decease of the incumbent, or otherwise, due notice of the same shall be given by the Clerk of the Vestry or Trustees to the Ordinary, who, with the concurrence of the authorities of the Parish, shall take such measures as he may deem expedient for the temporary maintenance of religious services in such Parish.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Vestry or Trustees of such vacant Parish to provide for the compensation of the Minister appointed under the preceding section.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the authorities of such vacant Parish to consult with the Bishop of the Diocese before proceeding to fill the vacancy.

SEC. 4. Any Clergyman without cure resident in, or visiting, this Diocese and desiring to take temporary or occasional service therein shall signify to the Bishop his wish to officiate in this Diocese. A list of such Clergymen as shall be licensed by the Bishop for such duty shall be kept at the Diocesan House. And no Rector or Parish shall employ the services of any Clergyman without cure for more than one day, unless he shall have the written license of the Bishop.

CANON XIV.

Of the Establishment and Boundaries of Parishes and Mission Districts.

SEC. 1. The Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, may determine, and from time to time may alter, the boundaries of the parishes and mission districts of this Diocese, and may constitute new parishes and mission districts, and may erect mission districts into parishes; provided that not less than twenty days' previous notice of a time and place when the Standing Committee will hear any persons interested in the matter shall in each case be given to the incumbents of such parishes or mission districts as in the opinion of the Standing Committee may be affected by the proposed action. The Bishop's certificates of the determination or alteration of the boundaries of parishes or mission districts, of the constitution of new parishes or mission districts, and of the erection of mission districts into parishes, countersigned by the President of the Standing Committee, shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Convention, who shall record the same in a book to be kept by him for the purpose, to be called the Diocesan Register of Parishes and Mission Districts, and shall furnish a copy thereof, in the case of a parish or of a mission district forming part of a parish, to the Rector of the parish, who shall cause the same to be recorded in the Book of Minutes of the Vestry; or, in the case of a mission district assigned to a chapel or mission maintained by the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, to the Society, who shall cause the same to be recorded in its Book of Minutes; or, in the case of any other mission district, to the Archdeacon within whose jurisdiction the district shall be situated, who shall cause such copy to be recorded in the Book of Minutes of his Archdeaconry.

SEC. 2. Wherever a chapel or a mission is maintained by a parish, if it be included within the parish boundaries assigned to the parish church, no separate district shall be assigned to it; but if it be not included within the parish boundaries assigned to the parish church, a separate district shall be assigned to it, which shall form part of the parish.

SEC. 3. Where in any town within this Diocese there is but one parish or mission, the limits of the town shall constitute the boundaries of the parish or mission district, and shall be so certified by the Bishop, unless upon the application of the Rector and Vestry of the parish, or of the Archdeacon in charge of the mission district, the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall otherwise determine. The boundaries of a parish or mission district may include more than one town or parts of more than one town.

SEC. 4. When the boundaries of a parish or of a mission district shall have been determined by the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, the territory so bounded, in the case of a parish, including a mission district forming part of a parish, shall constitute the parish or cure of the Rector thereof; in the case of a mission district assigned to a chapel or mission maintained by the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, shall constitute the parochial cure of the Superintendent for the time being of that Society; and in the case of any other mission district shall constitute the parochial cure of the Archdeacon within whose jurisdiction the mission district is situated; and such Rector, Superintendent, or Archdeacon, as the case may be, shall be deemed the incumbent of such parish or mission district; provided that nothing in this

Canon shall be taken to prevent such Rector, Superintendent or Archdeacon from conferring upon the Minister in charge of any mission district such authority in respect thereto as he may think fit.

SEC. 5. In any town or borough in which a parish or a mission district shall have been constituted, a new place of worship (unless upon the site of a former one) shall not be established, nor shall a new congregation be gathered, nor shall a congregation remove from one site or place of worship to another site or place of worship, unless and until the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall have issued his license therefor; provided that the Standing Committee shall communicate a copy of the Bishop's proposed license, by mail or otherwise, before they act upon it, to the incumbent of the parish or mission district within which it is intended to establish such new place of worship or to which such congregation proposes to remove, and to the incumbents of the three parishes or mission districts nearest to the site of the proposed church, chapel, or other place of public worship, and to the applicant for such license, with not less than twenty-days' notice of the time and place at which the Standing Committee will hear any person interested in the matter.

SEC. 6. Tentative missionary work, authorized by the Bishop and the Executive Committee of the Archdeaconry in which it is proposed to prosecute such work, may be prosecuted at any place they may designate, after conference with the incumbents of the three parishes or mission districts whose places of worship are nearest to the proposed site; but such work shall not be continued more than one year unless with the license of the Bishop, nor shall any building for such work be erected unless and until the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall have issued his license for the establishment of a new place of public worship, or shall have constituted a new mission district or a new parish, for the continuance of such work.

SEC. 7. Nothing contained in this Canon shall be taken to restrict the power of the Bishop to license private chapels or chapels connected with institutions, nor to affect such chapels so licensed.

CANON XV.

Of the Episcopal Fund.

SEC. 1. The fund for the support of the Episcopate in this Diocese, now provided, together with that which may be hereafter contributed or acquired, and any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof, shall be intrusted to the corporation entitled "The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund for the Diocese of New York," incorporated by an Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, passed May 14, 1845. The Trustees composing said corporation shall be five in number, who shall be appointed by and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of the Convention, and all vacancies occurring in their number shall be filled by the Convention.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of every Rector or Minister having charge of a congregation in this Diocese to cause an annual collection or contribution to be made by said congregation in aid of the fund for the support of the Episcopate; and in the case of a vacant parish, this duty shall devolve on the Wardens and Vestrymen. The amount of each annual collection or contribution shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, and shall be reported by the Trustees to the Convention at the next stated meeting thereof, after such collection or contribution shall have been made, and shall be entered on its Journals.

SEC. 3. So long as the income of the fund is inadequate to the support of the Episcopate, and an annual assessment shall be made, under the authority of the Convention, for supplying the deficiency therein, the payment of such assessment by a Parish shall be considered as in lieu of the collection enjoined by Section 2 of this Canon.

SEC. 4. All moneys belonging to the said fund shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon security of real estate, or invested in stocks of the United States, or of any of the States, or of the City of New York, at their discretion, and also in such other securities as may be recommended unanimously by the Trustees and approved by a vote of the Convention. And all securities and investments shall be taken or made in their corporate name above mentioned, and they shall have power, from time to time, to change such investments. A statement exhibiting the condition of the said fund and securities, together with all receipts and disbursements, shall be reported to the Convention at every stated meeting thereof, signed by the Trustees, or a majority of them.

CANON XVI.

Of the Diocesan Fund.

SEC. 1. Every congregation in the Diocese shall pay to the Treasurer of the Convention, on or before the Day of its annual meeting, such a per cent. on the amount of its current expenses as shall have been ordered by the preceding Convention, to provide for necessary expenses.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the Convention to retain annually out of this fund one dollar for each Clergyman in the Diocese. The moneys thus retained shall be paid by him to the Treasurer of the General Convention at each meeting of the same.

SEC. 3. A copy of this Canon shall be transmitted annually to every Church in the Diocese by the Secretary of the Convention.

CANON XVII.

Of Contributions for Church Objects.

SEC. 1. In every Parish of the Diocese provision shall be made whereby its members may make offerings, by collections and otherwise, as often as the needs of the Church shall require, for the support of its objects, particularly its missionary work at home and abroad, the education of young men for the sacred Ministry, and those other religious and charitable objects which have been commended to the care of the Church by the General Convention, or by the Convention of the Diocese; and it shall be the duty of the Clergyman in charge to give due notice to the congregation of the time and purpose of such offerings, and also to call their attention to the importance and claims of the respective objects to which the offerings are to be applied.

SEC. 2. The business of distributing all funds that may be raised under this Canon, for the education of young men for Holy Orders, is hereby committed to the incorporated society styled "The Protestant Episcopal Society for Promoting Religion and Learning in the State of New York," which shall make a full annual report to the Convention of the application of all moneys paid into its treasury under the provisions of this Canon, or by the Treasurer of the Convention from any source.

SEC. 3. So far as relates to the offerings or contributions of Parishes within the City of New York, it is hereby declared that the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society and the Seamen's Church Institute of New York are to be reckoned among the Church charities for which provision is to be made, so that each congregation in the City of New York shall make annual contributions to one of these societies.

CANON XVIII.

Of the Diocesan Missionary Society.

SEC. 1. All members of the Church in this Diocese shall be considered as constituting the Diocesan Missionary Society.

SEC. 2. (I.) The Missionary Work of the Diocese shall be conducted by a Diocesan Board of Missions.

(II.) The Convention shall be the Diocesan Board of Missions, sitting as such as often as the business of the Board may demand.

SEC. 3. (I.) The Diocese shall be divided into five Archdeaconries, to be named, respectively:

1. The Archdeaconry of New York, comprising the County of New York.

2. The Archdeaconry of Richmond, comprising the County of Richmond.

3. The Archdeaconry of Westchester, comprising the Counties of Westchester, Putnam, and Rockland.

4. The Archdeaconry of Orange, comprising the Counties of Orange, Ulster, and Sullivan.

5. The Archdeaconry of Dutchess, comprising the County of Dutchess.

(II.) The members of each Archdeaconry shall be the Clergy canonically resident within its limits, with three Lay Delegates from each Parish and Mission Station, elected in such manner as the By-laws of the Archdeaconry may direct, provided that such Lay Delegates from Mission Stations shall not have the right to vote upon any question involving the appropriation or apportionment of moneys. It shall be the duty of each Archdeaconry [1] to search out the religious needs of its own district, and to conduct and provide for such Missionary Work as may be undertaken by it, within its own limits, and to apportion among the several Parishes the amount necessary to be raised for the same; [2] to nominate to the Bishop, for his appointment, all Missionaries and other agents of the Archdeaconry, and to fix their salaries; [3] to have full management of its funds; [4] to provide that careful statistics as to the population and condition of communities and the results of Missionary Work be collected and preserved.

(III.) The Archdeacon of each Archdeaconry shall be nominated by the Archdeaconry, and appointed by the Bishop, and shall continue in office until his successor shall have been appointed. The nomination shall be made as soon as practicable after the occurrence of a vacancy in the office or the rejection of any previous nomination by the Bishop. It shall be his duty [1] to superintend all Missionary Work conducted by the Archdeaconry; [2] to have direction of all Itinerant Clergy and Associated Missions; [3] to make full and regular reports of the same to the Archdeaconry; and [4] in the absence of the Bishop to preside at all meetings.

(IV.) Each Archdeaconry shall adopt its own by-laws, elect annually its Secretary and Treasurer, and make before the Annual Meeting of the Board of Diocesan Missions a full report of its year's work to the Board of Managers hereinafter described.

SEC. 4. (I.) There shall be a Diocesan Board of Managers, which Board shall also be the Missionary Committee of the Diocese of New York, consisting of the Bishop, the five Archdeacons, Secretaries and Treasurers, and also five Clergymen and five Laymen, elected by ballot at the Annual Meeting of the Diocesan Board of Missions.

(II.) It shall be the duty of this Board of Managers [1] to decide, with the approval of the Bishop, what proportion of the whole sum voted by the Diocese shall be raised by, and what proportion shall be expended by each Archdeaconry; [2] to devise general plans for making Mission Work more effective, and developing a greater Missionary interest throughout the Diocese; [3] to send to the Diocesan Board of Missions, at its annual meeting, a report containing the following items:

a. Statement of Missionary Work done since last report.

b. The names of the Missionaries and Stations.

c. An account of Annual Receipts and Expenditures, comprising all amounts received and disbursed by each Archdeaconry.

d. A list of the Parishes contributing, and of the sums contributed by each Parish to Diocesan Missions.

e. An estimate of the amount of funds needed for the Missionary Work of the Diocese for the ensuing year, and a schedule of assessments upon the several Parishes.

(III.) Seven members of the Board of Managers, at a regularly called meeting, two of whom shall be Archdeacons, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In the absence of the Bishop, one of the Archdeacons present shall be elected by the meeting to preside.

CANON XIX.

Of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy.

SEC. 1. Five lay Trustees shall be appointed annually by the Convention, who, with the Bishop, shall constitute a Board to be called the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen.

SEC. 2. Vacancies occurring in the number of the above-named five lay Trustees, by death, resignation, or otherwise, during the recess of the Convention, may be supplied by the remaining Trustees.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the said Trustees to assume the management and care of the following funds:

1st. The fund now provided for the relief of Aged and Infirm Clergymen of the Diocese, together with that which may hereafter be contributed or acquired, and any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

2d. A fund to be hereafter contributed or acquired for the relief of Widows and Children of Deceased Clergymen of the Diocese, together with any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

SEC. 4. It shall be the further duty of the said Trustees to receive applications for relief or assistance from any persons entitled to receive aid from either of the funds above mentioned, and to apply such relief or assistance as follows:

1st. As to the fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to, the limitations indicated in the report of the Special Committee made to the Annual Convention of 1841,* and subject also to such other rules and regulations as have since been adopted by this Convention, or as said Trustees, with the approbation of said Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

2d. As to the fund for the Widows and Children of Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to,

* "(a) Legacies and donations to be invested as a permanent fund; the proceeds to be applied annually, if needed, under the direction of the Bishop and three lay Trustees, to be elected by the Convention at each stated meeting. If the whole or any part of the annual revenue of said fund be not needed, in any year, it might be considered thenceforth as part of the capital.

". . . (b) Another . . . source of income will be found, it is presumed, in annual contributions to be made by all the congregations in the Diocese, on some day previously notified.

"With regard to the limitations under which relief should be applied, your Committee are aware that much must be left to the discretion of the Trustees. . . . In regard to these limitations, the Committee would suggest:

"1. That relief should be confined to those whose circumstances are actually straitened, and who have been actively engaged in parochial or kindred labors during a large part of their ministerial lives.

"2. It should not be so administered as to supersede on the part of parishes the duty of making provision for the support of their pastor when too aged or infirm to continue his ministry; and should therefore be confined, in the case of parish clergymen, to cases in which the parish has signified, through the Bishop, its inability or indisposition to make such provision to an adequate extent.

"3. It should not be extended to clergymen who have near relatives in affluent circumstances, unless there be satisfactory evidence that such relatives are unwilling to discharge the duty of providing for those of their own household.

"4. In deciding between conflicting claims, preference should be given cæteris paribus to those who have been longest employed within the Diocese in ministerial duty."

the limitations laid down by the regulations adopted by the Annual Convention of 1886 in relation to said fund, and subject also to such further rules and regulations as said Trustees, with the approbation of this Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

SEC. 5. A collection shall be made annually in every congregegation in this Diocese, on the annual Thanksgiving Day, or on Christmas Day, or on the Sunday next before or next following either of those days.

This collection and all other contributions to these objects shall be transmitted to the Treasurer of the said Board of Trustees.

All donations and legacies received by said Treasurer shall, in the absence of the special designation of one or other of the said funds, be applied as the Trustees in their discretion may determine, subject, however, to any other or different appropriation by the Convention of any particular gift or legacy. The annual collection, herein provided for, shall, in the absence of special designation of any portion thereof by the donors, be applied by said Trustees to the fund for the Widows and Children of Clergymen. The Treasurer shall keep a separate account of each of the said funds, and all moneys not wanted for current use shall be invested and held in trust by the said Trustees.

SEC. 6. The said Trustees shall elect their own Chairman, Treasurer, and Secretary.

They shall meet at least twice in each year, and shall keep minutes of their proceedings, which shall be submitted to the Convention of the Diocese whenever called for.

CANON XX.

Of the Trial of a Clergyman not being a Bishop.

Whenever any Minister of this Diocese, not being a Bishop thereof, shall become "liable to presentment and trial," under the provisions of any Canon of the General or Diocesan Convention, the mode of proceeding in this Diocese shall be as follows, viz.:

SEC. 1. The trial shall be on a presentment in writing, addressed to the Bishop of the Diocese, specifying the offences of which the accused is alleged to be guilty, with reasonable certainty as to time, place, and circumstances. Such presentment may be made by the major part in number of the members of the Vestry of any Church of which the accused is a Minister, or by any three Presbyters of this Diocese entitled to seats in the Convention, or as hereinafter mentioned. Whenever, from public rumor or otherwise, the Bishop shall have reason to believe that any Clergyman is under the imputation of having been guilty of any offence or misconduct for which he is liable to be tried, and that the interest of the Church requires an investigation, it shall be his duty to appoint five persons, of whom three at least shall be Presbyters, to examine the case, a majority of whom may make such examination ; and if there is in their opinion sufficient ground for presentment, shall present the Clergyman accordingly.

SEC. 2. A presentment being made in any one of the modes above prescribed, the Bishop, if the facts charged shall not appear to him to be such as constitute an offence, may dismiss it ; or if it allege facts, some of which do and some of which do not constitute an offence, he may allow it in part and dismiss the residue, or he may permit it to be amended. When it shall be allowed in whole or in part, the Bishop shall cause a copy of it to be served on the accused, and shall also nominate twelve Presbyters of this Diocese, entitled to seats in the Convention and not being parties to the presentment, and cause a list of their names to be served on the accused, who shall, within thirty days after such service, select five of them and notify their names in writing to the Bishop ; and if he shall not give such notification to the Bishop within the said thirty days, the Bishop shall select five, and the Presbyters so selected shall form a Board for the trial of the accused, and shall meet at such time and place as the Bishop shall direct, and shall have power to adjourn from time to time, and from place to place (but always within this Diocese), as they shall think necessary.

SEC. 3. A written notice of the time and place of their first meeting shall be served at least thirty days before such meeting on the accused, and also on one of the persons making the presentment.

SEC. 4. If, at the time appointed for the first meeting of the Board of Presbyters, the whole number of five shall not attend, then those who do attend may adjourn from time to time ; and if, after one adjournment or more, it shall appear to them improbable that the whole number will attend within a reasonable time, then those who do attend, not being less than three, shall constitute the Board, and proceed to the trial, and a majority of them shall decide all questions.

SEC. 5. If a clergyman presented shall confess the truth of the facts alleged in the presentment, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to proceed to pass sentence; and if he shall not confess them before the appointment of a Board for his trial, as before mentioned, he shall be considered as denying them.

SEC. 6. If a Clergyman presented, after having had due notice, shall not appear before the Board of Presbyters appointed for his trial, the Board may nevertheless proceed as if he were present, unless for good cause they shall see fit to adjourn to another day.

SEC. 7. When the Board proceed to the trial, they shall hear such evidence as shall be produced, which evidence shall be reduced to writing, and signed by the witnesses respectively; and some officer. authorized by law to administer oaths, may, at the desire of either party, be requested to administer an oath or affirmation to the witnesses that they will testify the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, concerning the facts charged in the presentment. If, on or during the trial, the accused shall confess the truth of the charges, as stated in the presentment, the Board may dispense with hearing further evidence, and may proceed at once to state their opinion to the Bishop as to the sentence that ought to be pronounced.

SEC. 8. Upon the application of either party to the Bishop, and it being made satisfactorily to appear to him that any material witnesses cannot be procured upon the trial, the Bishop may appoint a Commissary to take the testimony of any such witness. Such Commissary may be either a Clergyman or a Layman, and the party so applying shall give to the other at least six days' notice of the time and place of taking the testimony. And if the person on whom the notice shall be served shall reside more than forty miles from the place of examination, an additional day's notice shall be given for every additional twenty miles of the said distance. And both parties may attend and examine the witness, and the questions and answers shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witness, and shall be certified by the Commissary, and enclosed under his seal, and transmitted to the Board, and shall be received by them as evidence. A witness examined before such Commissary may be sworn or affirmed in manner aforesaid.

SEC. 9. The Board having deliberately considered the evidence, shall declare, in a writing signed by them, or a majority of them, their decision on the charges contained in the presentment, distinctly stating whether the accused is guilty or not guilty of such charges, respectively, and also stating the sentence which in their opinion should be pronounced; and a copy of such decision shall be, without delay, communicated to the accused, and the original decision, together with the evidence, shall be delivered to the Bishop, who shall pronounce such canonical sentence as shall appear to him to be proper, provided the same shall not exceed in severity the sentence recommended by the Board; and such sentence shall be final. Before pronouncing any sentence the Bishop shall summon the accused, and any three or more of the Clergy, to meet him at such time as may in his opinion be most convenient, in some church to be designated by him, which shall for that purpose be open at the time to all persons who may choose to attend, and the sentence shall then and there be publicly pronounced by the Bishop. But the Bishop, if he shall be satisfied that justice requires it, may grant a new trial to the accused, in which case a new Board of Presbyters shall be appointed, the proceedings before whom shall be conducted as before mentioned.

SEC. 10. All notices and papers contemplated in this Canon may be served by a summoner or summoners, to be appointed for the purpose by the Bishop, and whose certificate of such service shall be evidence thereof. In case of service by any other person, the facts shall be proved by the affidavit of such person. A written notice or paper delivered to a party, or left at his last place of residence, shall be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or paper.

SEC. 11. The defendant may have the privilege of appearing by counsel; in case of the exercise of which privilege, and not otherwise, those who present shall have also the like privilege.

CANON XXI.

Concerning the Dissolution of the Pastoral Relation by Reason of Disability of a Minister.

Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Bishop, on competent medical testimony, that by reason of incurable mental or physical disability a clergyman has become incapable of discharging the duties of his cure, it shall be competent for the Bishop, on the application of the Vestry or Trustees of the Church, and upon reasonable notice to all the parties concerned, to dissolve the pastoral relation between such clergyman and his church.

CANON XXII.

Concerning Alterations in the Canons and Additions thereto.

No proposed alteration of, or addition to, the Canons shall hereafter be considered by the Convention, unless at least one day's previous notice be given thereof in open Convention; nor, unless by unanimous consent, until such alteration or addition shall have been referred to and reported upon by a Committee of at least two Presbyters and two Laymen. Nor shall such alteration or addition be adopted, during the same Convention, if two-thirds of the votes of both orders, taken separately, shall not concur therein; but in such case the same (unless negatived by a majority of the members present) shall lie over for consideration until the next annual meeting of the Convention.

CANON XXIII.

Repealing Former Canons.

All former Canons of this Convention are hereby repealed.

RULES OF ORDER.

I. Every Convention shall be preceded by the Celebration of the Holy Communion and the Annual Address of the Bishop, or a Sermon, as the Bishop shall appoint; after which, the Bishop, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, the Bishop Coadjutor, or, if there be no Bishop Coadjutor, the senior Presbyter present, shall take the Chair.

II. The Secretary of the last Convention, or, in case of his absence, some other person appointed by the Chair, shall call the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

III. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified in pursuance of Canon II., Section 10.

IV. The Chair shall then appoint a Committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

V. A quorum being present, the Chair shall declare the Convention organized for business, which shall proceed in the following order:

1. Reading of the Rules of Order.

2. In case of the absence of the Bishop, or of his inability to act, and (if there be one) of the Bishop Coadjutor, the Convention shall elect a President.

3. The election of a Secretary, who shall have power to appoint three Assistant Secretaries.

4. The election of a Treasurer.

5. The appointment of six Standing Committees by the President:

   (a) On the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, one Clergyman and two Laymen, which Committee may report at any time during the session of the Convention.

   (b) On the Diocesan Fund, two Clergymen and two Laymen, with the Treasurer.

   (c) On the Treasurer's Report, three Laymen.

   (d) On the General Theological Seminary, two Clergymen and three Laymen.

   (e) On Canons, four Clergymen and four Laymen.

   (f) On miscellaneous business, two Clergymen and three Laymen.

Any Standing Committee may meet during the intervals between Conventions, and may submit a report or reports to the succeeding Convention.

6. The appointment by the President of Inspectors of Election for the Standing Committee, for the Deputies to the Federate Council, for Deputies to the Missionary Council of the Second Department, and for the Deputies and for the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention: one Clergyman and one Layman for the clerical votes, and one Clergyman and one Layman for the lay votes of each election.

7. The Receiving and Referring of Reports, as follows; but the reading of such Reports, if already printed for circulation or ordered to be printed in the Journal, may be dispensed with, unless otherwise ordered by the Convention.

(1) Report of the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, and the Admission of Parishes into Union with the Convention.
(2) Report of the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan Convention of New York.
(3) Report of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, and appointment of Trustees.
(4) Report of the New York City Mission Society.
(5) Report of the Seamen's Church Institute of New York.
(6) Report of St. Stephen's College.
(7) Report of Sunday-school Commission.
(8) Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund.
(9) Report of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund.

The election of Trustees of any of the foregoing Boards shall be in order in connection with the reception of their reports.

8. Election of the Standing Committee, the Deputies to the Federate Council, Deputies to the Missionary Council of the Second Department, and the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention.

9. Miscellaneous business.

VI. On the second day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be:

1. Reading and approving of the Minutes.
2. Receiving certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
3. Calling the names of members not present on the first day.
4. Reports not presented or business unfinished the preceding day, in their order.
5. Report of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.
6. Report of the Secretary, when any business has been committed to him.
7. Report of the Standing Committee on the Treasurer's Report.
8. Report of the Standing Committee on General Theological Seminary.
9. Report of the Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund.
10. Report of the Committee on Canons.
11. Reports of Special Committees.
12. Miscellaneous business.

VII. On the third and any subsequent day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be:

1. Reading and approval of the Minutes.
2. Receiving the certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
3. Calling the names of members not present before.
4. Reports not presented or business unfinished the preceding day, in their order.
5. Miscellaneous business.

VIII. If the prescribed order of business on any day should not be finished, the first business the succeeding day shall be the matters which had not been reached, or finished, on the preceding day, and in the order for that day prescribed; this rule shall not apply to miscellaneous business.

IX. The address of the Bishop and of the Bishop Coadjutor shall be in order at any time.

X. Before the rising of the Convention, the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read and approved.

XI. The Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Clergymen belonging to this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses, Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, if not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

XII. The hours of each day's session shall be from 10 A.M. to 1 P.M., and from 2 P.M. to 5 P.M., and, when ordered by the Convention, from 8 to 10 P.M.

XIII. The mode of conducting the stated elections by ballot shall be as follows:

The Clergy and the Lay Delegates of the Parishes entitled to vote shall present their several ballots for each office to be filled to the appropriate inspectors, whose duty it shall be to take charge of the same, keeping a poll list of the votes, and, as soon as practicable, to canvass the same, and report the result thereof to the Convention. If, on any such report, it should appear that no valid election has been made in respect to all or any of the offices to be filled, the poll shall again be opened, for the purpose of filling those which may remain vacant; and if such second vote shall not result in an election, further votes shall be taken until all the offices are filled or until the Convention shall otherwise order.

XIV. No motion shall be considered as before the Convention unless seconded, and all motions, when required by the Chair, shall be reduced to writing.

XV. When a question is before the Convention, no motion, except as herein provided, shall be received, but to lay it on the table—to postpone it indefinitely—to postpone it to a certain time—to commit—or to amend it—or to substitute another for it; which motions shall have precedence in the order named. But a motion to strike out the word "Resolved" shall have precedence of a motion to amend, or to substitute, and, if carried, shall be equivalent to a rejection of the resolution.

XVI. All amendments shall be considered in the order in which they are received. When a proposed amendment is under consideration, a motion to amend the same may be made; no amendment to such second amendment shall be in order. But when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole matter may be received. No proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be received under color of a substitute.

XVII. Every resolution offered shall be considered at once unless reference be requested. Reference may be requested by five members of every resolution, except such as may accompany the report of a committee. Such resolution shall be referred without debate by the President to the appropriate committee, or, if in the opinion of the President there be no such committee, then to a special committee, of such number as the President shall designate.

XVIII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIX. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate.

XX. The mover may withdraw a motion or resolution at any time before decision or amendment, in which case it shall not be entered upon the Minutes.

XXI. If a question under debate contains several distinct propositions, the same shall be divided at the request of any member, and a vote taken separately.

XXII. No member may speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Convention, nor more than once in any case until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

XXIII. Every member present shall vote whenever a question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

XXIV. Votes shall be taken by ayes and noes, and by orders, whenever called for by five members.

XXV. In taking a vote by orders, it shall be the right of any member of a delegation who may dissent from the vote of the majority of the delegation to have the fact of his dissent recorded on the Minutes.

XXVI. A question, being decided, shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the members present, nor without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the first decision. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

XXVII. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

XXVIII. The reports of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, without motion for acceptance. They shall be entered on the Minutes, unless otherwise ordered. If recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the Convention, they shall be accompanied by a resolution, or resolutions, for its consideration.

XXIX. When a member is called to order by the Chair, or by another member, he shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain. All questions of order shall be determined in the first instance by the Chair; but any member may appeal from any decision of the Chair; and on such appeal, no member shall speak more than once without leave of the Convention.

XXX. The prescribed order of business shall not be departed from, nor shall any rule of order be suspended, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present; nor shall any be changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect.

XXXI. The majority of a quorum shall always be requisite to an election.

XXXII. Whenever in the Rules of Order provision is made for action by the Bishop, such action shall, in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, devolve upon the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, and shall devolve upon the Standing Committee or other authority in cases where provision is made for their action in the place of the Bishop, only in the event of the absence or disability both of the Bishop and of the Bishop Coadjutor, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate.
